Winning Grants to Strengthen Your Ministry Joy Skjegstad, 2007-05-28 Ministry leaders possess the compassion creativity and knowledge about community needs that grant funders appreciate. Yet ministry groups are often less experienced than other types of nonprofit organizations in discerning which funding to seek understanding how to build relationships with funders and putting together proposals. This book offers a pathway to strengthening new and existing ministries. Joy Skjegstad is an experienced grant proposal writer who has successfully raised money for a variety of nonprofits over the past 20 years including a number of ministry organizations. She shows how fundraising can be an integral part of ministry forcing us into deeper conversation with God expanding our relationships with others and building both our faith and our discipline. Providing detailed guidance on the practical aspects of seeking grants from foundation and corporate funders Skjegstad describes approaches for researching potential funders developing a case statement putting together an effective grant proposal and following up with grant makers. She explains the types of grants available and how to determine which are a good fit with your ministry. For faith based ministries faith is the groundwork for fundraising the most important thing to consider while developing fundraising values and strategies. Skjegstad helps faith communities identify their own cultural beliefs follow spiritual disciplines and cultivate generous hearts as they work toward integrating their faith and their fundraising.

discovery of your congregation's compelling vision for ministry. Instead of selecting your stewardship leaders by default, CLIMB encourages the development of strong leadership through setting clear and challenging expectations. CLIMB involves changing the entire culture of your congregation to one of gratitude where conversations revolve around sharing God's abundance rather than holding on fearfully. CLIMB encourages the sharing of ministry stories rather than pledging to a budget. And finally, CLIMB asserts that if you truly believe, expressing generosity results in a deeper connection to God; you have no choice but to boldly ask others to become more generous givers.
