CHERISH THE MOMENT: GOD'S GIFT PHYLLIS G. MCDANIEL,2015-08-22 FIND MORE MEANING GREATER HOPE LOVE HAPPINESS AND SUCCESS THROUGH INSPIRATIONAL AND MOTIVATIONAL INSIGHT FROM SCRIPTURES AND FROM THE WORDS OF MOVERS AND SHAKERS FROM THE PAST AND PRESENT BECOME THE PERSON YOU WANT TO BE THINK POSITIVELY DEVELOP MORE SELF CONFIDENCE AND ENJOY LIFE AND EACH MOMENT Nietzsche and the Gods Weaver Santaniello,2001-10-05 Examines Nietzsche s complex attitudes toward religion and his understanding of how particular religions and deities affect the intellectual moral and spiritual lives of their various proselytes and adherents

Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell,2008 A Sheed Ward book Includes bibliographical references and index Finding a path for life the quest for goodness and happiness Not going it alone friendship and community in the Christian moral life Facing shipwreck and bandits virtues and the quest for happiness Every person s truth made in the image of God called to do the work of God Freedom exploring a dangerous topic False steps on the path to happiness losing our way and finding it back Finding a story worth handing on narrative and the moral life Doing what the good requires conscience and prudence in the moral life The gift that makes all gifts possible learning the language of love Reimagining the world why the happiness of one demands justice for all Future as God's Gift David Fergusson,Marcel Sarot,2005-01-01 International theologians consider the importance of Christian eschatology both to the life authority and hope of the church in the world and to contemporary life and thought generally Issues addressed include the understanding of time the nature of eschatological imagery the status of apocalyptic and millenarian language and the political and ecological context of modern eschatology The Holy Word for Morning Revival - Meeting God's Need and Present Needs in the Lord's Recovery Witness Lee,Watchman Nee,2021-10-18 This book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the Lord in His word At the same time it provides a limited review of the semiannual training held July 5 10 2021 on crystallization studies of Joshua Judges and Ruth Through intimate contact with the Lord in His word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the Body of Christ Telling God's Story Gerard Loughlin,1999-09-23 This book presents narrative theology as radically orthodox It is orthodox because in the tradition of all those who maintain the priority of the story of Jesus as it is sacramentally performed in the Church and radical because it eschews all modern attempts to found Christian faith on some other story such as that of reason critical history or human consciousness Acknowledging the indeterminacy of and textuality of human existance Telling God s Story presents the Christian life as as a truly postmodern venture the groundless enactment of God s future now Becoming Present Ingolf U. Dalferth,2006 Safeguarding the distinction between God and world has always been a basic interest of negative theology But sometimes it has overemphasized divine transcendence in a way that made it difficult to account for the sense of God s present activity and experienced actuality Deconstructivist criticisms of the Western metaphysics of presence have made this even more difficult to conceive. On the other hand, there has been a widespread attempt in recent years to base all theology on religious experience. The Christian church celebrates God's presence in its central sacraments of baptism and Eucharist, and recent process thought has re-conceptualised God's presence in panentheistic terms. This is the background against which this book outlines a theology of the Christian sense of the presence of God. The first chapter traces the rise and fall of rational religion in Modernity and argues that we should replace philosophical theism not by an unspecified religious sense of the whole but by a specific sense of the presence of God. The second chapter analyses the notion of divine presence and outlines different ways of understanding the real presence of God. The third chapter discusses the problem of whether and how God's presence can be discerned given the fact that there is no presence of God that is not tinged by God's absence. Chapter four distinguishes various modes of divine presence with their corresponding modes of human apprehension. Chapter five takes up the charge that presence is an impossibility in a critical discussion of the debate between Derrida and Marion about the impossibility of gift. Chapter six asks how God's presence is conceived and communicated, looking in particular to music as a means of representing and communicating the awareness of God's presence. The final chapter outlines how the sense of the presence of God can be presented and defended in a world of many religions and cultures with their often conflicting religious convictions and representations.

Present for God's Call Paul Turner, 2022-12-01 The baptized are called to serve God and the Church in a variety of ways utilizing the gifts they have been given by the Holy Spirit. Some individuals are called by God to serve in a special way. They have heard God's voice and respond to his call by presenting themselves to the Church to be instituted as a lay catechist, a lector, or an acolyte, or to be ordained as a bishop, a priest, or a deacon. The ceremonies of institution and ordination set apart these members of the Catholic faithful as servant leaders, and these liturgical rites affirm the special charisms that have been bestowed upon them by the Holy Spirit. In Present for God's Call, Fr. Paul Turner provides the historical evolution of the rites of institution and ordination as well as a pastoral overview of the current Latin texts and English translations of these rites. This book is a timely and important liturgical study on the vocational and ministerial roles in the Church, especially for women who are now permitted to serve as instituted lectors, acolytes, and catechists. Unique to Fr. Turner's study is the emphasis on the faithful's role in the rites of institution and ordination. The ordination ceremonies expect that the assembly be prepared and that they fully participate in these rites. The entire local Church is called to prepare to take part in these rites, and this book provides one way for this formation to take place.

God Moments Devotional Anthony R. Paige, 2017-12-04 What is a God moment? It's an encounter with the King where He'll replace your sorrow with a song of praise to sing. What's the purpose of God moments? That's a question you might ask. It's to give your all to Almighty God and in His glorious presence bask.

Things of God," with Their Relation to Gospel Doctrine and Moral Responsibility James GIBSON (Professor of the Free Church College, Glasgow.),1863 God's Creative Gift--Unleashing the Artist in You Jody Thomae,2013-02-27 God's Creative Gift is an in depth study for the creative Christian It is intended for both professional and lay artists for the casual crafter and hobbyist and for those in both sacred and secular settings It is for those who see things where others do not and for those whose imaginations cannot be confined by religious dogma and tradition It is for musicians singers painters sculptors dancers dramatists writers poets carvers weavers film editors photographers filmmakers architects designers anyone who finds inspiration in creativity Focusing on the creative spirit within it is designed to help you draw your inspiration from a Deeper Source It is deeply rooted in Scripture for the creative Christian must enter into the Word of God on a regular basis in order to know the choreographer of her steps the crafter of her designs the author and perfecter of her faith and the sculptor of her creative heart soul mind and body And to know Him intimately God's Gift of the Universe Paul O'Callaghan,2022-01-17 There are many ways of understanding the reality of the world we live in and experience Science philosophy art all offer us ample descriptions explanations and intuitions But Christian believers go beyond all that for they attempt to understand the origins of the universe in terms of the creation of the world by God Revelation tells us what God had in mind when he made the world ex nihilo without presuppositions of any kind God's Gift of the Universe attempts to present the principal elements and stages of creation theology The doctrine is to be found fundamentally of course in Scripture both Old and New Testament which describes the world in the light of God's word Yet since God actually gave existence to the world down to the last detail our reflection on God's word not only explains the reality of creation how it works its nature as science does It also explains how creation came into being in the mind and heart of the Triune God and ultimately why God created the world In God's Gift of the Universe a considerable effort has been spent throughout the book on the Christological and Trinitarian aspects of creation particularly in the theology of Church Fathers Creation is presented besides in a deeply eschatological key for God created the world for purpose of making his glory eternally manifest The book also considers the way God intervenes in the life of the created world through conservation in being and providence The meaning of time matter and spirit are considered The need for ecological awareness is central One aspect of the mystery of creation that receives special attention is the presence of evil in the world This is of particular importance once we accept that God made the world whole and entire thus assuming responsibility for the world as it is The origin of evil through the sin of spiritual creatures provides the ultimate though not the only explanation of the mystery of evil Particular consideration is given to the reality of original sin Sacramental Presence Ruthanna B. Hooke,2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body's experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic Preaching draws participants into Christ's dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event

Christ Present in Faith Tuomo Mannermaa, 2005-01-01 Mannermaa's revisionist work on justification in Luther's theology a notable contribution from one of the most influential Finnish scholars of Luther studies is now available in English His book opens up new interpretive questions for historical theology with striking implications for ecumenism ethics and spirituality He writes the idea of the divine life in Christ which is present in faith lies at the very center of the theology of the Reformer He argues that later Lutheran interpretation of this teaching has portrayed justification as more mechanical and forensic than Luther did underestimated the extent to which God's righteousness is also ours and obscured the radical personal transformation that Luther attributed to justification
