Good Reasons with Contemporary Arguments Lester Faigley, Jack Selzer, 2001 This brief rhetoric of argument with an anthology of readings on contemporary issues takes a non Toulmin based approach to writing arguments in an electronic age By stressing the rhetorical situation and the audience the rhetoric avoids complicated terminology in favor of providing students with the practical means to find good reasons for the positions they want to advocate The rhetoric includes readings by professional and student writers including a pivotal selection from Rachel Carson's extraordinarily influential argument Silent Spring. The anthology reprints over 60 arguments on interesting current issues: the environment, affirmative action, censorship, Title IX, substance abuse, gay rights, and the body.

Becoming a Public Relations Writer Ronald D. Smith, 2016-08-05 Becoming a Public Relations Writer is a comprehensive guide to the writing process for public relations practice. Using straightforward, no-nonsense language, realistic examples, easy-to-follow steps, and practical exercises, this text introduces the various formats and styles of writing you will encounter as a public relations practitioner. A focus on ethical and legal issues is woven throughout with examples and exercises addressing public relations as practiced by corporations, non-profit agencies, and other types of organizations, both large and small. In addition, the book offers the most comprehensive list of public relations writing formats to be found anywhere, from the standard news release to electronic mail and other opportunities using a variety of technologies and media. The fifth edition has been updated to reflect significant developments in the public relations field, including:

- New and updated information on research into persuasion and social psychology aimed at helping readers be more influential in their writing.
- Significant updating on a new chapter on multimedia, introducing a new transmedia format for a comprehensive news package for print, broadcast, online, and social media.
- Expansion of a chapter on websites, blogs, and wikis.
- Expansion of the chapter on direct mail and online appeals.
- Updated examples of actual pieces of public relations writing.
- A companion website with resources for instructors and students, including a glossary, flashcards, exercises, and appendices on ethical standards, careers in public relations, and professional organizations.

Through its comprehensive and accessible approach, Becoming a Public Relations Writer is an invaluable resource for future and current public relations practitioners.

Contemporary Arguments in Natural Theology Colin Ruloff, Peter Horban, 2021-06-17 In recent years there has been a bold revival in the field of natural theology where natural theology can be understood as the attempt to demonstrate that God exists by way of reason evidence and argument without the appeal to divine revelation Today s practitioners of natural theology have not only revived and recast all of the traditional arguments in the field but by drawing upon the findings of contemporary cosmology chemistry and biology have also developed a range of fascinating new ones Contemporary Arguments in Natural Theology brings together twenty experts working in the field today Together they practice natural theology from a wide range of perspectives and show how the field of natural theology is practiced today with a degree of diversity and confidence not seen since the Middle Ages Aimed primarily at advanced undergraduates and graduate students the volume will also be of interest to researchers in philosophy theology biblical studies and religious studies as an indispensable resource on contemporary theistic proofs accommodates chaining and embedding of arguments and allows any type of illocutionary act to be a conclusion advances a general theory of relevance provides comprehensive frameworks for evaluating inferences in reasoning by analogy means end reasoning and appeals to considerations or criteria argues that none of the forms of arguing ad hominem is a fallacy describes proven methods of teaching critical thinking effectively The Foundations of Economics Walter Eucken,2012-12-06 THE FIRST GERMAN edition of this book appeared in 1940 Since then the book has gone through five more editions and has been translated into Spanish and Italian The present English translation is based on the sixth German edition The author was Professor of Economics at the University of Freiburg Germany Professor Eucken was a student at a time when the Historical School dominated the teaching of economics at the German universities Although at the beginning of his career he did some work along the lines of the Historical School neither the aims nor the methods of historical research the field of economics as practised by the representatives in of the Historical School satisfied him and the fact that the members of this school were unable to explain the causes of economic events such as the German inflation after World War I was an added reason for him to turn to economic theory He became among German economists the foremost opponent of the Historical School which he criticised in several publications Through his writings and his teaching he contributed his share to the revival of interest in economic theory which was noticeable in the twenties And he was one of the few economists left in Germany who helped to keep this interest alive during the thirties and during World War II During this time he published Kapitaltheoretische Untersuchungen 1936 and the present volume which immediately gave rise to an extensive discussion in German economic journals The Modern Preacher and the Ancient Text Sidney Greidanus,1989-01-19 A fusion of biblical hermeneutics and homiletics this thorough and well researched book offers a holistic contemporary approach to the interpretation and preaching of biblical texts using all the scholarly tools available and focusing especially on literary features Greidanus develops hermeneutical and homiletical principles and then applies them to four specific genres Hebrew narratives prophetic literature the Gospels and the Epistles Media Argumentation Douglas Walton,2007-09-24 Media argumentation is a powerful force in our lives From political speeches to television commercials to war propaganda it can effectively mobilize political action influence the public and market products This book presents a new and systematic way of thinking about the influence of mass media in our lives showing the intersection of media sources with argumentation theory informal logic computational theory and theories of persuasion Using a variety of case studies that represent arguments that typically occur in the mass media Douglas Walton demonstrates how tools recently developed in argumentation theory can be usefully applied to the identification analysis and evaluation of media arguments He draws upon the most recent developments in artificial intelligence including dialogical theories of argument which he developed as well as speech act theory Each chapter presents solutions to problems central to understanding analyzing and criticizing media argumentation Sport Funding and Finance Bob Stewart,2017-07-31 Sport Funding and Finance provides a complete introduction to the macro level and micro level aspects of sport finance It describes the evolution of sport from a kitchen table operation into the sophisticated boardroom driven global financial industry that it is today It uses the professional sports leagues of the US and Europe as an international benchmark and explains why the financial context is so important for all managers working in sport The book also provides a step by step introduction to the principles and practice of effective financial management providing the reader with a complete set of professional tools and skills for use in the sport industry Now in a fully revised and updated new edition the book develops the reader s understanding by first explaining basic concepts in finance and accounting before progressing to more complex issues and ideas It covers every key topic in financial management including Planning and strategy Budgeting Financial projections Fundraising Pricing Costing Feasibility studies Economic impact analysis Ratio analysis Every chapter includes a blend of theory contextual material and real world data and case studies from around the world clearly linking principles to practice as well as review questions and problem solving exercises to test the reader s understanding Sport Funding and Finance is the perfect foundation text for any degree level course in sport finance and an invaluable reference for any sport management professional looking to deepen their understanding of funding and finance
