To Believe or Not to Believe Jack Perkins, DMin. LADC,2022-10-12 Research has shown there is a great divide between the church and the unaffiliated to include those who tend toward atheism This concern inspired the author to step away from full time ministry to work as a counselor in a state owned and operated residential facility to better understand the thought processes of those who are not invested in Christianity He became aware of an us versus them mindset held by some Christians this attitude has resulted in Christians drawing a tight circle around themselves that has created a barrier for reaching those not affiliated with the church There are several consequences First it has resulted in a deep decline in baptisms and church affiliation for churches less than 50 percent of Americans surveyed are members of a church Second it has resulted in Christians believing there is no hope for those outside the church Third the gospel presentation utilized by many is to continually make jabs at the unaffiliated bordering on a scare tactic Too many churches have attempted to use revival era styles of evangelism contemporary approaches and or a social perspective however the chasm has widened This book takes an in depth look at the philosophical systems that keep people from embracing Christianity The author also provides a theological model for helping others understand a theological base for the Christian worldview The greatest contribution of the book is the way it offers hope for reaching the unaffiliated and provides practical ways of connecting with those outside the church

The Monstrosity of Christ Slavoj Zizek,John Milbank,2011-02-25 A militant Marxist atheist and a Radical Orthodox Christian

theologian square off on everything from the meaning of theology and Christ to the war machine of corporate mafia What matters is not so much that i ek is endorsing a demythologized disenchanted Christianity without transcendence as that he is offering in the end despite what he sometimes claims a heterodox version of Christian belief John Milbank To put it even more bluntly my claim is that it is Milbank who is effectively guilty of heterodoxy ultimately of a regression to paganism in my atheism I am more Christian than Milbank Slavoj i ek In this corner philosopher Slavoj i ek a militant atheist who represents the critical materialist stance against religion s illusions in the other corner Radical Orthodox theologian John Milbank an influential and provocative thinker who argues that theology is the only foundation upon which knowledge politics and ethics can stand In The Monstrosity of Christ i ek and Milbank go head to head for three rounds employing an impressive arsenal of moves to advance their positions and press their respective advantages By the closing bell they have not only proven themselves worthy adversaries they have shown that faith and reason are not simply and intractably opposed i ek has long been interested in the emancipatory potential offered by Christian theology And Milbank seeing global capitalism as the new century s greatest ethical challenge has pushed his own ontology in more political and materialist directions Their debate in The Monstrosity of Christ concerns the future of religion secularity and political hope in light of a monstrous event God becoming human For the first time since i ek s turn toward theology we have a true debate between an atheist and a theologian about the very meaning of theology Christ the Church the Holy Ghost Universality and the foundations of logic The result goes far beyond the popularized atheist theist point counterpoint of recent books by Christopher Hitchens Richard Dawkins and others i ek begins and Milbank answers countering dialectics with paradox The debate centers on the nature of and relation between paradox and parallax between analogy and dialectics between transcendent glory and liberation Slavoj i ek is a philosopher and cultural critic He has published over thirty books including Looking Awry The Puppet and the Dwarf and The Parallax View these three published by the MIT Press John Milbank is an influential Christian theologian and the author of Theology and Social Theory Beyond Secular Reason and other books Creston Davis who conceived of this encounter studied under both i ek and Milbank
