Multimodal Metaphor Charles Forceville, Eduardo Urios-Aparisi, 2009 Metaphor pervades discourse and may govern how we think and act But most studies only discuss its verbal varieties This book examines metaphors drawing on combinations of visuals language gestures sound and music Investigated texts include ad Representing Wine - Sensory Perceptions, Communication and Cultures Rosario Caballero, Ernesto Suárez-Toste, Carita Paradis, 2019-10-21 Wine culture is a complex phenomenon of increasing importance in modern society and it combines the joys of wine appreciation with the frustrations of trying to verbally communicate sensory impressions While wine appreciation is traditionally characterized as joyously convivial in its social dimension sensory impressions remain eminently private This contrast explains why the language used to represent wine or winespeak is the object of increasing crossdisciplinary interest This book analyzes the many different forms many of the different forms of representing wine in present day society with a special emphasis on winespeak starting from the premise that such study demands a genre approach to the many different communities involved in the wine world producers critics merchants consumers By combining the methodologies of Cognitive Linguistics and discourse analysis the authors analyze extensive real life corpora of wine reviews and multimodal artifacts labels advertisements documentaries to reflect on the many inherent difficulties but also to highlight the rich and creative figurative strategies employed to compensate for the absence of a proper wine jargon of a more unambiguous nature success Visual Metaphor Gerard J. Steen, 2018-12-15 Metaphor has recently been reconceptualised as a fundamental part of the human conceptual system It can hence be expressed in language but also in other modalities and media of communication including gesture and body language sound and music and film and visuals In spite of this theoretical landslide however the wide range of nonverbal metaphor and its processing has neither been empirically investigated on the same scale nor with the same rigour as metaphor in language The overarching goal of this book is to report on the findings of a research program aimed at exploiting the vast cognitive linguistic and psycholinguistic expertise on metaphor in language for a new behaviourally founded approach to the structure and processes of metaphor in one of these nonverbal manifestations namely static visuals The book presents concepts and methods for the identification and analysis of metaphor in document structure as well as new approaches to the study of visual metaphor processing Its results are intended to further the development of an encompassing and robust cognitive scientific theory of metaphor by including visual metaphor while also enriching our understanding of the communicative possibilities and effects of visual metaphor in multimodal discourse The Handbook of Organizational Rhetoric and Communication Oyvind Ihlen, Robert L. Heath, 2018-05-10
