Goddess The Nation Mapping Mother Indi:

The Goddess and the Nation Sumathi Ramaswamy, 2010-04-09 A history of the role that images of Mother India played in helping a vast heterogeneous population to imagine the Indian nation and associate themselves with it Mapping Migration, Identity, and Space Tabea Linhard, Timothy H. Parsons, 2018-07-14 This interdisciplinary collection of essays focuses on the ways in which movements of people across natural political and cultural boundaries shape identities that are inexorably linked to the geographical space that individuals on the move cross inhabit and leave behind As conflicts over identities and space continue to erupt on a regular basis this book reads the relationship between migration identity and space from a fresh and innovative perspective Engaging with a Nation Siddhartha Biswas, 2024-07-18 The book looks at the impact that the idea and institution of nationhood have had on the constituents of India in the contemporary postcolonial period It provides a critical analysis through a variety of perspectives historical philosophical literary and gendered and locates the nation and its discontents along with its nationalist agenda firmly within the context of the contemporary perceived modernity The book also engages with the colonial legacy that the nation had to endure for two hundred years It discusses key themes such as nationalism in the contemporary Indian context the concept of Hindutva Islam nationalism and queer nationalism An important contribution this book will be of interest to students and scholars of India studies Indian politics Third World studies postcolonial studies gender studies nation studies and history The Map Reader Martin Dodge, Rob Kitchin, Chris Perkins, 2011-05-09 WINNER OF THE CANTEMIR PRIZE 2012 awarded by the Berendel Foundation The Map Reader brings together for the first time classic and hard to find articles on mapping This book provides a wide ranging and coherent edited compendium of key scholarly writing about the changing nature of cartography over the last half century The editorial selection of fifty four theoretical and thought provoking texts demonstrates how cartography works as a powerful representational form and explores how different mapping practices have been conceptualised in particular scholarly contexts Themes covered include paradigms politics people aesthetics and technology Original interpretative essays set the literature into intellectual context within these themes Excerpts are drawn from leading scholars and researchers in a range of cognate fields including Cartography Geography Anthropology Architecture Engineering Computer Science and Graphic Design The Map Reader provides a new unique single source reference to the essential literature in the cartographic field more than fifty specially edited excerpts from key classic articles and monographs critical introductions by experienced experts in the field focused coverage of key mapping practices techniques and ideas a valuable resource suited to a broad spectrum of researchers and students working in cartography and GIScience geography the social sciences media studies and visual arts full page colour illustrations of significant maps as provocative visual think pieces fully indexed clearly structured and accessible ways into a fast changing field of cartographic research The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives

How Secular Is Art? Tapati Guha-Thakurta,Vazira Zamindar,2024-05-31 As an invitation to interrogate the secular modality of art the book unsettles both the categories of art and secular in their theoretical and historical implications It questions the temporal spatial and cultural binaries between the sacred and the secular that have shaped art historical scholarship as well as artistic practice Thinking from the south all the essays here are anchored in a conception of a region one fissured by histories of partition state formations and religious nationalisms but still offering a collective site from which to speak to the disciplines of art and the knowledge worlds in which they are embedded The book asks How do we complicate the religious designations of pre modern art and architecture and the new forms of their resurgence in contemporary iconographies and monuments How do we re conceptualize the public and the political as fiery contestations and new curatorial practices reconfigure the meaning of art in the proliferating spaces of museums galleries biennales and festivals How do we understand South Asian art s deep entanglements with the politics of the present

Writing Gender, Writing Nation Bharti Arora,2019-07-03 This book explores the gendered contexts of the Indian nation through a rigorous analysis of selected women s fiction ranging from diverse linguistic geographical caste class and regional contexts Indian women s writing across languages texts and contexts constitutes a unique narrative of the post independence nation This volume highlights the ways in which women writers negotiate the patriarchal biases embedded in the epistemological and institutional structures of the post independence nation state It discusses works of famous Indian authors like Amrita Pritam Jyotirmoyee Devi Mannu Bhandari Mahasweta Devi Mridula Garg Nayantara Sahgal Indira Goswami and Alka Saraogi to name a few and facilitates a pan Indian understanding of the concerns taken up by these women writers In doing so it shows how ideas travel across regions and contribute towards building a thematic critique of the oppressive structures that breed the unequal relations between the margins and the centre The volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of gender studies women s studies South Asian literature political sociology and political studies

Teaching South and Southeast Asian Art Bokyoung Kim,Kyunghee Pyun,2023-04-10 This volume challenges existing notions of what is Indian Southeast Asian and or South Asian art to help educators present a more contextualized understanding of art in a globalized world In doing so it re examines how South or Southeast Asian art is being made exhibited circulated and experienced in new ways in the United States or in regions under its cultural hegemony The essays presented in this book examine both historical and contemporary transformations or lived experiences of monuments and regional styles sites from South or Southeast Asian art in art making subsequent usage and exhibition making under the rubric of Indian South Asian or Southeast Asian Art

Cartophilia Catherine Tatiana Dunlop, 2015-05-11 The period between the French Revolution and World War II was a time of tremendous growth in both mapmaking and map reading throughout Europe There is no better place to witness this rise of popular cartography than in Alsace Lorraine a disputed borderland that the French and Germans both claimed as their national territory Desired for its prime geographical position and abundant natural resources Alsace Lorraine endured devastating wars from 1870 to 1945 that altered its borders four times transforming its physical landscape and the political allegiances of its citizens For the border population whose lives were turned upside down by the French German conflict maps became essential tools for finding a new sense of place and a new sense of identity in their changing national and regional communities Turning to a previously undiscovered archive of popular maps Cartophilia reveals Alsace Lorraine s lively world of citizen mapmakers that included linguists ethnographers schoolteachers hikers and priests Together this fresh group of mapmakers invented new genres of maps that framed French and German territory in original ways through experimental surveying techniques orientations scales colors and iconography In focusing on the power of bottom up maps to transform modern European identities Cartophilia argues that the history of cartography must expand beyond the study of elite maps and shift its emphasis to the democratization of cartography in the modern world

Worldly Affiliations Sonal Khullar, 2015-05-02 The purpose of art the Paris trained artist Amrita Sher Gil wrote in 1936 is to create the forms of the future by draw ing its inspiration from the present Through art new worlds can be imagined into existence as artists cultivate forms of belonging and networks of association that oppose colonialist and nationalist norms Drawing on Edward Said s notion of affiliation as a critical and cultural imperative against empire and nation state Worldly Affiliations traces the emergence of a national art world in twentieth century India and emphasizes its cosmopolitan ambitions and orientations Sonal Khullar focuses on four major Indian artists Sher Gil Maqbool Fida Husain K G Subramanyan and Bhupen Khakhar situating their careers within national and global histories of modernism and modernity Through a close analysis of original artwork archival materials artists writing and period criticism Khullar provides a vivid historical account of the state and stakes of artistic practice in India from the late colonial through postcolonial periods She discusses the shifting terms of Indian artists engagement with the West an urgent yet fraught project in the wake of British colonialism and to a lesser extent with African and Latin American cultural movements such as N gritude and Mexican muralism Written in a lucid and engaging style this book links artistic developments in India to newly emerging histories of modern art in Asia Africa and Latin America Drawing on original research in the twenty first century art world Khullar shows the persistence of modernism in contemporary art from India and compares its function to Walter Benjamin's ruin In the work of contemporary artists from India modernism is the ground from which to imagine futures This richly illustrated study juxtaposes little known rarely seen or previously unpublished works of modern and contemporary art with historical works popular or mass reproduced images and documentary photographs Its innovative art program renders newly visible the aesthetic and political achievements of Indian modernism Landscapes of Mobility Jennifer Johung, 2016-04-22

Our world is unquestionably one in which ubiquitous movements of people goods technologies media money and ideas produce systems of flows Comparing case studies from across the world including those from Benin the United States India Mali Senegal Japan Haiti and Romania this book focuses on quotidian landscapes of mobility Despite their seemingly familiar and innocuous appearances these spaces exert tremendous control over our behavior and activities By examining and mapping the politics of place and motion this book analyzes human beings embodied engagements with their built world and provides diverse perspectives on the ideological and political underpinnings of landscapes of mobility In order to describe landscapes of mobility as a historically socially and politically constructed condition the book is divided into three sections objects contacts and flows The first section looks at elements that constitute such landscapes including mobile bodies buildings and practices across multiple geographical scales As these variable landscapes are reconstituted under particular social economic ecological and political conditions the second section turns to the particular practices that catalyze embodied relations within and across such spaces Finally the last section explores how the flows of objects bodies interactions and ecologies are represented presenting a critical comparison of the means by which relations processes and exchanges are captured depicted reproduced and re embodied Romantic Nationalism in India Bob van der Linden, 2024-05-13

Through the concept of Romantic nationalism this interdisciplinary global historical study investigates cultural initiatives in British India that aimed at establishing the nation as a moral community and which preceded or accompanied state oriented political nationalism Drawing on a vast array of sources it discusses important Romantic nationalist traits such as the relationship between language and identity historicism artistic revivalism and hero worship Ultimately this innovative book argues that because of the confrontation with European civilization and processes of modernization at large cultivation of culture in British India was morally and spiritually more important to the making of the nation than in Europe Indian Liberalism between Nation and Empire Elena Valdameri, 2022-03-10

This book analyses the political thought and practice of Gopal Krishna Gokhale 1866 1915 preeminent liberal leader of the Indian National Congress who was able to give a global voice to the Indian cause Using liberalism nationalism cosmopolitanism and citizenship as the four main thematic foci the book illuminates the entanglement of Gopal Krishna Gokhale's political ideas and action with broader social political and cultural developments within and beyond the Indian national frame The author analyses Gokhale's thinking on a range of issues such as nationhood education citizenship modernity caste social service cosmopolitanism and the women's question which historians have either overlooked or inserted in a rigid nation bounded historical narrative The book provides new enriching dimensions to the understanding of Gokhale whose ideas remain relevant in contemporary India A new biography of Gokhale that brings into consideration current questions within historiographical debates this book is a timely and welcome addition to the fields of intellectual history the history of political thought Colonial history and Indian and South Asian history

Muslim Devotional Art in India Yousuf Saeed, 2018-10-26 This book highlights the history of Islamic popular devotional art and visual culture in 20th century India weaving the personal narrative of the author's journey through his understanding of the faith It begins with an introductory exploration of how the basic and universal image of Mecca and Medina may have been imported into Indian popular print culture and what variants it resulted in here Besides providing a historical context of the pre print culture of popular Muslim visuality the book also explores the impact the 1947 Partition of India may have made on the calendar art in South Asia A significant portion of the book focuses on the contemporary prints of different localised images found in India and what role these play in the users lives especially in the augmentation of their popular faith and cultural practices The volume also compares the images published in India with some of those available in Pakistan to reflect different socio political trajectories Finally it discusses why such a vibrant visual culture continues to thrive among South Asian Muslims despite the questions raised by the orthodoxy on its legitimacy in Islam and why images and popular visual cultures are inevitable for popular piety despite the orthodox Muslims increasing dissociation from them This work is one of the first books on Indian Muslim poster art with rare images and simple narratives anecdotes about rituals ceremonies and cultural traditions running parallel to research findings This second edition contains a new Afterword that discusses challenges to religious plurality arising on account of changing political landscapes economic liberalisation technology and new media and socio religious developments It will appeal to the lay reader as well as the specialist and will be especially useful to researchers and scholars in popular culture media and cultural studies visual art and performance studies and sociology and social anthropology

Mapping Europe's Borderlands Steven Seegel, 2012-05-14 The simplest purpose of a map is a rational one to educate to solve a problem to point someone in the right direction Maps shape and communicate information for the sake of improved orientation But maps exist for states as well as individuals and they need to be interpreted as expressions of power and knowledge as Steven Seegel makes clear in his impressive and important new book Mapping Europe's Borderlands takes the familiar problems of state and nation building in eastern Europe and presents them through an entirely new prism that of cartography and cartographers Drawing from sources in eleven languages including military historical pedagogical and ethnographic maps as well as geographic texts and related cartographic literature Seegel explores the role of maps and mapmakers in the East Central European borderlands from the Enlightenment to the Treaty of Versailles For example Seegel explains how Russia used cartography in the aftermath of the Napoleonic Wars and later formed its geography society as a cover for gathering intelligence He also explains the importance of maps to the formation of identities and institutions in Poland Ukraine and Lithuania as well as in Russia Seegel concludes with a consideration of the impact of cartographers regional and socioeconomic backgrounds educations families career options and available language choices Women Speak Nation Panchali Ray,2019-07-24 Women Speak Nation underlines the centrality of gender within the ideological construction of nationalism The volume locates itself in a rich scholarship of feminist critique of the relationship between political economic cultural and social formations and normative gendered relations to try and understand the cross currents in contemporary feminist theorizing and politics The chapters question the gendered depictions of the nation as Hindu upper caste middle class heterosexual able bodied Indian mother The volume also brings together interviews and short essays from practitioners and activists who voice an alternative reimagining of the nation The book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of gender politics modern South Asian history and cultural studies
