The Futures of Legal Education and the Legal Profession Hilary Sommerlad, Sonia Harris-Short, Steven Vaughan, Richard Young, 2015-03-26 We are currently witnessing an unprecedented transformation in the legal profession and legal education The Legal Services Act 2007 and the Legal Aid Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 have both enabled and necessitated dramatic structural changes to the profession as well as impacting on its ethos and ethicality The recent Legal Education and Training Review LETR promises similarly dramatic change to the provision of legal education reflecting the shifting landscape of both the legal professional market and Higher Education in general These transformative changes bring both exciting opportunities and challenges with which everyone involved in the law from University lecturers to Senior Partners in leading law firms to the judiciary must grapple This edited collection comprises a selection of papers presented at the 2nd conference of CEPLER Birmingham Law School's Centre for Professional Legal Education and Research The aim of the Conference and thus this collection was to bring together leading academic scholars senior figures from professional practice policy makers and representatives of the regulatory authorities to reflect on the key issues arising from this transformative moment As such this volume of essays covers diverse ground from curriculum development to professional theory enriched and enhanced by the range of backgrounds and perspectives of its contributors

Under the Same Sky Mojgan Shamsalipour, Milad Jafari, James Knight, 2017-04-26 After fleeing their homeland Australian refugee policies threaten to tear this young couple apart An unforgettable story of love hope and a quest for freedom At seventeen all Mojgan Shamsalipour wanted was to be safe from physical and sexual abuse go to school and to eventually marry for love In Iran she was denied all of this Milad Jafari was a shy teenage boy who found his voice as a musician But the rap music he loved was illegal in his country All Milad's father a key maker builder and shopkeeper wanted was for his family to live free from the fear of arrest imprisonment or execution To do that they all had to flee Iran Mojgan and Milad met in Australia But in the months between their separate sea voyages the Australian government changed the way asylum seekers were treated Though Milad is recognised as a refugee and will soon become a proud Australian citizen Mojgan has been told she cannot stay here even though the threat of imprisonment and further abuse or worse means she can't return to Iran UNDER THE SAME SKY is a powerful insight into the human face of asylum seekers and the way history has shaped the lives of these two young people. It also shows the compassion alive in our suburbs. For Mojgan and Milad, their love keeps their hopes alive. We Are Better Than This Robyn Cadwallader, 2015-10-07 We Are Better Than This is a collection of essays and poetry addressing the Australian government's asylum seeker policy. The aims of the book are several: to provide some of the information about the situation in detention camps that is being withheld by the government; to correct some of the government's misrepresentations of the current situation; to clarify some of the complex legal issues surrounding the right to seek asylum; and to give some insight into the plight of those who are seeking asylum. It is hoped that this book will better inform people about the government's policies to support those who are unsatisfied and seeking to change the situation, as well as those who are uncertain and need more easily accessible and reliable information. Contributors are drawn from several areas of expertise and engagement with asylum seekers. Keeping the Republic Christine Barbour, Gerald C. Wright, 2023-01-20 Keeping the Republic Eleventh Edition gives students the power to examine the narrative of what's going on in American politics, distinguish fact from fiction, and balance from bias and influence the message through informed citizenship. Christine Barbour and Gerald C. Wright draw students into the study of American politics, showing them how to think critically about who gets what and how, while exploring the twin themes of power and citizenship. With students living through one of the most challenging periods in American life, this text is a much-needed resource to help them make sense of politics in America today and become savvy consumers of political information. How to Win the War on Truth Samuel C. Spitale, 2022-10-25 Made to Stick by Chip Heath meets Thing Explainer by Randall Munroe in this illustrated guide to navigating today's post-truth landscape filled with real-world examples of disinformation campaigns. The average person receives 4,000 to 10,000 media messages a day. It's no wonder we struggle to separate the news from the noise and fact from fiction, but in these unprecedented times, it's essential to democracy that we do. For anyone struggling to figure out how to live and vote their values, How to Win the War on Truth is here to help. You'll learn the history of propaganda from Edward Bernays to Fox News. Why simple messages are so powerful. How social messaging creates unconscious biases. Who profits from propaganda. How propaganda is manufactured and delivered directly to you. Filled with real-world examples of disinformation campaigns that impact every citizen and clever illustration, How to Win the War on Truth will help you see the world with clear eyes for the first time. The Statesman's Yearbook 2017 Palgrave Macmillan, 2017-02-28 Now in its 153rd edition, The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world. Covering political, economic, social, and cultural aspects, the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions: www.statesmansyearbook.com. Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine, Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2022-09-30 The Eighth Edition of Our Social World Introduction to Sociology inspires students to develop their sociological imaginations to see the world and personal events from a new perspective and to confront sociological issues on a day to day basis The text is organized around the Social World model a conceptual framework that demonstrates the relationships among individuals the micro level organizations institutions and subcultures the meso level and societies and global structures the macro level The consistent application of the Social World Model across chapters represented in a visual diagram in the chapter openers helps students develop the practice of using three levels of analysis and to view sociology as an integrated whole rather than a set of disparate subjects This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package in SAGE Vantage an intuitive learning platform that integrates quality SAGE textbook content with assignable multimedia activities and auto graded assessments to drive student engagement and ensure accountability Unparalleled in its ease of use and built for dynamic teaching and learning Vantage offers customizable LMS integration and best in class support
