Political Straight Talk H. John Lyke,2016-02-25 In writing the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution our Founding Fathers established a democratic republic with a solid political basis What they wrote was the political map that future representatives would need to follow to conduct the people s business in an efficient and effective manner As long as they faithfully carried out the people s will our democracy and republic would function in a way congruent with our forebears wishes What in the world happened H John Lyke a board certified psychologist and professor emeritus at Metropolitan State College of Denver and the author of multiple political psychology books suggests that ever since George Washington retired as captain of our ship of state subsequent presidents and members of Congress have failed to use the sailing chart of the Constitution. Instead they've chosen to pursue their own and their political parties' self-interests. Lyke uses psychological principles to explore the reasons why our government has fallen so low and in the voice of a kind but determined therapist he offers simple and viable solutions to get us back to following our map. What was Pierre Elliott Trudeau's favourite snack food? Which province was the last to shift traffic from the left-hand side of the road to the right? These are some of the questions that are asked and answered in 1000 Questions About Canada. Every reader with an ounce or a gram of curiosity will find these intriguing questions and thoughtful answers fascinating to read and ponder. This book is for people who love curious lore and who want to know more about the country in which they live. Mind Over Media Renee Hobbs, 2020-10-20 Winner of the AAP 2021 PROSE Award for Excellence in Social Sciences. Propaganda is inescapable. It's everywhere. Students need to analyze, resist, critique, and create. Media literacy educators have always insisted that we are both creators and receivers of media messages. The truth of this is even more apparent in today's digital environment with children and adults alike participating in a ubiquitous nonstop stream of social media. Clearly, students need the tools to interpret news and information critically, not just for school but for life in a post-truth world where the lines blur between entertainment, information, and persuasion. Renee Hobbs demonstrates how a global perspective on contemporary propaganda enables educators to stimulate both the intellectual curiosity and the cultural sensitivities of students. Replete with classroom and online learning activities and samples of student work, Mind Over Media provides a state-of-the-art look at the theory and practice of propaganda in contemporary society and shows how to build learners' critical thinking and communication skills on topics including computational propaganda, content marketing, fake news, and disinformation.
