Sarah Hermanson Meister, Nicole R. Fleetwood, Bryan Stevenson, 2020 When Life magazine asked Gordon Parks to illustrate a recurring series of articles on crime in the United States in 1957 he had already been a staff photographer for nearly a decade the first African American to hold this position Parks embarked on a six week journey that took him and a reporter to the streets of New York Chicago San Francisco and Los Angeles Unlike much of his prior work the images made were in color The resulting eight page photo essay The Atmosphere of Crime was noteworthy not only for its bold aesthetic sophistication but also for how it challenged stereotypes about criminality then pervasive in the mainstream media They provided a richly hued cinematic portrayal of a largely hidden world that of violence police work and incarceration seen with empathy and candor Parks rejected clichés of delinquency drug use and corruption opting for a more nuanced view that reflected the social and economic factors tied to criminal behavior and a rare window into the working lives of those charged with preventing and prosecuting it Transcending the romanticism of the gangster film the suspense of the crime caper and the racially biased depictions of criminality then prevalent in American popular culture Parks coaxed his camera to do what it does best record reality so vividly and compellingly that it would allow Life s readers to see the complexity of these chronically oversimplified situations The Atmosphere of Crime 1957 includes an expansive selection of never before published photographs from Parks original reportage My assignment explore crime across America A journey through hell The year was 1957 I rode with detectives through shadowy districts climbed fire escapes broke through windows and doors with them Brutality was rampant Violent death showed up from dawn to dawn Gordon Parks Co published with The Gordon Parks Foundation and The Museum of Modern Art New York Collected Works ,2012 Working first for the Farm Security Administration and later for Life magazine Gordon Parks specialized in extended narrative picture stories on difficult subject matter Covering crime poverty segregation the politics of race and class and controversial personalities Parks became legendary for his ability to meld penetrating insight with a lyrical aesthetic He was thus able to introduce a broad and diverse public to people issues and ideas they might otherwise have ignored Parks was remarkably versatile travelling the world to photograph news events and fashion as well as the worlds of art literature music theatre and film Later in life he reconceived his vision in fundamentally personal and poetic terms producing colour photographs that were allusive rather than descriptive symbolic rather than literal
