Good Practice in Primary Schools, 1992 OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education Synergies for Better Learning An International Perspective on Evaluation and Assessment OECD, 2013-04-11 This report provides an international comparative analysis and policy advice to countries on how evaluation and assessment arrangements can be embedded within a consistent framework to improve the quality equity and efficiency of school education Reviews of National Policies for Education OECD Review of Resourcing Schools to Address Educational Disadvantage in Ireland OECD, 2024-07-18 The OECD Review of Resourcing Schools to Address Educational Disadvantage in Ireland provides an independent analysis meant to support Irish authorities in identifying ways to strengthen the resources and supports provided to students at risk of educational disadvantage in both DEIS and non DEIS schools The report serves three purposes i to provide insights and advice to Irish education authorities ii to help other countries understand the Irish approach to equitable education and iii to provide input for comparative analyses of the OECD Education for Inclusive Societies project The scope for the analysis in this report covers primary and post primary education The focus areas of the review in Ireland are i governance ii resourcing iii capacity building iv school level interventions and v monitoring and evaluation This report will be of interest in Ireland and other countries looking to improve the equity of students at risk of educational disadvantage in their education systems OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education: Northern Ireland, United Kingdom Shewbridge Claire, Hulshof Marian, Nusche Deborah, Staehr Lars Stenius, 2014-01-16 This comprehensive review of Northern Ireland s educational evaluation and assessment framework finds a programme that is thoughtfully designed and which stands out internationally Cross National Policies and Practices on Computers in Education Tjeerd Plomp, R.E. Anderson, Georgia Kontogiannopoulou-Polydorides, 2007-08-19 This book presents some of the results from the second stage of IEA s study of Computers in Education CompEd IEA the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement conducts international comparative studies focussing on educational achievement practices and policies in various countries and education systems around the world It has a Secretariat located in Amsterdam the Netherlands IEA studies have reported on a wide range of topics each contributing to a deeper understanding of educational processes The CompEd study is a project that sheds light on the way computers have been introduced in education and on how they are being used across the world today The study proceeded in two stages with data collected for stage 1 in 1989 and for stage 2 in 1992 Results from both stages have been published in a variety of publications This book reports about a special part of the study Student achievement and school processes come into being in the context of the structure and the policies of national or regional education systems The variety found in the CompEd results led us to ask how much might be explained by differences in these national or regional contexts That is the reason the CompEd study took the initiative to invite the countries participating in the study as well as some other countries that have had interesting developments in the domain of educational computers to write a chapter describing their policies and practices regarding computers in education The Psychology of Teaching and Learning in the Primary School David Whitebread,2002-01-04 This book reviews recent work in psychology which sheds new light on important areas of concern to primary school teachers providing clear guidelines for good practice The Psychology of Teaching and Learning in the Primary School details the current controversies regarding the effective teaching of reading and numeracy how to deal with emotional and behavioural difficulties the best methods of assessing learning as well as teaching children to think and develop their creativity It is a useful text for tutors and students on initial teacher training courses and to teachers involved in professional development Each chapter contains an editor s summary a list of further reading a full list of references and activities to develop and deepen the readers understanding in each area At the same time the book is written in an accessible style ideal for the non psychologist and is well illustrated with practical classroom examples OECD Skills Studies OECD Skills Strategy Latvia Assessment and Recommendations OECD,2019-12-19 This report OECD Skills Strategy Latvia Assessment and Recommendations identifies opportunities and makes recommendations to strengthen the skills outcomes of students foster a culture of lifelong learning reduce skills imbalances in the labour market and strengthen the governance of the skills system Women into

Computing Gillian Lovegrove,Barbara Segal,2013-06-29 This book contains the majority of the papers presented at the 1990 Women into Computing Conference together with selected papers from the 1989 and 1988 Conferences In 1988 the main theme running through the Conference was that of dismay at the low number of women taking computing courses or following computing careers The 1989 Conference was concerned solely with workshops for schoolgirls and the 1990 Conference concentrated on strategies rather than an assessment of the situation As editors we set as our task to make a selection of papers presenting the overall picture in 1990 We found that many of the issues discussed in 1988 are still a cause for concern in 1990 but that strategies to improve the situation are many and varied Section I contains speeches from the invited speakers and needs little introduction Section II contains papers covering so me attitudes and issues of concern ranging from the specific Gill Russell on child care and Laurie Keller on hacker mentality through to broader aspects of gender inequality the papers of Flis Henwood Margaret Bruce and Alison Adam and Lyn Bryant Susan Jones takes a look at the reasons why we should want to see more women in computing whilst Gillian Lovegrove and Wendy Hall present a more general paper on school and higher education Primary Religious Education - A New Approach Clive Erricker,Judith Lowndes,Elaine Bellchambers,2010-09-13 Primary Religious Education A New Approach models a much needed pedagogical framework encouraging conceptual enquiry and linking theory to its implementation within the wider curriculum in schools

Department for Children, Schools and Families Great Britain. National Audit Office,2008 In 2007 the Department for Children Schools and Families commissioned Sir Peter Williams to undertake an independent review of the quality of primary mathematics teaching and his report was published in June 2008 This report evaluates in particular raising attainment and progress in mathematics and narrowing achievement gaps between certain pupils and their peers and the delivery and effectiveness of the Primary National Strategy's resources and interventions and their impact on pupil and school performance. It was found that bringing greater structure and consistency to the way primary mathematics is taught the Strategy initially helped to improve test results at Key Stage 2. Since 2000 however attainment has levelled off. It is too early to tell if the 2007 revisions to the Strategy will deliver the step change required. The report makes recommendations on this basis.
