Survey of Historic Costume Phyllis G. Tortora, Sara B. Marcketti, 2015-03-12 Survey of Historic Costume presents a thorough overview and chronology of Western dress from the ancient world to the trends of today Clothes Make the Man Valerie R. Hotchkiss, 2012-11-12 In this book the author explores medieval society's fascination with the cross-dressed woman. The author examines a wide variety of religious, literary, and historical sources which record interpretations of sartorial attempts to overcome gender hierarchy and also illustrate mainly through the device of inversion a remarkably sustained desire to examine and reexamine the nature of social gender identities The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV Alex Bevan, 2019-02-07 The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV explores the aesthetic politics of nostalgia for 1950s and 60s America on contemporary television. Specifically, it looks at how nostalgic TV production design shapes and is shaped by larger historical discourses on gender and technological change and America's perceived decline as a global power. Alex Bevan argues that the aesthetics of nostalgic TV tell stories of their own about historical decline and progress and the place of the baby boomer television suburb in American national memory. She contests theories on nostalgia that see it as stagnating, regressive, or a reversion to outdated gender and racial politics and the technophobic longing for a bygone era and instead argues that nostalgia is an important form of historical memory and vehicle for negotiating periods of historical transition. The book addresses how and why the shows construct the boomer era as a placeholder for gender, racial, technological, and declensionist discourses of the present. The book uses Mad Men (AMC 2007-2015), Ugly Betty (ABC 2006-2010), Desperate Housewives (ABC 2004-2012), and film remakes of 1950s and 60s family sitcoms as primary case studies The Reader's Handbook of Allusions, References, Plots and Stories Ebenezer Cobham Brewer, 1882 Men's 17th & 18th Century Costume, Cut & Fashion Ronald I. Davis, 2000 This is a comprehensive guide to understanding and creating men's costumes and fashions of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. As well as being historically accurate, the author's patterns have been prepared so that they fit the modern male figure and adapted so that they can be readily constructed using today's fabrics and sewing techniques. Back cover Subject Headings for Use in Dictionary Catalogs of Juvenile Books Margaret Mann, 1916 List of Subject Headings for Use in Dictionary Catalogs American Library Association, 1911 Performance Costume Sofia Pantouvaki, Peter McNeil, 2020-12-10 Costume is an active agent for performance making; it is a material object that embodies ideas shaped through collaborative creative work. A new focus in recent years on research in the area of costume has connected this practice in vital and new ways with theories of the body and embodiment, design practices, artistic and other forms of collaboration. Costume like fashion and dress is now viewed as an area of dynamic social significance and not simply as a passive reflector of a pre-conceived social state or practice. This book offers new approaches to the study of costume as well as fresh insights into the better understood frames of historical, theoretical practice based and archival research into costume for performance. This anthology draws on the experience of a global group of established researchers as well as emerging voices Below is a list of just some of the things it achieves 1 Introduces diverse perspectives innovative new research methods and approaches for researching design and the costumed body in performance 2 Contributes towards a new understanding of how costume actually performs in time and space 3 Offers new insights into existing practices as well as creating a space of connection between practitioners and researchers from design the humanities and social sciences
