Kinship Ideology And Practice In Latin America:

Kinship Ideology and Practice in Latin America Joint Committee on Latin American Studies, 1984 Kinship Ideology and Practice in Latin America Kinship ideology and practice in Latin America Raymond Thomas Smith, 1984 The Oxford Handbook of Latin American History Jose C. Moya, 2011 This Oxford Handbook comprehensively examines the field of Latin American history Sexuality and Marriage in Colonial Latin America Asunci n Lavrin, 1989-01-01 Few decisions in life should be more personal than the choice of a spouse or lover Yet throughout history this intimate experience has been subjected to painstaking social and religious regulation in the form of legislation and restraining social mores With that statement Asunci n Lavrin begins her introduction to this collection of original essays the first in English to explore sexuality and marriage in colonial Latin America The nine contributors including historians and anthropologists examine various aspects of the male female relationship and the mechanisms for controlling it developed by church and state after the European conquest of Mexico and Central and South America Seldom has so much light been shed on the sexual behavior of the men and women who lived there from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century These chapters examine the variety of sexual expression in different periods and among persons of different social and economic status the relations of the sexes as proscribed by church and state and the various forms of resistance to their constraints the couple's own view of the bond that united them and of their social obligations in producing a family and the dissolution of that bond Topics infrequently explored in Latin American history but discussed here include premarital relations illegitimacy consensual unions sexual witchcraft spouse abuse and divorce Lavrin's opening survey of the forms of sexual relationships most discussed in ecclesiastical sources serves as a point of departure for the chapters that follow The contributors are Serge Grunzinski Ann Twinam Kathy Waldron Ruth Behar Susan Socolow Richard Boyer Thomas Calvo and Mar a Beatriz Nizza da Silva Asunci n Lavrin is a professor of history at Arizona State University at Tempe Her 1995 book Women Feminism and Social Change in Argentina Chile and Uruguay 1890-1940 won the Arthur P. Whitaker Prize from the Middle Atlantic Council on Latin American Studies

Women Out of Place Brackette Williams, 2013-12-02 These essays investigate the links between agency and race with regard to constructions of masculinity and femininity among radical groups resisting varied forms of political and economic domination Building on the work of anthropologists historians sociologists literary critics and feminist philosophers of science the essays in Women Out of Place the Gender of Agency and Race of Nationality investigate the links between agency and race for what they reveal about constructions of masculinity and femininity and patterns of domesticity among groups seeking to resist varied forms of political and economic domination through a subnational ideology of racial and cultural redemption Millenarian Vision, Capitalist Reality Todd A. Diacon, 1991-08-29 Why did a millenarian movement erupt in the Brazilian interior in 1912 Setting out to answer this deceptively simple question Todd A. Diacon delivers a fascinating account of a culture in crisis Combining oral history with detailed archival research Millenarian Vision Capitalist Reality depicts a peasant community whose security in economic social and religious relations was suddenly disrupted by the intrusion of international capital Diacon shows how a deadly triumvirate comprised of foreign capital state power and local bosses engineered a land tenure revolution that threatened smallholders subsistence sparking rebellion among the Contestado peasants Unlike most analysis of millenarian movements Diacon combines a material analysis with a careful exploration of the movement's millenarian ideology to demonstrate how a particular combination of external and internal forces produced a crisis of values in the Contestado society Such a crisis Diacon concludes gave a special power to the millenarian vision that promised not only outward reform but inner salvation as well This work offers a significant contribution to the literature of millenarian movements popular religion peasant rebellions and the transition to capitalism in Brazil

Haunted Bodies Anne Goodwyn Jones, Susan Van D'Elden Donaldson, 1997 In Haunted Bodies Anne Goodwyn Jones and Susan V Donaldson have brought together some of our most highly regarded southern historians and literary critics to consider race gender and texts through three centuries and from a wealth of vantage points Works as diverse as eighteenth century court petitions and lyrics of 1970s rock music demonstrate how definitions of southern masculinity and femininity have been subject to bewildering shifts and disabling contradictions for centuries

The Matrifocal Family Raymond T. Smith, 2014-04-23 The essays in this collection focus attention on the enormous contribution made by women in maintaining family relations in situations of both racial and gender domination

Men in Families Alan Booth, Ann C. Crouter, 1998-01-01 Recently the roles of fathers and husbands in families have been recognized as important issues They appear in legislation aimed at deadbeat dads social movements including the Million Man March and Promise Keepers in the development of advocacy groups and in think tanks Therefore contemporary research on men in family relationships has very mixed results Some studies show that fathers have small effects on child development and in preventing antisocial behavior whereas others suggest no effects Other research claims that the primary importance of men in families is in their role as providers Although some studies state that the husbands and fathers most vital work occurs in new families others indicate that it is when their offspring reach adolescence Confusing the issue even further labor market trends predict that men's family roles may diminish Based on the presentations and discussions from a recent national symposium on men in families held at The Pennsylvania State University this book addresses these issues This is the only book that deals with men's involvement in families in a comprehensive way Although several books focus on fathers alone or on a broader family perspective this is the first book that deals with a variety of family roles on an interdisciplinary basis Although most of the writers are psychologists or sociologists there are key figures in history and anthropology who also make important contributions As such this volume will be useful to scholars students policy specialists and family program administrators

Cultural Power, Resistance, and Pluralism Brian L. Moore, 1995 Focusing on the critical years after the abolition of slavery in Guyana 1838-1900 Brian Moore examines the dynamic interplay between diverse cultures and the impact of these complex relationships on the development and structure of a colonial multiracial society

Women of the Mexican Countryside, 1850-1990 Heather Fowler-Salamini, Mary Kay Vaughan, 2022-03-08 Too often in the history of Mexico women have been portrayed as marginal figures rather than legitimate participants in social processes As the twentieth century draws to a close Mexican women of the countryside can be seen as true historical actors mothers and heads of households factory and field workers community activists artisans and merchants In this new book thirteen contributions by historians anthropologists and sociologists from Mexico as well as the United States elucidate the roles of women and changing gender relations in Mexico as rural families negotiated the transition from an agrarian to an industrial society Drawing on Mexican community studies gender studies and rural studies these essays overturn the stereotypes of Mexican peasant women by exploring the complexity of their lives and roles and examining how these have changed over time The book emphasizes the active roles of women in the periods of civil war 1854-76 and the commercialization of agriculture 1880-1910 It highlights their vigorous responses to the violence of revolution their increased mobility and their interaction with state reforms in the period from 1910 to 1940 The final essays focus on changing gender relations in the countryside under the impact of rapid urbanization and industrialization since 1940 Because histories of Latin American women have heretofore neglected rural areas this volume will serve as a touchstone for all who would better understand women's lives in a region of increasing international economic importance Women of the Mexican Countryside demonstrates that contrary to the peasant stereotype these women have accepted complex roles to meet constantly changing situations
