

A blue wooden sign with white text is the central focus. The sign is rectangular and has a slightly distressed, rustic appearance. It is surrounded by a dense arrangement of dried, brown pine branches, which are visible in the upper and side portions of the frame. The sign is placed on a light-colored wooden surface, possibly a table or a shelf, which shows the natural grain of the wood. The text on the sign is in a clean, white, sans-serif font, arranged in three lines. The first line reads 'GROWING OLD CAN BE FUN', the second line reads '...IF YOU DO IT', and the third line reads 'WITH THE RIGHT PEOPLE'. The overall composition is warm and inviting, with a focus on natural elements and a positive message about aging.

Senses of the Soul William Dyrness,2008-05-01 Senses of the Soul explores the way art and visual elements are incorporated into Christian worship It incorporates research conducted in Los Angeles congregations Through extensive interviews in a sample of Protestant Catholic and Orthodox congregations it looks into the way visual elements actually become part of the experience of worship By looking at attitudes and experiences of beauty art and memories it suggests that believers appropriate images and aesthetic encounters in terms of imaginative structures that have been formed through worship practices over time By comparing responses across denominations the book proposes that people receive visual elements in ways that have been shaped by long traditions and specific background beliefs In addition to discussions of the differences between the major Christian traditions the book also examines the relation of art and beauty to worship the role of memories and everyday life and the power of images in spirituality and worship By its focus on the worshiper the book seeks to make a contribution to the growing conversation between the arts and Christian worship and to the process of worship renewal

Harper's Bazaar ,1926      iGen Jean M. Twenge,2017-08-22 We've all been desperate to learn what heavy use of social media does to adolescents Now thanks to Twenge's careful analysis we know It is making them lonely anxious and fragile especially our girls If you are a parent teacher or employer you must read this fascinating book Jonathan Haidt author of The Anxious Generation Born after 1995 they grew up with cell phones had an Instagram page before high school and cannot remember a time before the Internet They are iGen Now here is crucial reading to understand how these children teens and young adults are vastly different from their millennial predecessors and from any other generation With generational divides wider than ever parents educators and employers have an urgent need to understand today's rising generation of teens and young adults Born in the mid 1990s up to the mid 2000s iGen is the first generation to spend their entire adolescence in the age of the smartphone With social media and texting replacing other activities iGen spends less time with their friends in person perhaps contributing to their unprecedented levels of anxiety depression and loneliness But technology is not the only thing that makes iGen distinct from every generation before them they are also different in how they spend their time how they behave and in their attitudes toward religion sexuality and politics They socialize in completely new ways reject once sacred social taboos and want different things from their lives and careers More than previous generations they are obsessed with safety focused on tolerance and have no patience for inequality As this new group of young people grows into adulthood we all need to understand them friends and family need to look out for them businesses must figure out how to recruit them and sell to them colleges and universities must know how to educate and guide them And members of iGen also need to understand themselves as they communicate with their elders and explain their views to their older peers Because where iGen goes so goes our nation and the world As seen in Time USA TODAY The Atlantic The Wall Street Journal and on CBS This Morning BBC PBS CNN and NPR
