God's Foreign Policy Miriam Adeney,1993-11      Controversies in Mission Rochelle Cathcart Scheuermann,Edward L. Smither,2016-09-15 Crossing social cultural and religious barriers and making disciples of all nations has probably never been without some level of controversy This book is an attempt to hit the pause button on this rapid paced world and to reflect on how we do mission especially in light of the new layers of complexity that globalization brings While the contributors engage in new aspects of mission and cultural encounter unique to the twenty first century the underlying issues of each chapter are age old topics that have reared their heads at various times throughout history priorities in mission power struggles perspectives on cultural others and contextualization With that in mind our aims are twofold 1 to carefully consider issues causing tension and contention within current mission thought practice and strategy and then 2 to engage in serious but charitable dialogue for the sake of God s mission and the salvation of all peoples      Re-Imagining Short-Term Missions Forrest Inslee,Angel Burns,2022-03-10 This book is for those who suspect that current practices of short term missions are in need of serious reform It is a book for those who recognize that in this decade of global upheaval and in light of the cultural political and demographic shifts affecting churches everywhere now is the time for change The essays here are intended to equip and inspire any who want to advocate for change but may not yet know what change looks like This book offers honest perspectives from people who care about the purposes of short term missions STM yet know that we must figure out better ways of achieving them Nearly all contributors are actively engaged in STM and many write from the perspective of those who host STM teams in places all over the world This book is a platform for visionaries who are calling for better ways for the church to engage the needs of the world In sharing their experiences they hope to promote critical rethinking and creative reimagination about the ways that the global church might learn to collaborate on a new basis of coequality and mutual respect for the good of the world and the glory of God      Beyond Christendom Jehu Hanciles,2008 Hanciles does yeoman work in part one synthesizing studies on the impact of globalization revealing that its outcomes will likely not be determined by the Euro American heartlands that sparked this movement Instead in parts two he shows that migration in general is having an enormous effect on shaping a new world order and in part three Mobile Faith he advances the case for the migration of Christians as carrying within it the seeds of renewal for the whole church and also the potential to reshape church state and religion and culture relations globally      Evangelicals Around the World Thomas Nelson,2015-07-14 There are an estimated 600 million Evangelicals in the world today crossing cultures histories languages politics and nationalities Evangelicals Around the World A Global Handbook for the 21st Century introduces the fastest growing segment of the global Christian church to the world and to each other Bringing together a team of multi disciplined scholars writers activists and leaders from around the world this handbook provides a compelling look at the diverse group we call Evangelicals In this guide written by those who know the movement the best the issues that divide and the beliefs that unite this global Christian movement are presented in a journalistic fashion Evangelicals Around the World describes the past and the present the unique characters and the powerful ministries of Evangelicals With a large trim size and colorful page design this beautiful book is the perfect choice for laypeople and scholars alike Features include Essays written by senior leaders of the movement and newer voices with fresh perspectives Articles written by journalists convey diverse and creative perspectives on ministry Essays provide the demographic details of Evangelicals in regions around the world Maps graphs photographs quotes and mini profiles of evangelical heroes throughout time The New Evangelical Social Engagement Brian Steensland, Philip Goff, 2014 Evangelicals are increasingly turning their attention to such issues as the environment international human rights economic development racial reconciliation and urban renewal The New Evangelical Social Engagement maps this new religious terrain and spells out its significance Missions from the Majority World Enoch Wan, Micheal Pocock, 2009-09-15 The churches from the whole world are joined in the effort to reach the whole world Although it has been documented that Western missionaries serving outside their countries still comprise the majority of world missions workers the growth rate of majority world missionaries far outpaces that of the West In recent years while Western missionary forces are shrinking in numbers and possibly in influence missions from the majority world have proliferated bringing amazing progress and some challenges Missions from the Majority World represents the thinking of 14 majority world mission scholars and 10 Westerners with lengthy experience in the missionary enterprise The book shows the progress and challenges of missions from the majority world and illustrates this by case studies from Asia Africa and Latin America The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen, Dean S. Gilliland, 1999-09-17 Communities of Faith in Africa and the African Diaspora Casely B. Essamuah, David K. Ngaruiya, 2014-01-13 Communities of Faith is a collection of essays on the multicultural Christian spirit and practices of churches around the world with particular attention to Africa and the African diaspora The essays span history theology anthropology ecumenism and missiology Readers will be treated to fresh perspectives on African Pentecostal higher education Pentecostalism and witchcraft in East Africa Methodist camp meetings in Ghana Ghanaian diaspora missions in Europe and North America gender roles in South African Christian communities HIV AIDS ministries in Uganda Japanese funerary rites enculturation and contextualization principles of mission and many other aspects of the Christian world mission With essays from well known scholars as well as young and emerging men and women in academia Communities of Faith illuminates current realities of world Christianity and contributes to the scholarship of today's worldwide Christian witness The Church and Cultures Louis J. Luzbetak, 2015-03-31 Why should the church be concerned about cultures Louis J. Luzbetak began to answer this question twenty five years ago with the publication of The Church and Cultures An Applied Anthropology for the Religious Worker Reprinted six times and translated into five languages it became an undisputed classic in the field Now by popular demand Luzbetak has thoroughly rewritten his work completely updating it in light of contemporary anthropological and missiological thought and in face of current world conditions Serving as a handbook for a culturally sensitive ministry and witness The Church and Cultures introduces the non anthropologist to a wealth of scientific knowledge directly relevant to pastoral work religious education social action and liturgy in fact to all forms of missionary activity in the church It focuses on a burning theological issue that of contextualization the process by which a local church integrates its understanding of the Gospel text with the local culture context

The Way of the Sea Roald Kverndal,2008-01-01 The sea has been both a source of bounty and a bridge of communication through the ages The Way of the Sea explores the unique role of seafarers in promoting the revealed plan of the Creator and Redeemer of both land and sea As a follow up to The Seamen s Mission Kverndal s comprehensive survey of maritime mission presents both historical and current perspectives While The Way of the Sea provides a much needed tool for the developing field of maritime Missiology people from all walks of life will learn from the rich history and culture of kingdom minded seafarers

The Business of War James McCarty,Matthew Tapie,Justin Bronson Barringer,2020-10-01 The Business of War incisively interrogates the development and contemporary implications of the military industrial complex It exposes the moral dangers of life in neoliberal economies dependent upon war making for their growth and brings the Christian tradition s abundance of resources into conversation with this phenomenon In doing so the authors invite us to rethink the moral possibilities of Christian life in the present day with an eye toward faithful resistance to the business of war and its influence in every aspect of our lives In combining biblical historical theological and ethical analyses of the business of war the authors invite us to better understand it as a new moral problem that demands a new faithful response With contributions from Pamela Brubaker Stan Goff Christina McRorie Logan Mehl Laituri Kara Slade Won Chul Shin David Swartz Jonathan Tran Myles Werntz Matthew Whelan Tobia Winright

What About Us? Global Perspectives on Redressing Religious Inequalities Mariz Tadros,Olumide Adebimpe Aderounmu,Asif Aqeel,Manal Ahmed

(Elehemier),Miriam Feldmann Kaye,Mary Gill,Mark Kaahwa,Philip Mader,Matome Jacky Makgoba,Moses Muhumuza,Rebecca Supriya Shah,Timothy Samuel Shah,Katharine Thane,Rifqah Tifloen,Tom Vanwing,2022-10-26 How can we make religious equality a reality for those on the margins of society and politics This book is about the individual and collective struggles of the religiously marginalised to be recognised and their inequalities religious or otherwise redressed It is also about the efforts of civil society governments multilateral actors and scholars to promote freedom of religion or belief whatever shape they take The actors and contexts that feature in this book are as diverse as health workers in Israel local education authorities in Nigeria indigenous movements in India Uganda or South Africa and multilateral actors such as the Islamic Development Bank in Sudan and the World Bank in Pakistan Some of the case studies engage with development discourses and narratives or are undertaken by development actors while other cases operate completely outside the international development paradigm These case studies present some important insights which while highly relevant for their contexts also draw out important insights for academics practitioners activists and others who have an interest in redressing

religious inequalities for socioeconomically marginalised populations      One World Or Many? Richard Tiplady, 2003 This book considers in detail the key drivers of globalization its contemporary shape and its implications for world mission It also looks at the impact of globalization on different contemporary issues affecting mission such as ethnicity the environment and global health as well as globalization s effect on more traditional missionary questions of the world religions contextualization theology and the church One World or Many is written by a variety of authors from all over the world This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance      A Hybrid World Sadiri Joy Tira, Juliet Lee Uytanlet, 2020-05-15 Linking Blending Intermixing with Divine Purpose People are on the move As individuals and people groups are constantly migrating the unreached have become part of our communities This reality provides local Christ followers with the challenge and opportunity of navigating both the global diaspora and mixed ethnicities A Hybrid World is the product of a global consultation of church and mission leaders who discussed the implications of hybridity in the mission of God The contributors draw from their collective experiences and perspectives explore emerging concepts and initiatives and ground them in authoritative Scripture for application to the challenges that hybridity presents to global missions This book honestly wrestles with the challenges of ethnic hybridity and ultimately encourages the global church to celebrate the opportunities that our sovereign and loving God provides for the world s scattered people to be gathered to himself      Light for the Writer's Soul Global Christian Writers, 2016-02-15 Christian writers around the globe have contributed to this exciting journal Containing 100 devotional articles from 27 countries this book aims to inspire and encourage Christian writers to harness their gifts and keep writing for God MAI hopes their words will make a difference in the hearts and minds of their readers      Sorrow and Blood William D. Taylor, Antonia van der Meer, Reg Reimer, 2012-07-04 On behalf of the WEA Mission Commission William Carey Library is pleased to launch a landmark anthology and resource This is a new publication in the Globalization of Mission series Sorrow Blood Christian Mission in Contexts of Suffering Persecution and Martyrdom The editorial team of William Taylor USA Tonica van der Meer Brazil and Reg Reimer Canada worked over four years to compile this unique resource anthology This book is the product of the Mission Commission s global missiology task force and a worldwide team of committed colleagues and writers Some 62 writers from 23 nations have collaborated to generate this unique global resource and anthology Ajith Fernando of Sri Lanka and Christopher Wright of the UK each wrote prefaces to the book This latest WEA volume has the potential of profoundly shaping our approach to mission in today s challenging and increasingly dangerous world      A Time for Risking Miriam Adeney, 1987-12      Effective Engagement in Short-Term Missions Robert J. Priest, 2008-09-15 Effective Engagement in Short term Missions represents the single most ambitious effort to date to understand and improve upon patterns of ministry in STM In six sections the authors explore topics such as the links between STM and older patterns of long term missions engagement with people of other cultures international partnerships specialized ministries such as medical missions legal and financial liabilities and last but not least the impact of STM on participants The goal of this book is to improve the ways in which STM is carried out and to improve the understandings needed on the part of all who engage in the ministry In short this book attempts to provide a knowledge base for those who provide leadership within the short term missions movement Youth pastors mission pastors lay leaders college and seminary students and missiologists will all find information that is helpful and relevant to their concerns
