Magazine     Public Rights Graham Greenleaf, David Lindsay, 2018-06-21 This comprehensive international and comparative account reconceptualises the public domain providing new insights into copyright and copyright law reform     ECOOP 2004 - Object-Oriented Programming Martin Odersky, 2004-11-24 ECOOP is the premier forum in Europe for bringing together practitioners, researchers and students to share their ideas and experiences in a broad range of disciplines woven with the common thread of object technology. It is a collage of events including outstanding invited speakers, carefully refereed technical papers, practitioner reports reflecting real world experience, panels, topic focused workshops, demonstrations and an interactive posters session. The 18th ECOOP 2004 conference held during June 14-18 2004 in Oslo, Norway represented another year of continued success in object oriented programming both as a topic of academic study and as a vehicle for industrial software development. Object oriented technology has come of age; it is now the commonly established method for most software projects. However, an expanding field of applications and new technological challenges provide a strong demand for research in foundations, design and programming methods as well as implementation techniques. There is also an increasing interest in the integration of object orientation with other software development techniques. We anticipate therefore that object oriented programming will be a fruitful subject of research for many years to come. This year the program committee received 132 submissions of which 25 were accepted for publication after a thorough reviewing process. Every paper received at least 4 reviews. Papers were evaluated based on relevance, significance, clarity, originality and correctness. The topics covered include programming concepts, program analysis, software engineering aspects and components, middleware, verification systems and implementation techniques. These were complemented by two invited talks from Matthias Felleisen and Tom Henzinger. Their titles and abstracts are also included in these proceedings     Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States United States.
