Lines Of Departure Frontlines:

Lines of Departure Marko Kloos, 2014 Humanity is on the ropes and after years of fighting a two front war with losing odds so is North American Defense Corps officer Andrew Grayson He dreams of dropping out of the service one day alongside his pilot girlfriend but as warfare consumes entire planets and conditions on Earth deteriorate he wonders if there will be anywhere left for them to go Front Lines, 2005 Behind the Front Lines of the Civil War Vladimir N. Brovkin, 2015-03-08 Countering the powerful myth that the civil war in Russia was largely between the Whites and the Reds Vladimir Brovkin views the struggle as a multifaceted social and political process Brovkin focuses not so much on armies and governments as on the interaction of state institutions political parties and social movements on both Red and White territories In the process he exposes the weaknesses of the various warring factions in a Russia plagued by strikes mutinies desertion and rebellions The Whites benefited from popular resistance to the Reds and the Reds from resistance to the Whites In Brovkin's view neither regime enjoyed popular support Pacification campaigns mass shooting deportations artillery shelling of villages and terror were the essence of the conflict and when the Whites were defeated the war against the Greens the peasant rebels went on Drawing on a remarkable array of previously untapped sources Brovkin convicts the early Bolsheviks of crimes similar to those later committed by Stalin What emerges behind the front lines is a picture of how diverse forces Cossacks Ukrainians Greens Mensheviks and SRs as well as Whites and Bolsheviks created the tragic victory of a party that had no majority support This book has important contemporary implications as the world again asks an old question Can Russian statehood prevail over local regional and national identities Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 ANCOC Common Core, 1986 Frontline Nurses Holly Green, 2018-11-01 Can she follow her heart while doing her duty A heartwarming saga following nurses during the First World War Perfect for fans of Donna Douglas's A Nightingale Christmas Promise Lizzie Page's The War Nurses and Margaret Dickinson's The Poppy Girls After training with the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry Leonora Malham Brown sets off to Europe with her new friend Victoria determined to do her bit for the war effort The battlefield is a difficult place for a woman so Leonora cuts her hair short and swaps her skirts for trousers in order to better cope with the demanding duties of a frontline nurse But concealing her true identity becomes more complicated when she meets the dashing Colonel Malkovic Torn between keeping her secret and their blossoming friendship Leonora must choose between her duty and her heart A moving emotional wartime saga about brave nurses on the battlefield based on an amazing true story _____ Make sure you've read all the books in the

Enemy Lines in France and the Far East Maxine Harcourt-Kelly, 2025-06-30 In October 1943 Frederick Bailey a wireless operator who had trained with the Royal Armoured Corps was selected for Special Operation Executive's wireless training centre at Fawley Court Henley on Thames It was the start of an incredible wartime career that saw Fred serve behind enemy lines in both the European and Far East theatres With his training complete and having adopted the fieldname R tif Sergeant Bailey became a member of one of the famous Jedburgh units Team Citr en The Jedburghs generally consisted of compact teams of three men usually an officer a radio operator and a soldier from the country the team was to be dropped into Together with Major John Smallwood and Captain Pierre Bloch a French Foreign Legionnaire Bailey as Team Citr en's radio operator was dropped in into the Lagarde area of the Vaucluse region in German occupied France by an American aircrew from Algiers during the night of 11/12 August 1944 Their mission was to support the local Resistance groups in the rear of the German units trying to hold back the Allied forces sweeping through France after D Day As Maxine Harcourt Kelly reveals the fear of Bailey's transmissions being intercepted by the Germans as well as the constant danger of their location being revealed by informers meant that Team Citr en was constantly on the move Despite this on one occasion the group knocked out an enemy tank with the help of an intrepid young Frenchman who ran up to it armed only with a grenade and dropped it through the driver's viewing hatch One morning Bailey learnt that a large German convoy was moving along the road from Grenoble to Lyon He sent a coded message to HQ in Algiers asking for an immediate air strike A series of Mosquito fighter bombers attacked and destroyed the whole convoy Fred also caused major disruption to German attempts to withdraw by calling in air support which destroyed a vital bridge Fred was Mentioned in Despatches and awarded the Croix de Guerre with Bronze Star by the French With his war in Europe over Fred volunteered to serve with SOE's Force 136 in the Far East He was duly sent out to Burma where he was dispatched into the Keren Hills to monitor the routes being used by the retreating Japanese Fred was able to send regular reports on enemy troop movements and direct Allied air strikes On one occasion they ambushed a Japanese convoy A fierce firefight developed but they slipped back into the jungle before the Japanese could counter attack These attacks were so disruptive that the Japanese were forced to form a special force to hunt Fred's team down As they could not be resupplied Fred's team grew weaker Before long with nothing to eat but a handful of rice each day the team was beginning to starve. It was left with no option but to evacuate. Even then Fred's adventures were far from over. In August 1945 he was dropped into Malaya, tasked with finding any American aircrew who had been shot down and taken prisoner south of Kuala Lumpur. This is the action-packed story of one man's remarkable war serving in Allied Special Forces units behind enemy lines in both Occupied Europe and the Far East. Lifeline in Helmand: RAF Frontline Air Supply in Afghanistan Roger Annett, 2011-02-23. Afghanistan is the theater where 1310 Flight's role is to provide the heavy lift support helicopter element within the British Forces Joint Helicopter Command. Its Headquarters are at Wilton because the unit reports to British Land Forces HQ, meaning that the Operational Command of its RAF personnel lies with the Army. RAF Odiham in Hampshire offers the flight the largest fleet of Chinooks outside the US Army. Currently eight of those machines are detached to Afghanistan at any one time within the International Security Assistance Force. This book explains how 1310 Flight practices and prepares the replacement crews for their tour in Helmand, the most difficult combat zone experienced by the British since World War II. It also contains firsthand accounts and photographs of operational experience during a tour in the battle zone.
