God Truth And Witness Engaging Stanley Hauerwas:

God, Truth, and Witness L. Gregory Jones, Reinhard Hütter, 2005 Robert N Bellah David B Burrell George Lindbeck and others honor and engage the work of Stanley Hauerwas Theology in the Service of the Church Timothy George, Eric Farrel Mason, 2008 This title bridges the chasm between church and academy This volume celebrates the life and work of Fisher H Humphreys a noted Baptist theologian whose teachings and writings have shaped several generations of pastors missionaries and theological students Humphreys has said about his own life s work My theology is church theology I do thinking about God in the fellowship of the church Since 1990 Humphreys has taught systematic theology at Beeson Divinity School of Samford University following an even longer tenure on the faculty of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Written by Humphreys colleagues and friends the essays here illuminate various aspects of the theologian s calling from the standpoint of specific theological disciplines and from the intersection of theology with other areas of Christian life and thought In this way Fisher Humphreys self understanding of his own vocation as a theologian of the church is commended and the importance of thinking clearly and faithfully about God in the fellowship of the church is seen to be a vital component in the life of the faith The Necessity of Witness Ariaan Baan, 2015-08-17 The role of witness is a recurring theme in the work of Stanley Hauerwas it is through enacting the truth in a world of lies through seeking peace in a world of violence that witnesses show who God is who we are and what the world is like The Necessity of Witness is a study of Hauerwas and his fascinating but complex understanding of witness Ariaan W Baan argues that Hauerwas s approach makes a significant contribution to current debates in systematic theology on the relation between truth and life Reading Hauerwas can be a precarious adventure His rhetoric is overwhelming but his argument is not always crystal clear and carefully formulated With the help of semiotic and philosophical analysis and biblical exegesis Baan articulates Hauerwas s intuitions fills some of the gaps in his argumentation and discloses hidden biases The results of this analysis sometimes surprise Baan notes that unexpected pericopes in Scripture such as Isaiah and Revelation support Hauerwas s account of witness and concludes that his work offers insight into how in our late modern society such diverse groups as martyrs and pop stars offer implicit witness through their lives Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves, 2017-08-31 In our troubled world protective hospitality is tragically necessary and requires informed shared action and belief on behalf of the threatened other In Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves argues that protective hospitality and its faith based foundations as seen in the Abrahamic traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam merit greater theological attention Reaves shows that the practice of protective hospitality in Christianity can be enhanced by a better understanding of Jewish and Muslim practices of hospitality as well as of their codes and etiquettes related to honour Safeguarding the Stranger draws on a contextual and political theological approach informed by liberation and feminist theologies as viewed through the lens of a co operative and complementary theological view which is influenced by inter religious Abrahamic and hospitable approaches to dialogue forecasting the positive role that religions can play in resolving conflicts Oliver O'Donovan's Moral Theology Samuel Tranter, 2020-10-01 This book offers the first sustained full length treatment of the wide ranging work of major Anglican theologian Oliver O Donovan Analyzing such key texts as Resurrection and Moral Order The Desire of the Nations and Ethics as Theology Samuel Tranter shows that the relationship between eschatology and ethics is an area of significant tension in O Donovan s evolving vision of moral theology Tranter traces this tension as it relates to O Donovan s writing and contemporary discussion around natural law divine command and human flourishing as well as to particular topics such as poverty marriage and singleness and biotechnology He also connects it with the broader doctrinal features of O Donovan s project such as his accounts of creation sin and redemption and his understanding of the relationships between the cross and the resurrection on one hand and Christology and pneumatology on the other Throughout Tranter indicates the implications of these themes for our understanding of the Christian life This volume establishes and evaluates O Donovan s influence on contemporary Christian ethicists and political theologians such as Luke Bretherton Gilbert Meilaender Jean Porter and Brent Waters and engages with critical readings of O Donovan such as those by Stanley Hauerwas and Gerald McKenny In conversation with these and other voices from a range of perspectives Tranter shows how O Donovan s proposals may be appropriated and amended as a resource for theology and ethics going forward Jewish-Christian Dialogue and the Life of Wisdom Matthew Levering, 2010-03-21 This book inquires as to whether theological dialogue between Christians and Jews is possible not only in itself but also as regards the emergence of communities of Messianic Judaism In light of David Novak s insights Matthew Levering proposes that Christian theological responses to supersessionism need to preserve both the Church s development of doctrine and Rabbinic Judaism s ability to define its own boundaries The book undertakes constructive philosophical theology in dialogue with Novak Exploring the interrelated doctrines of divine providence theonomy the image of God and natural law Levering places Novak s work in conversation especially with Thomas Aquinas whose approach fosters a rich dialogue with Novak s broadly Maimonidean perspective It focuses upon the relationship of human beings to the Creator with attention to the philosophical entailments of Jewish and Christian covenantal commitments aiming to spell out what true freedom involves It concludes by asking whether Christians and Jews would do better to bracket our covenantal commitments in pursuing such wisdom Drawing upon Novak s work the author argues that in the face of suffering and death God s covenantal election makes possible hope lacking which the quest for wisdom runs aground

Karl Barth in Conversation W. Travis McMaken, David W. Congdon, 2014-02-18 Karl Barth was an eminently conversational theologian and with the Internet revolution we live today in an eminently conversational age Being the proceedings of the 2010 Karl Barth Blog Conference Karl Barth in Conversation brings these two factors together in order to advance the dialogue about Barth s theology and extend the online conversation to new audiences With conversation partners ranging from Wesley to Ick from Schleiermacher to Jenson from Hauerwas to the Coen brothers this volume opens up exciting new horizons for exploring Barth's immense contribution to church and world. The contributors who represent a young new generation of academic theologians bring a fresh perspective to a topic, the theology of Karl Barth, that often seems to have exhausted its range of possibilities. This book proves that there is still a great deal of uncharted territory in the field of Barth studies. Today more than forty years since the Swiss theologian's death, the conversation is as lively as ever.

Scripture: A Very Theological Proposal Angus Paddison, 2009-10-10 To identify the biblical texts as Scripture is to make a series of specific claims about this text that it is drawn into the activity of the triune God of Israel that its ultimate destination is the worshipping church and that it has a ministry in shaping Christian thinking and acting. Scripture: A Very Theological Proposal advances that the resources for reading Scripture, understanding its claims and acting upon them, will be found by looking to the church's life and doctrines. Reading Scripture with a host of theologians, Paddison proposes a hermeneutic appropriate to reading Scripture both as divine address and the book of the church. The book positions itself by resisting accounts in which Scripture's relationship to God and its life within the church are understood competitively as if the more we attend to one, the less we are attending to the other. Chapters further explore a doctrine of Scripture and the relationship of ethics, doctrine and preaching to Scripture. A final chapter asks: can or should Scripture be read in the university?

The Turn to Transcendence Glenn W. Olsen, 2012-07-30 Phenomenal! A must read for us who desire to topple the dictatorship of relativism and culture of death and replace it with the only alternative: The Imaginative Conservative. Especially concerned with the public nature of religion, historian Glenn W. Olsen, author of Christian Marriage: A Historical Study and On the Road to Emmaus: The Catholic Dialogue with American and Modernity, sets forth an exhaustively researched and persuasive account of how religion has been reshaped in the modern period. The Turn to Transcendence traces both the loss of transcendence and attempts to recover it while making its own proposals. Neither reactionary nor modernist, it questions how, under conditions of modern life, some form of the sacred and some form of the secular might both flourish at the same time. But it also provides a warning: that a religion unable to maintain itself with its own overt architecture, language and calendars against an enveloping secular culture is destined for oblivion. Glenn Olsen's book could hardly be more pivotal or insightful. Confronting the growing amnesia regarding culture's religious origin and transcendent purpose, Olsen proves both a masterful cartographer of modernity and a visionary of a culture that encourages and enables us to seek beyond ourselves.

Carl A. Anderson, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, A brilliant book. It rests on an amazing amount of scholarship that is wide-ranging in history, literature, art, science, music, theology and philosophy. James Hitchcock, professor of history, St. Louis University.

Apostolicity John G. Flett, 2016-05-23 At the heart of the ecumenical discussions over the past century lies the issue of what constitutes the apostolicity of the church. In an attempt to forge structural agreements, these discussions have ignored the diversity of world Christianity. In this groundbreaking study, John Flett presents a bold account of an apostolicity that embraces plurality.

Yong, 2007 While the struggle for disability rights has transformed secular ethics and public policy traditional Christian teaching has been slow to account for disability in its theological imagination Amos Yong crafts both a theology of disability and a theology informed by disability The result is a Christian theology that not only connects with our present social medical and scientific understanding of disability but also one that empowers a set of best practices appropriate to our late modern context Publisher description

The English Modernist Novel as Political Theology Charles Andrews, 2024-01-11 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE novels by Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Evelyn Waugh and Sylvia Townsend Warner as political theology works that imagine a resistance to the fusion of Christianity and patriotism which fuelled and supported the First World War this book shows how we can gain valuable insights from their works for anti militarist anti statist and anti nationalist efforts today While none of the four novelists in this study were committed Christians during the 1920s Andrews explores how their fiction written in the wake of the First World War operates theologically when it challenges English civil religion the rituals of the nation that elevate the state to a form of divinity Bringing these novels into a dialogue with recent political theologies by theorists and theologians including Giorgio Agamben William Cavanaugh Simon Critchley Michel Foucault Stanley Hauerwas and Jurgen Moltmann this book shows the myriad ways that we can learn from the authors theopolitical imaginations Andrews demonstrates the many ways that these novelists issue a challenge to the problems with civil religion and the sacralized nation state and in so doing offer alternative visions to coordinate our inner lives with our public and collective actions

Postsecular Cities Justin Beaumont, Christopher Baker, 2011-06-16 This book reflects the wide spread belief that the twenty first century is evolving in a significantly different way to the twentieth which witnessed the advance of human rationality and technological progress including urbanisation and called into question the public and cultural significance of religion In this century by contrast religion faith communities and spiritual values have returned to the centre of public life especially public policy governance and social identity Rapidly diversifying urban locations are the best places to witness the emergence of new spaces in which religions and spiritual traditions are creating both new alliances but also bifurcations with secular sectors Postsecular Cities examines how the built environment reflects these trends Recognizing that the turn to the postsecular is a contested and multifaceted trend the authors offer a vigorous open but structured dialogue between theory and practice but even more excitingly between the disciplines of human geography and theology Both disciplines reflect on this powerful but enigmatic force shaping our urban humanity This unique volume offers the first insight into these interdisciplinary and challenging debates

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction

Commentary on the Bible) Douglas Harink,2009-11-01 This addition to the well received Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible offers a theological exegesis of 1 2 Peter This commentary like each in the series is designed to serve the church through aid in preaching teaching study groups and so forth and demonstrate the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible The Brazos Theological Commentary exists to provide an accessible authority so that the preacher s application will be a ready bandage for all the hurts of life The Brazos Commentary offers just the right level of light to make illuminating the word the joy it was meant to be Calvin Miller author of A Hunger for the Holy and Loving God Up Close Christ, History and Apocalyptic Nathan R. Kerr,2008-10-13 This book offers a comprehensive reflection on what it means that Christians claim that Jesus is Lord by engaging in a defense of Christian apocalyptic as the criterion for evaluating the truth of history and of history s relation to the transcendent political reality that theology calls the Kingdom of God The heart of this work comprises an original genealogical analysis of twentieth century theological encounters with the modern historicist problematic through a series of critical engagements with the work of Ernst Troeltsch Karl Barth Stanley Hauerwas and John Howard Yoder Bringing these thinkers into conversation at key points with the work of Walter Benjamin Carl Schmitt John Milbank and Michel de Certeau among others this genealogy analyzes and exposes the ideologically Constantinian assumptions shared by both modern liberal and contemporary post liberal accounts of Christian politics and mission On the basis of a rereading of John Howard Yoder s place within this genealogy the author outlines an alternative apocalyptic historicism which conceives the work of Christian politics as a mode of subversive missionary encounter between church and world The result is a profoundly original vision of history that at once calls for and is empowered by a Christian apocalyptic politics in which the ideologically reductionist concerns for political effectiveness and productivity are surpassed by way of a missionary praxis of subversion and liberation rooted in liturgy and doxology Receiving the Gift of Friendship Hans S. Reinders,2008-04-14 Does what we are capable of doing define us as human beings If this basic anthropological assumption is true where can that leave those with intellectual disabilities unable to accomplish the things that we propose give us our very humanity Hans Reinders here makes an unusual claim about unusual people those who are profoundly disabled are people just like the rest of us He acknowledges that at first glance this is not an unusual claim given the steps taken within the last few decades to bring the rights of those with disabilities into line with the rights of the mainstream But he argues that cannot be the end of the matter because the disabled are human beings before they are citizens To live a human life properly he says they must not only be included in our institutions and have access to our public spaces they must also be included in other people s lives not just by natural necessity but by choice Receiving the Gift of Friendship consists of three parts 1 Profound Disability 2 Theology and 3 Ethics

Overturning the commonsense view of human beings Reinders s argument for a paradigm shift in our relation to people with disabilities is founded on a groundbreaking philosophical theological consideration of humanity and of our basic human commonality Moreover Reinders gives his study human vividness and warmth with stories of the profoundly disabled from his own life and from the work of Jean Vanier and Henri Nouwen in L Arche communities
