After hundreds of years during which Eve was blamed for originating sin St Paul removed her from the narrative of the fall to create a one man one man typology between Adam as the origin of sin and Christ as the source of salvation This disappearance created a theological problem Eve fell outside the narrative of sin and salvation Early Christians sensing the lack in Paul s formula created an alternative typology between Eve the mother of all the living and Mary the mother of Jesus Eventually early theologians attempted to solve the soteriological problem Eve posed by coordinating these two typologies This solution however produced a further dilemma Either Mary had to be posited as a second savior or the salvation offered to Eve in the revised scheme had to be second class Neither option is theologically acceptable The Disappearance of Eve and the Gender of Christ proposes a solution to this problem It revises Paul s original formula and with it a set of common claims about Christ s sex and gender It accepts Christ as the new Adam and the new Eve and accepts that Christ is theologically speaking trans Carnahan offers a new theology of sex and gender as a calling within a context of responsibility as a framework for making sense of Eve Christ and ourselves He shows how from first century Roman culture to medieval mystical experience and into our own time there exists a long tradition of seeing Christ as transgressing and even transitioning across sex and gender boundaries Emerging as Affirmative Pastoral Caregivers Beyond Gender Binaries Craig A. humility about the extent to which we can predict and control the future of the evolution of our species It illuminates the interdependencies that define creaturely life the persistent entanglement of nature and culture the centrality of desire to human identity and behaviour and the role played by biology in the transmission of sin It develops a vision of material life as evolving generative and imbued with activity but also as simultaneously infected with sin and saturated with the divine

Justice Through Diversity? Michael J. Sweeney, 2016-08-30 Arguably the most transformative force in contemporary society is the commitment to justice through diversity A prime example is the change justice through diversity has wrought on who enters teaches and administers the university It has changed the content of what is taught and the mission statements that define the purpose of higher education What is rarely defined however is justice and how it is related to diversity If justice is equality are all differences equal Are all differences in race gender sexual orientation national origin ethnicity religion and culture equal Should such differences be weighted differently and thus hierarchically On what basis are those differences to be weighted and ranked to ensure equality Justice Through Diversity brings together a Who's Who of contemporary scholars to explore these questions and others in an attempt to understand one of the central commitments in the modern world Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 5, Number 1 David M.
