Developing a United Nations Emergency Peace Service H. Peter Langille, 2016-07-14 This book makes the case for a standing UN Emergency Peace Service With this one development effectively a UN first responder for complex emergencies the organization would finally have a rapid reliable capacity to help fulfill its tougher assigned tasks To date the UNEPS initiative has encountered an unreceptive political fiscal and security environment Yet overlapping crises are now inevitable as are profound shifts This book presents an insightful review of the worrisome security challenges ahead and analysis of two recent high level UN reports It addresses the primary roles core principles and requirements of a UNEPS as well as the arguments for and against such a dedicated UN service Further it reveals that the primary impediments and lessons learned also help demonstrate what may work and equally important what won t With modest support the book shows the next steps are feasible although it s important to recall that ideas even good ideas don t work unless we do

Hand-Made Television R. Moseley,2016-04-29 Hand Made Television explores the ongoing enchantment of many of the much loved stop frame children s television programmes of 1960s and 1970s Britain The first academic work to analyse programmes such as Pogles Wood 1966 Clangers 1969 Bagpuss 1974 Smallfilms and Gordon Murray s Camberwick Green 1966 Trumpton 1967 and Chigley 1969 the book connects these series to their social and historical contexts while providing in depth analyses of their themes and hand made aesthetics Hand Made Television shows that the appeal of these programmes is rooted not only in their participatory address and evocation of a pastoral English past but also in the connection of their stop frame aesthetics to the actions of childhood play This book makes a significant contribution to both Animation Studies and Television Studies combining scholarly rigour with an accessible style it is suitable for scholars as well as fans of these iconic British children s programmes
