History And Myth In Romanian Consciousness:

History and Myth in Romanian Consciousness Lucian Boia, 2001 Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level Creolizing the Modern Anca Parvulescu, Manuela Boatcă, 2022-10-15 How are modernity coloniality and interimperiality entangled Bridging the humanities and social sciences Anca Parvulescu and Manuela Boatcă provide innovative decolonial perspectives that aim to creolize modernity and the modern world system Historical Transylvania at the intersection of the Habsburg Empire the Ottoman Empire Austria Hungary and Russia offers the platform for their multi level reading of the main themes in Liviu Rebreanu s 1920 novel Ion Topics range from the question of the region s capitalist integration to antisemitism and the enslavement of Roma to multilingualism gender relations and religion Creolizing the Modern develops a comparative method for engaging with areas of the world that have inherited multiple conflicting imperial and anti imperial histories

Central and East European Politics Sharon L. Wolchik, Jane Leftwich Curry, 2011 A useful text and reference book These essays are at their best in serving both area study and political sociology Slavic Review Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Three Roumen Daskalov, Alexander Vezhenkov, 2015-03-10 Modern Balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories The authors in this volume take a different approach They view the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories This regards the treatment of shared historical legacies by rival national historiographies The volume deals with historiographical disputes that arose in the process of nationalizing the past Contributors include Diana Mishkova Alexander Vezhenkov Roumen Daskalov Tchavdar Marinov and Bernard Lory In the Shadow of the Great War Jochen Böhrer, Ota Konrád, Rudolf Kučera, 2021-01-10 Whether victorious or not Central European states faced fundamental challenges after the First World War as they struggled to contain ongoing violence and forge peaceful societies This collection explores the various forms of violence these nations confronted during this period which effectively transformed the region into a laboratory for state building Employing a bottom up approach to understanding everyday life these studies trace the contours of individual and mass violence in the interwar era while illuminating their effects upon politics intellectual developments and the arts The Many Faces of Clio Q. Edward Wang, Franz L. Fillafer, Georg G. Iggers, 2007 Born in Germany Georg Iggers escaped from Nazism to the United States in his adolescence where he became one of the most distinguished scholars of European intellectual history and the history of historiography In his lectures delivered all over the world and in his numerous books translated into many languages Georg Iggers has reshaped historiography and indefatigably promoted cross cultural dialogue This volume reflects the profound impact of his oeuvre Among the contributors are leading intellectual historians but also younger scholars who explore the various cultural contexts of modern historiography focusing on changes of European and American scholarship as well as non Western historical writing in relation to developments in the West Addressing these changes from a transnational perspective this well rounded volume offers an excellent introduction to the field which will be of interest to both established historians and graduate students Childhood in the Late Ottoman Empire and After, 2015-10-27 This volume explores the variety of ways in which childhood was experienced lived and remembered in the late Ottoman Empire and its successor states The period of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries was a time of rapid change and the history of childhood reflects the impact of new expectations lived realities and national responsibilities on the youngest members of societies undergoing monumental change because of ideological wartime and demographic shifts Drawing on comparisons both within the Balkans Turkey and the Arab lands and with Western Europe and beyond the chapters investigate the many ways in which upheaval and change affected the youth Particular attention is paid to changing conceptions of childhood gender roles and newly dominant national imperatives Contributors include Elif Ak it Laurence Brockliss Nazan i ek Alex Drace Francis Benjamin C Fortna Naoum Kaytchev Duygu K ksal Kathryn Libal Nazan Maksudyan Heidi Morrison and Philipp Wirtz This title in its entirety is available online in Open Access A Satellite Empire Vladimir Solonari, 2019-12-15 Satellite Empire is an in depth investigation of the political and social history of the area in southwestern Ukraine under Romanian occupation during World War II Transnistria was the only occupied Soviet territory administered by a power other than Nazi Germany a reward for Romanian participation in Operation Barbarossa Vladimir Solonari s invaluable contribution to World War II history focuses on three main aspects of Romanian rule of Transnistria with fascinating insights from recently opened archives Solonari examines the conquest and delimitation of the region the Romanian administration of the new territory and how locals responded to the occupation What did Romania want from the conquest The first section of the book analyzes Romanian policy aims and its participation in the invasion of the USSR Solonari then traces how Romanian administrators attempted in contradictory and inconsistent ways to make Transnistria Romanian and civilized while simultaneously using it as a dumping ground for 150 000 Jews and 20 000 Roma deported from a racially cleansed Romania The author shows that the imperatives of total war eventually prioritized economic exploitation of the region over any other aims the Romanians may have had In the final section he uncovers local responses in terms of collaboration and resistance in particular exploring relationships with the local Christian population which initially welcomed the occupiers as liberators from Soviet oppression but eventually became hostile to them Ever increasing hostility towards the occupying regime buoyed the numbers and efficacy of pro Soviet resistance groups

The Fascist Faith of the Legion "Archangel Michael" in Romania, 1927-1941 Constantin Iordachi, 2022-12-30 The Fascist Faith of the Legion Archangel Michael in Romania 1927 1941 engages critically with recent works on fascism totalitarianism and religion and advances an original theoretical and methodological approach to fascism as a political faith On this basis the book constructs an innovative comparative research framework for reconceptualizing the history of the Legion Archangel Michael in Romania 1927 1941 It contends that the Legion put forward a palingenetic political faith of a theological type called Legionarism To provide a comprehensive analysis of the origins main features mechanisms of institutionalization and demise of this self proclaimed salvific political faith the book documents the palingenetic foundations of the Legionary faith the syncretism between fascist and Christian rites and rituals and the intricate relationship between the Legion and the Orthodox Church and its dogma The book documents three main sacrificial strategies employed by the Legion to re evangelize the people in the new faith 1 the appropriation of the cult of the fallen soldiers 2 terrorist missions meant to create fascist heroes through violent sacrifice and 3 sanctification through heroic fight for Christianity in the Spanish Civil War in an attempt to link Legionarism with the transnational crusade against Judeo Bolshevism As well as providing a detailed historical and interpretive account of the Legion the book makes a significant contribution to debates about defining fascism and its relation to religion It also provides novel comparative perspectives for studying other attempts at constructing fascist faiths in interwar Europe most notably in Fascist Italy and Nazi Germany but also in Central and Eastern Europe This book will be of interest to students and scholars of fascism Romanian studies politics and religion political theory totalitarianism youth radicalization violence and the emergence of terrorism

Fabricating Authenticity in Soviet Hungary Péter Apor, 2015-03-01 This book explores the memory of the First Hungarian Soviet Republic of 1919 which proved crucial for communist Hungarian political culture in the twentieth century Apor approaches the topic in an innovative way focusing on the understudied aspects of European memory cultures Offering great insights on how a dictatorship remembers and the concept of authenticity Apor s study integrates the broad range of processes through which history is sought to be rendered authentic The volume successfully reveals the crooked history of the retrospective revisions of the iconic First Republic between the years of its 30th and 40th anniversary 1949 and 1959

Bringing the Dark Past to Light John-Paul Himka, Joanna Beata Michlic, 2019-06-12 Despite the Holocaust s profound impact on the history of Eastern Europe the communist regimes successfully repressed public discourse about and memory of this tragedy Since the collapse of communism in 1989 however this has changed Not only has a wealth of archival sources become available but there have also been oral history projects and interviews recording the testimonies of eyewitnesses who experienced the Holocaust as children and young adults Recent political social and cultural developments have facilitated a more nuanced and complex understanding of the continuities and discontinuities in representations of the Holocaust. People are beginning to realize the significant role that memory of Holocaust plays in contemporary discussions of national identity in Eastern Europe. This volume of original essays explores the memory of the Holocaust and the Jewish past in postcommunist Eastern Europe. Devoting space to every postcommunist country, the essays in Bringing the Dark Past to Light explore how the memory of the dark pasts of Eastern European nations is being recollected and reworked. In addition, it examines how this memory shapes the collective identities and the social identity of ethnic and national minorities. Memory of the Holocaust has practical implications regarding the current development of national cultures and international relationships. Ionel Bratianu Keith Hitchins, 2011-09-06

At the beginning of 1918 the British War Cabinet endorsed the view of the Prime Minister David Lloyd George that after the war Austria-Hungary should be in a position to exercise a powerful influence in south-east Europe. These reassuring professions were the essence of hypocrisy since the Allies had already given away at least on paper large chunks of Austro-Hungarian territory as bribes to potential allies. In 1916 Romania was promised the whole of Transylvania, the Banat, both components of historic Hungary and the Bukovina in return for her entry into the war. These promises persuaded the Romanian Prime Minister Ion Bratianu, 1864-1927 to intervene in the war on the side of the Allies in 1916. He led the Romanian delegation to the Paris Peace Conference where he insisted on those promises to be fulfilled. His often strained relations with the Big Four and the Supreme Council were further eroded when Romania invaded Hungary. Romania, however, in the end signed and adhered to the Treaty of Saint Germain-en-Laye with Austria, Neuilly-sur-Seine with Bulgaria, the Treaty of Paris 1920, the Treaty of Trianon with Hungary and the minorities treaty.

A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G. Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2016-09-01 The first book on historiography to adopt a global and comparative perspective on the topic. A Global History of Modern Historiography looks not just at developments in the West but also at the other great historiographical traditions in Asia, the Middle East and elsewhere around the world over the course of the past two and a half centuries. This second edition contains fully updated sections on Latin American and African historiography, discussion of the development of global history, environmental history and feminist and gender history in recent years and new coverage of Russian historical practices. Beginning in the mid-eighteenth century, the authors analyse historical currents in a changing political, social and cultural context, examining both the adaptation and modification of the Western influence on historiography and how societies outside Europe and America found their own ways in the face of modernization and globalization. Supported by online resources including a selection of excerpts from key historiographical texts, this book offers an up-to-date account of the status of historical writing in the global era and is essential reading for all students of modern historiography. Prussia in the Historical Culture of the German Democratic Republic Marcus Colla, 2023-01-06 Using the case study of Prussia, Marcus Colla presents a multi-perspective approach to the way that a distinctive historical culture was constructed in the German Democratic Republic evaluating the roles played by political figures historians and cultural elites but also purveyors of popular culture such as writers and musicians Historicizing Race Marius Turda, Maria Sophia Quine, 2018-02-22 The idea of race may be outdated as many commentators and scholars working in a broad range of different fields in the sciences and humanities have argued over many years Nevertheless it remains one of the most persistent forms of human classification Theories of race primitivism the idea that there is a natural racial hierarchy and ranking order of inferior and superior races race biologism the belief that people can be classified by genetic features which are shared by members of racial groups and race essentialism the notion that races can be defined by scientifically identifiable and verifiable cultural and physical characteristics are deeply embedded in modern history culture and politics Historicizing Race offers a new understanding of this reality by exploring the interconnectedness of scientific cultural and political strands of racial thought in Europe and elsewhere It reconceptualises the idea of race by unearthing various historical traditions that continue to inform not only current debates about individual and collective identities but also national and international politics In a concise format accessible to students and scholars alike the authors draw out some of the reasons why race centred thinking has in recent years re emerged in such shocking and explicit form in current populist xenophobic and anti immigration movements

Complicated Complicity Martina Bitunjac, Julius H. Schoeps, 2021-06-21 Complicated Complicity is about the forms taken motives and spectrum of actions of European collaboration with the Nazis State authorities local military organizations and individual players in different countries and areas including France Scandinavia Lithuania Poland Ukraine Romania Hungary Slovakia Greece Italy Portugal and the countries of the former Yugoslavia are discussed in the context of the history of World War II the history of occupation and everyday life and as an essential influencing factor in the Holocaust New forms of right wing populism nationalism and growing intolerance of Jewish fellow citizens and minorities have made such historically sensitive studies considerably more difficult in many countries today In this time of increasing historical revisionism in Europe such elucidating discourse is particularly relevant Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleşteanu-Jacobs, 2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism Witchcraft in Romania Ioan Pop-Curşeu,Ştefana Pop-Curşeu,2022-11-30 This book provides a history of witchcraft in the territories that compose contemporary Romania with a focus on the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries The first part presents aspects of earthly justice religious and secular analysing the codes of law trials and verdicts and underlining the differences between Transylvania on one hand and Moldavia and Wallachia on the other The second part is concerned with divine justice describing apocalyptic texts that talk about the pains of witches in hell but also the ensembles of religious painting where in vast compositions of the Last Judgment various punishments for the sin of witchcraft are imagined Cinema, State Socialism and Society in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, 1917-1989 Sanja Bahun,John Haynes,2014-07-25 This book presents a comprehensive re examination of the cinemas of the Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe during the communist era It argues that since the end of communism in these countries film scholars are able to view these cinemas in a different way no longer bound by an outlook relying on binary Cold War terms With the opening of archives in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union much more is known about these states and societies at the same time the field has been reinvigorated by its opening up to more contemporary concepts themes and approaches in film studies and adjacent disciplines Taking stock of these developments this book presents a rich varied tapestry relating specific films to specific national and transnational circumstances rather than viewing them as a single monolithic Cold War Communist cinema
