The Copper Beech Maeve Binchy, 2007-09-04 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The Copper Beech is as soothing as a cup of tea People In the little Irish town of Shancarrig the young people carve their initials and those of their loves into the copper beech tree in front of the schoolhouse But not even Father Gunn the parish priest who knows most of what goes on behind Shancarrig's closed doors or Dr Jims the village doctor who knows all the rest realize that not everything in the placid village is what it seems Unexpected passions and fears are bringing together many lives such as the sensitive new priest and Miss Ross the slight beautiful schoolteacher Leonora the privileged daughter of the town s richest family and Foxy Dunne whose father did time in jail and Nessa Ryan whose parents run Ryan's Hotel and two very different young men For now the secrets in Shancarrig's shadows are starting to be revealed from innocent vanities and hidden loves to crimes of the heart and even to murder Praise for The Copper Beech A book with a difference You ll take it home to lend to your best friend The New York Times Book Review Binchy makes you laugh cry and care Her warmth and sympathy render the daily struggles of ordinary people heroic and turn storytelling into art San Francisco Chronicle The Copper Beech finds author Maeve Binchy at her Irish storytelling best Cleveland Plain Dealer Farm Animals Tammy J. saw all around me from trees wildflowers birds insects and mammals In a sense this book has been over sixty years in gestation I have kept notebooks and journals ever since I could write and I have drawn upon these as well as the events of the past year Spend a year with Monty Don My Garden World is a celebration of every living creature and the natural world that we all share Recent times have given us the enforced opportunity to learn more about the fascinating natural world around us Whether you live in the countryside or the town Monty's observations and insights are relevant to each and every one of us My Garden World is Monty Don's personal journey through the natural year month by month season by season observed from the immediate world around him Wildlife is not something that we watch happening in remote and exotic parts of the world on our screens but right here in our own back yards and the more that we encourage it and learn to live with it the more rewarding it becomes If in our own modest back yards we can help preserve and treasure our natural world then we will make the world a better place not just for ourselves but for every living creature A Long Walk Home Judith Tebbutt, 2013-07-01 This is the story of how over a period of one hundred and ninety two days I was torn away from the life I knew and loved and dragged down to the depths of despair of how I endured enforced isolation and near starvation at the hands of Somali pirates and of how I made a choice to survive by any and all means that I could muster In September 2011 Judith Tebbutt and her husband David set out on an adventurous holiday to Kenya A couple for thirty three years they had first met in Zambia Africa had played a major part in their life together After a joyous week on safari in the Masai Mara they flew on to a beach resort forty kilometres south of Somalia And there in the early hours of 11 September tragedy struck them Judith was torn away from David by a band of armed pirates dragged over sea and land to a village in the arid heart of lawless Somalia and there held hostage in a squalid room a ransom on her head There too she learned the terrible truth that the responsibility of securing her release now rested with her son Ollie But though she was isolated intimidated and near starved Judith resolved to survive walking endless circuits of her nine foot prison trying to make her captors see her as a human being keeping her faith at all times in Ollie Powerful moving and at times quite devastating this is Judith Tebbutt s story in her own words It is a memoir of the life she shared with her beloved husband an unflinching account of the ordeal that overturned her world and a testament to the inner resilience and familial love that sustained her through captivity There is nothing so bad in life as to have no hope to believe you have been defeated to give in to that Now that I found myself in confinement four thousand miles from home under a hostile sky I would not accept that fate for myself The Literary World .1877 Ripley's World Andy Ripley, 2011-05-20 Winner of the National Sporting Club's prestigious British Rugby Book of the Year Award for 2008 Ripley's World transforms and redefines the genre of the sports autobiography In a moving and intimate memoir Andy Ripley England rugby icon and victorious British Lion television Superstar and world rowing champion reflects on a life of sporting achievement and confronts his most powerful and dangerous challenge yet his diagnosis with prostate cancer Told with typical candour and courage it is an absorbing and inspirational story
