News Framing through English-Chinese Translation Nancy Liu, 2018-11-14 News Framing Through English-Chinese Translation provides a useful tool to depict how Chinese news translation can be examined in the era of globalization. The author has integrated framing theory in journalism studies with translation studies and developed a new theoretical model framework named Transframing. This interdisciplinary model is pioneering and will make theoretical and conceptual contributions to translation studies. This book aims to reveal ideological, sociocultural and linguistic factors creating media discourse by examining Chinese media discourse in comparison to its counterpart in English. Through the analysis of both quantitative and qualitative methods, it is concluded that the transframing model can be applied to interpreting, describing, explaining as well as predicting the practice of news translation

Wawrytko,2019-01-31 Too often Buddhism has been subjected to the Procrustean box of western thought whereby it is stretched to fit fixed categories or had essential aspects lopped off to accommodate vastly different cultural norms and aims After several generations of scholarly discussion in English speaking communities it is time to move to the next hermeneutical stage Buddhist philosophy must be liberated from the confines of a quasi religious stereotype and judged on its own merits Hence this work will approach Chinese Buddhism as a philosophical tradition in its own right not as an historical after thought nor as an occasion for comparative discussions that assume the west alone sets the standards for or is the origin of philosophy and its methodologies Viewed within their own context Chinese Buddhist philosophers have much to contribute to a wide range of philosophical concerns including metaphysics epistemology ethics philosophy of language philosophy of mind and philosophy
