African Masculinities L. Ouzgane, R. Morrell, 2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West there is very little analysis of African masculinities This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa the many forms of violence wars genocides familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in depth and comprehensive study of African men as a gendered category

Arab Women Novelists Joseph T. Zeidan, J?z?f Zayd?n, 1995-01-01 This book assesses the contribution of women to the Arabic novel both in subject matter and form It begins by tracing the struggle over women s rights in the Arab world particularly the gradual improvement in women s access to education the first area in which women made significant gains Subsequent chapters discuss Arab women writers remarkable talents and determination to overcome the barriers of a male dominated culture survey the 1950s and 1960s during which women s writing gained momentum and more women writers emerged and address the shift in emphasis and attitude that women s literature underwent in the late 1960s especially following the 1967 Arab Israeli war when women novelists began to place more stress on international politics Zeidan adapts Western based feminist literary theory to a discussion of Arab women s literature but refrains from imposing that theory inappropriately on literature whose context differs significantly He compares the women s movements in Arab and Western cultures and the development of women s literature in those cultures and uses these comparisons to highlight similarities and differences between them as well as to consider how one affected the other His analysis culminates in the early 1980s the end of the formative years when women s writing had become a familiar part of Arabic literature in general and a positive reflection on the collective Arab consciousness

Swahili Beyond the Boundaries Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, 2007 Africa is a marriage of cultures African and Asian Islamic and Euro Christian Nowhere is this fusion more evident than in the formation of Swahili Eastern Africa s lingua franca and its cultures Swahili Beyond the Boundaries Literature Language and Identity addresses the moving frontiers of Swahili literature under the impetus of new waves of globalization in the twentieth and twenty first centuries These momentous changes have generated much theoretical debate on several literary fronts as Swahili literature continues to undergo transformation in the mill of human creativity Swahili literature is a hybrid that is being reconfigured by a conjuncture of global and local forces As the interweaving of elements of the colonizer and the colonized this hybrid formation provides a representation of cultural difference that is said to constitute a third space blurring existing boundaries and calling into question established identitarian categorizations This cultural dialectic is clearly evident in the Swahili literary experience as it has evolved in the crucible of the politics of African cultural production However Swahili Beyond the Boundaries demonstrates that from the point of view of Swahili literature while hybridity evokes endless openness on questions of home and identity it can simultaneously put closure on specific forms of subjectivity In the process of this contestation a new synthesis may be emerging that is poised to subject Swahili literature to new kinds of challenges in the politics of identity compounded by the dynamics and counterdynamics of post Cold War globalization

Islam and Postcolonial Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso, James McClung, 2017-01-27 Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion's role in shaping postcolonial identity Re-centring Mother Earth Andrew Nyongesa, 2021-10-13 Literary critics have focused on the nexus between literature and the ecological environment As a mirror of society literature encapsulates the natural ecosystem to address environmental degradation as one of the major issues being confronted by communities the world over Individual literary critics have demonstrated how literary writers have deliberately presented the impact of Mother Nature on the lives of characters However most critics have hardly demonstrated the essential role of the ecological environment on the political social and religious attributes of human life in Re centring Mother Earth Ecological Reading of Contemporary Works of Fiction Andrew Nyongesa investigates the role of Mother Nature in the political cultural religious aspects of human life in contemporary novels Using eco criticism the study challenges homocentric attributes of literature and shows how the ecological environment affects all facets of human life Tintinnabulation of Literary Theory Nyongesa, Andrew, 2018-09-23 There can never be literary growth in the contemporary world which is devoid of literary criticism this is the backbone of literary theory Literature is no longer a mere narration of stories and prudent literary writers know that great literature is based on theoretical frameworks which give their works an edge in the intellectual world In this book Tintinnabulation of Literary Theory Traversing Genres to Contemporary Experience Andrew Nyongesa demonstrates how five theoretical frameworks namely Marxism Feminism Postcolonialism Psychoanalysis and Stylistic are applied to genres of literature The last chapter shows how theory has moved away from the lecture hall to real life experience The book is a practical guide to university students and tutors of literature in their undying desire to embrace Literary Criticism
