Hayes, Stephen Cherry, 2022-07-22 Discipleship is a foundational concept of Christian life which has become a popular and ubiquitous description of belonging and growth in early 21st century ecclesiastical language Discipleship courses and popular writings abound and the term is used liberally in official church documents and strategies for growth and development particular in a western context But does recent use of the word risk reducing the wide range of meanings of discipleship to something less rich and inclusive than is warranted With contributions from an array of leading thinkers scholars and theologians including Rachel Mann Kirsteen Kim and Anthony Reddie this book argues that there is need for more clarity precision and depth in defining what meaningfully and constructively is construed as discipleship Beginning with an overview of how the concept of discipleship has been understood in history the volume goes on to consider some of the key figures who have shaped our understanding of the concept and finally to reflect on what discipleship might look like in contemporary society

Transcendence at the Table Julia Hurlow, 2020-10-29 When is the last time you sat down for a meal to break bread with other people and experienced peace Throughout the arc of the scriptural narrative the word shalom is used as a way to speak of the way of peace This word shalom embodies the depiction of creation where all things would glorify to the Triune God as well as bear the image of the Triune God who seamlessly embraces love and belonging What if the universal space at a table is where shalom is experienced relationally What if the longing people have for love and belonging can be extended through hospitality at a table Unification can happen when invitations are extended to come participate and communicate at the table as a reflection of the Imago Dei Eat the Bible Micah E. Chung, 2024-07-19 People love their metaphors for the Bible The Bible is a sword a mirror a script a score a cathedral a rule book a user s manual a lamp a love letter But how did metaphor which in the eighteenth century was seen as a deceptive rhetorical trick become such a prominent tool for speaking of Scripture And how does one judge between a good metaphor and a bad one This book explores the theological use of metaphor to describe the nature and interpretation of Scripture It interrogates three such models the Bible as musical score Anthony Thiselton the Bible as theo dramatic script Kevin Vanhoozer and the Bible as light John Feinberg seeking to evaluate their faithfulness to Scripture and church tradition their fittingness to the current culture and their fruitfulness for understanding and practicing the biblical text The author then proposes and explores what he considers a better model one drawn from the Bible itself namely that of Scripture as food Food, Farming and Religion Gretel Van Wieren, 2018-04-24 Although the religious and ethical consideration of food and eating is not a new phenomenon the debate about food and eating today is distinctly different from most of what has preceded it in the history of Western culture Yet the field of environmental ethics especially religious approaches to environmental ethics has been slow to see food and agriculture as topics worthy of analysis This book examines how religious traditions and communities in the United States and beyond are responding to critical environmental ethical issues posed by the global food system In particular it looks at the responses that have developed within Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions and shows how they relate to arguments and approaches in the broader study of food and environmental ethics It considers topics such as land degradation and restoration genetically modified organisms and seed consolidation animal welfare water use access pollution and climate and weaves consideration of human wellbeing and justice throughout In doing so Gretel Van Wieren proposes a model for conceptualizing agricultural and food practices in sacred terms This book will appeal to a wide and interdisciplinary audience including those interested in environment and sustainability food studies ethics and religion Grassroots to Global Marianne E. Krasny, 2018-06-15 This edited volume presents diverse case studies about the implications of civic ecology practices worldwide It answers how civic ecology practices emerge the role the practices play in the ability of communities and individuals to address social ecological stresses and given climate associated disturbances what strategies can be used to expand impacts of community driven practices to foster large scale resilience and sustainability Food Justice in US and Global Contexts Ian Werkheiser, Zachary Piso, 2017-07-01 This book offers fresh perspectives on issues of food justice The chapters emerged from a series of annual workshops on food justice held at Michigan State University between 2013 and 2015 which brought together a wide variety of interested people to learn from and work with each other Food justice can be studied from such diverse perspectives as philosophy anthropology economics gender and sexuality studies geography history literary criticism philosophy and sociology as well as the human dimensions of agricultural and environmental sciences As such interdisciplinary workshops are a much needed vehicle to improve our understanding of the subject which is at the center of a vibrant and growing discourse not only among academics from a wide range of disciplines but also among policy makers and community activists The book includes their perspectives offering a wide range of approaches to and conceptions of food justice in a variety of contexts This invaluable work requires readers to cross boundaries and be open to new ideas based on different assumptions

Rooted and Grounded Ryan D. Harker, Janeen Bertsche Johnson, 2016-01-28 For many of us the connection between the ecological crisis and humanity's detachment from the land is becoming increasingly clear In biblical terms adam humanity has severed itself from the adamah soil and we creation are reaping the consequences This collection of essays and the conference from which it took shape calls the church to root itself more deeply in the agrarian biblical text and ecclesial tradition in order to remember and freshly imagine ways of living on and with the land that are restorative reconciling and faithful to the triune God's invitation to new life in Christ When we listen attentively to and patiently learn from the biblical text church history and theology the land itself can become a conversation partner and we are summoned to recognize that the gospel is reserved not simply for humanity but for the whole of creation

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell III, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U.S. missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28:16-20 as Christ's disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull-off-the-shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally

Mission in Marginal Places: The Praxis Michael Pears, Paul Cloke, 2016-09-01 The second book in the series focuses on participation and practice and discusses a range of ways in which Kingdom-centred mission can be embedded in the actually existing realms of activity and need in marginal places The book explores five different realms of practice each presenting opportunities for innovative expressions of incarnational attentiveness to marginalized communities and people It seeks to inspire prayerful and discerning activity that tunes into what Jesus is doing in local places rather than providing any kind of off-the-shelf checklist of prefigured mission tactics It challenges readers to take their faith praxis beyond orthodox congregational settings and out into the everyday realms of life in marginal places

Food and Faith Norman Wirzba, 2018-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive theological framework for assessing the significance of eating Drawing on diverse theological philosophical and anthropological insights it offers fresh ways to evaluate food production and consumption practices as they are being worked out in today s industrial food economy Unlike books that focus primarily on vegetarianism and hunger related concerns this book broadens the scope of consideration to include the sacramental character of eating the deep significance of hospitality the meaning of death and sacrifice the Eucharist as the place of inspiration and orientation the importance of saying grace and the possibility of eating in heaven Throughout eating is presented as a way of enacting fidelity between persons between people and fellow creatures and between people and Earth Food and Faith demonstrates that eating is of profound economic moral and spiritual significance Revised throughout this edition includes a new introduction and two chapters as well as updated bibliography The additions add significantly to the core idea of creaturely membership and hospitality through discussion of the microbiome revolution in science and the daunting challenge of the Anthropocene
