American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse J. Donald Ragsdale, 2009-01-14 In American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse Professor Ragsdale assesses American museums as means of visual persuasion He demonstrates that museums their contents and their manners of display are as capable of influencing visitors as speeches or advertisements and that an awareness of their social influence provides an insight into the cultural roles of museums The book considers a diverse array of museums ranging from such national cultural icons as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Art Institute to such city museums as the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and includes separate chapters on museums devoted to modern and contemporary art and to the specialized collections of individual connoisseurs In addition to these primarily art museums Professor Ragsdale assesses museums devoted to collections such as the National Air and Space Museum and to commemoration and remembrance such as the National World War II Museum and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse makes an important contribution to the theory of persuasion and to visual communication art history and museology It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotic theory of C S Peirce In so doing it demonstrates that museum buildings the art and other objects contained within them and the spaces used for display may all be thought of in terms of means of social influence

Guide to RLG Art and Architecture Library Collections Research Libraries Group,1990 Etruscan Art Otto

Brendel,Otto J. Brendel,Francesca R. Serra Ridgway,1995-10-25 This volume the first serious book in English on Etruscan art was hailed for its broad scope thorough knowledge and clear exposition when it was published almost twenty years ago Now brought back into print with an updated bibliography and bibliographical essay by Francesca R Serra Ridgway it remains an essential introduction for anyone interested in ancient art history and civilization Otto Brendel s exploration of the art culture and society of Etruria takes us through its four main periods of creativity the Villanovan and Orientalizing era the Archaic era the Classical era and the Hellenistic era when Etruscan art became extinct According to Brendel the Etruscans were deeply influenced by Greek styles but used Greek forms and concepts to further their own purposes Etruscan art is a private art aristocratic and luxurious but centered in the life of the family and a continuing life in the tomb Many of the art forms and objects discussed ceramics metalware jewelry sculpture and wall painting are known to us through the discovery of tombs Most of these objects had a clearly defined function but were also designed with a high degree of quality and craftsmanship to be decorative The beautiful art of the Etruscans illustrated and explained in this book sheds much light on a people about whom we know little

Shadow-Makers Stephen Kite,2017-10-19 The making of shadows is an act as old as architecture itself From the gloom of the medieval hearth through to the masterworks of modernism shadows have been an essential yet neglected presence in architectural history Shadow Makers tells for the first time the history of shadows in architecture It weaves together a rich narrative combining close readings of significant buildings both ancient and modern with architectural theory and art history to reveal the key places and moments where shadows shaped architecture in distinctive and dynamic ways It shows how shadows are used as an architectural instrument of form composition and visual effect while also exploring the deeper cultural context tracing differing conceptions of their meaning and symbolism whether as places of refuge devotion terror occult practice sublime experience or as metaphors of the unconscious Within a chronological framework encompassing medieval baroque enlightenment sublime picturesque and modernist movements a wide range of topics are explored from Hawksmoor s London churches Japanese temple complexes and the shade patterns of Islamic cities to Ruskin in Venice and Aldo Rossi and Louis Kahn in the 20th century This beautifully illustrated study seeks to understand the work of these shadow makers through their drawings their writings and through the masterpieces they built
