My Big Fat Family Cookbook Eleni Krieger, 2012-09-03 German born and raised in San Jose California I moved to Stockton California in August 1999 I have been a home chef for most of my adult life and I am now pondering the idea of a catering business or a quaint coffee shop in a touristy town Most of my culinary expertise has been derived from watching my Mom who was always in the kitchen when I was a young child growing up If she wasn't preparing our daily meals then she was making jams or baking cakes and pies or she was tending to the garden I can still see her bending over the tomato plants looking for those awful insects that were making a meal of my Dad's garden I grew up in a rural part of San Jose which at the time we were surrounded by orchards and off in the distance there were dairy farms now the area is known as Almaden Valley My former home town is now a bustling metropolis with too much traffic too much noise and too much of everything Which is why I have settled in Stockton it reminds so much of my childhood home while growing up I have always loved to cook and bake just like my Mom does Seems I have been in the kitchen forever and will probably never leave my stovetop This book contains many recipes that have been handed down from the roots of our family in Germany I have been able to document them with the help of my

Mom Some of them are more difficult than others to prepare but I think everyone will enjoy the experience and the final results after preparing them Get ready for a little adventure into the 1940 s and 1950 s in a region called Bavaria where my family roots primarily still reside I love to conjure up new comfort food delicacies to please my family and friends when I am entertaining This book has become my biggest obsession of late what will I do next Stay tuned for the next chapter

The Family Cooks Laurie David,2014-04-22 For families eating right has become a monumental challenge Cultural messages convince us that we no longer have time to cook and food marketers spend billions persuading us that packaged processed food is convenient satisfying and the key to happiness Half of all our meals are now eaten outside the home The result Skyrocketing rates of heart disease and diabetes and unprecedented levels of childhood obesity This crisis is movingly portrayed in author and activist Laurie David s new documentary coexecutive produced with Katie Couric Fed Up Luckily we have a solution Studies have clearly shown that eating home cooked meals reduces obesity and develops lifelong healthy eating habits There is an exciting movement afoot that involves a skillet a few good knives and some fresh ingredients Home cooking is making a comeback In The Family Cooks David inspires parents and kids to take control of what they eat by making it themselves With her longtime collaborator Kirstin Uhrenholdt David offers more than 100 recipes that are simple fast low in the bad stuff and high in the good stuff and designed to bring kids into the cooking process The authors also demystify cooking terms and break down basic prep techniques creating stress free meals that foster health togetherness and happy palates The Family Cooks is the ideal companion for unseasoned chefs of all stripes whether they re parenting or being parented
