The accompanying exercises for private study and classroom use are designed to promote precision and awareness of nuance and register, develop good dictionary use, and encourage effective learning. The book includes both Iberian and Latin American vocabulary and clearly identifies differences between the two varieties. Nineteenth Century Christine Arkinstall, 2022-12-01. The ways in which women have historically authorized themselves to write on war has blurred conventionally gendered lines, intertwining the personal with the political. Women on War in Spain's Long Nineteenth Century explores through feminist lenses the cultural representations of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Spanish women's texts on war, reshaping the current knowledge and understanding of key female authors in Spain's fin de siècle. This book examines works by notable writers including Rosario de Acuña, Blanca de los Ríos, Concepción Arenal, and Carmen de Burgos as they engage with the War of Independence, the Third Carlist War, Spain's colonial wars, and World War I. The selected works foreground how women's representations of war can challenge masculine conceptualizations of public and domestic spheres. Christine Arkinstall analyses the works' overarching themes and symbols, such as honour, blood, the Virgin, and the Mother, and the intersecting sexual, social, and racial contracts. In doing so, Arkinstall highlights how these texts imagine outcomes that deviate from established norms of femininity, offer new models to Spanish women, and interrogate the militaristic foundations of patriarchal societies. Punishment of War Criminals United States. Congress.

Domesticating Empire Karen Stolley, 2021-04-30 Why has the work of writers in eighteenth century Latin America been forgotten During the eighteenth century enlightened thinkers in Spanish territories in the Americas engaged in lively exchanges with their counterparts in Europe and Anglo America about a wide range of topics of mutual interest responding in the context of increasing racial and economic diversification Yet despite recent efforts to broaden our understanding of the global Enlightenment the Ibero American eighteenth century has often been overlooked Through the work of five authors Jose de Oviedo y Banos Juan Ignacio Molina Felix de Azara Catalina de Jesus Herrera and Jose Martin Felix de Arrate Domesticating Empire explores the Ibero American Enlightenment as a project that reflects both key Enlightenment concerns and the particular preoccupations of Bourbon Spain and its territories in the Americas At a crucial moment in Spain's imperial trajectory these authors domesticate topics central to empire conquest Indians nature God and gold by making them familiar and utilitarian As a result their works later proved resistant to overarching schemes of Latin American literary history and have been largely forgotten Nevertheless eighteenth century Ibero American writing complicates narratives about both the Enlightenment and Latin American cultural identity

The State, War and Peace J. A. Fernández-Santamaria, 1977-09-08 This is a comprehensive study in English of political thought in Spain during the Renaissance In the early sixteenth century Castile experienced two major constitutional crises caused by the accession of a Habsburg ruler shortly to become Holy Roman Emperor to her throne and by the discovery and conquest of America Politically these circumstances created a bizarre situation in which the venerable idea of medieval empire was forced to co exist with a novel imperial vision made inevitable by expansion in the new world The strain imposed on Castile s constitutional fabric stimulated the most significant developments of Spanish political thought in the Renaissance Against this background Professor Fern ndez Santamaria surveys the contribution of a number of eminent writers from diverse intellectual traditions who endeavoured to apply established political assumptions to these unprecedented

Losada,2018-07-11 The Projected Nation examines the representation of rural spaces and urban margins in Argentine cinema from the 1910s to the present The literary and visual culture of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries formulated a spatial imaginary often articulated as an opposition between civilization and barbarism or its inversion into which the cinema intervened As the twentieth century progressed the new medium integrated these ideas with its own images in various ways At times cinema limited itself to reproducing inherited representations that reassure the viewer that all is well in the nation while at others it powerfully reformulated them by filming spaces and peoples previously excluded from the national culture and left behind in the nation s modernizing process Matt Losada accounts for historical events technological factors and the politics of film form and viewing in assessing a selection of works ranging from mass marketed cinema to the political avant garde and from the canonical to the nearly unknown Spanish Through Bilingual Stories I V.
