The Routledge Companion to Alternative Organization Martin Parker, George Cheney, Valérie Fournier, Chris Land, 2014-01-03 Despite the Great Recession slightly different forms of global capitalism are still portrayed as the only game in town by the vast majority of people in power in the world today Unbridled growth trade liberalisation and competition are advocated as the only or best ways of organizing the contemporary world Unemployment yawning gaps between rich and poor political disengagement and environmental devastation are too often seen as acceptable side effects of the dominance of neo liberalism But the reality is that capitalism has always been contested and that people have created many other ways of providing for themselves This book explores economic and organizational possibilities which extend far beyond the narrow imagination of economists and management theorists Chapters on co operatives community currencies the transition movement scrounging co housing and much more paints a rich picture of the ways in which another world is not only possible but already taking shape The aim of this companion is to move beyond complaining about the present and into exploring this diversity of organisational possibilities Our starting point is a critical analysis of contemporary global capitalism is merely the opening for thinking about organizing as a form of politics by other means and one that can be driven by the values of solidarity freedom and responsibility This comprehensive companion with an international cast of contributors gives voice to forms of organizing which remain unrepresented or marginalised in organizational studies and conventional politics yet which offer more promising grounds for social and environmental justice It is a valuable resource for students activists and researchers interested in alternative approaches to economy and society in a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields

Pritchett, 2017-08-29 Death is a great and grand mystery and the actual act of dying is the last physical act of our lives We can do it well like a graceful well rehearsed piano solo or we can do it like that first awkward dance with a middle school crush But if anything deserves our full attention some preparation or some renewed clarity death might be it In this light hearted irreverent exploration of the one thing that is certain in all lives Making Friends with Death offers a look at all the uncertainty that precedes this final act A compelling mix of practical how to advice and personal narrative this book encapsulates our greatest quest to make peace with death Pritchett offers up wisdom she has gleaned from all sorts of places including a decade of traditional research and a lifetime of other related but less formal pursuits digging up a dead body watching her dog be necropsied on the lawn hosting Death Cafés and confronting the grim reaper himself Making Friends with Death broaches the sacred and the scary with warmth research and humor Interspersed with a variety of workbook like exercises this book will prove to be the go to companion for anyone who would rather be able to greet death as an old friend rather than a spooky stranger The Blue Hour Laura Pritchett, 2018-02-27 Winner of the 2018 Colorado Book Award

Pritchett writes with an evident love for the mountains and the people that call them home Westword The residents of Blue Moon Mountain form a tight knit community of those living off the land stunned by the beauty and isolation all around them

So when at the onset of winter the town veterinarian commits a violent act the repercussions of that tragedy are felt all across the mountainside upending their lives and causing their paths to twist and collide in unexpected ways The housecleaner rediscovering her sexual appetite the farrier who must take in his traumatized niece the grocer and her daughter the therapist and the teacher reaching out to the world in new and surprising ways and the ragged couple trapped in a cycle of addiction and violence They will all rise and converge upon the blue hour the l heure bleu a time of desire lust honesty and learn to navigate the often confusing paths of mourning and love Writing with passion for rural lives and the natural world Laura Pritchett who has been called one of the most accomplished writers of the American West graces the land of desire in vivid prose exploring the lengths these characters some of whom we ve met in Pritchett s previous work will traverse to protect their own
