Materials Evaluation And Design For Language Teaching Edinburgh Textbooks In Applied Linguistics:

Materials Evaluation and Design for Language Teaching Ian McGrath, 2016 Teaching materials play a crucial role in teaching learning. When these take the form of a textbook, it is essential that it is carefully selected to meet both external requirements and the needs of the teachers as well as allowing teacher to mediate between the textbook and the learners adapting and supplementing the book as necessary. Providing a systematic approach to the selection and subsequent evaluation of coursebooks, this textbook gives practical advice on adaptation and supplementation and beyond. Suggestions on systematising the process of materials development and on the use of learner generated materials are included for teachers who prefer to prepare their own materials. With integrated and wide ranging coverage of the topic, this is the ideal book for those studying or practising language teaching or applied linguistics. Key Features: Numerous examples, Interleaved tasks which can be utilised by an instructor, Extensive bibliography.

Developing Materials for Language Teaching Brian Tomlinson, 2023-07-27 Viewing current developments in materials development through the eyes of developers, users and researchers from all over the world, this book applies principles to practice. It provides a comprehensive coverage of the main aspects and issues in the field as well as critical overviews of recent developments in materials development and acts as a stimulus for innovation. Now revised and updated to take account of developments over the last decade, this 3rd edition features 8 new chapters covering materials use, blended learning, multimodality, intercultural competence, communicative competence, the practical realisation of theoretical principles in the development of digital materials, the teaching of right to left languages and the commodification of grammar. Fully updated chapters with contemporary examples and considering teaching second and foreign languages other than English. New pedagogical resources with the addition of tasks and further readings for each chapter. New online resources. 2 new chapters on producing videos on teacher development courses and materials development on teacher training courses and 2 updated chapters on development courses for teachers and simulations in teacher development alongside a range of additional tasks and further reading suggestions.
