Light Through the Crack Sue Mosteller, 2007-12-18 A deeply moving and engaging work of Christian spirituality in the tradition of Henri Nouwen written by his close friend and literary executrix Sue Mosteller has had a rich life as a spiritual adventurer and as a member and leader of L Arche Community where she first met the great spiritual writer Henri Nouwen In Light Through the Crack she tells her own story and the stories of the people she has known throughout her life She writes about her family and her upbringing the fifty years she has spent with the Sisters of St Joseph her thirty years of involvement with L Arche Daybreak Community where people with disabilities and those who assist them create a home together and her close twenty year friendship with Nouwen With grace and humor she explores the relationships she has formed and the difficulties that go with them Through her varied experiences she has learned that it is impossible to live with people over the long term and hide your flaws and vulnerabilities Leonard Cohen once wrote in a song There is a crack in everything That's how the light gets in Combining revealing memoir and the inspirational stories of others Mosteller brings to life the meaning of that resonant phrase and illuminates why human weaknesses the cracks in our personalities are actually the greatest sources of light for the world Light Through the Crack Sue Mosteller, 2006 Jean Vanier Michael W. forward which brings you to a better place from the Introduction Divorce is never easy and almost always includes profound experiences of pain isolation anger despair and confusion Here is a spiritual map for regaining your bearings helping you move through the twists and turns of divorce in a spiritually healthy way Drawing on her work as a pastor and counselor and her personal experience with divorce Carolyn Call proposes a three prong approach to help you reset your compass on a new destination wholeness Supported by first person accounts from men and women from a variety of faith traditions who have found their way through divorce she helps you identify Where you want to go I want to be true to who I am Where you don't want to go the cul de sacs of bitterness resentment victimization and guilt What you can do to get there Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney-Brown, 2019-10-16 Jean Vanier's spiritual vision and sense of humour shaped L Arche but the organization was also informed by its surprising history with the United Church of Canada In Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney Brown explores the connections between the two organizations through diverse critical insights from Julia Kristeva Doreen Massey and Mikhail Bakhtin as well as Vanier's controversial articulation of the gift of weakness Tracing the five decade relationship between L Arche and the United Church alongside evolving disability theories Whitney Brown examines both the fundamental importance of stories and the agency of people with intellectual disabilities Inversion a transformative overturning of expectations in social interactions can be upsetting or exciting challenging or inspiring she argues This book offers a fresh look at how L Arche and the United Church have worked to break down walls of difference illuminating how each tenders something unexpected to the other and to the world At a time when many are seeking new visions for society the long and complex relationship between Canada's largest Protestant denomination and L Arche offers both encouragement and a deeper way to approach questions of living in diverse communities Friends Journal, 2007 I See That You Are Down, but When Are You Going to Get Up? Shawn McDowell, 2007-10-31 I See That You Are Down But When Are You Going To Get Up chronicles the trials and tribulations I encountered during transition for boyhood to manhood through the transformative powers of Christ and the Holy Spirit within us all We are far more than our parental DNA and far greater than the product of our environment We have far more in common within the human experience than we are willing to accept The three primary causes of conflict throughout history have been based upon racial division religious intolerance and those who seek to control the resources of this planet God created for us all to share Unless we all strive to live a balanced life whereby our mind body and spirit work in unison to bring forth inner peace inner turmoil will bring for external conflict into our environment Grief and the Expressive Arts Barbara E. Thompson, Robert A.
