Apple,2003-12-16 The State and the Politics of Knowledge extends the insightful arguments Michael Apple provided in Educating the Right Way in new and truly international directions Arguing that schooling is by definition political Apple and his co authors move beyond a critical analysis to describe numerous ways of interrupting dominance and creating truly democratic and realistic alternatives to the ways markets standards testing and a limited vision of religion are now being pressed into schools

Curriculum Innovation in East Asian Schools Huixuan Xu,2024-11-12 Following closely behind the global pandemic s recent forced challenges to schools and teachers Xu gives an overview of how educational researchers and schools in Asia respond to challenges in times of change Her research focuses on how they adjust or change curriculum

policy and practice to find a balance between developing innovation in response to fast changing societal needs and maintaining the existing education systems that traditionally predict success for students In this book curriculum innovation is documented in three themes 21st century skills and competency based curriculum technology supported curriculum and equity in curriculum Xu includes three types of chapters 1 case studies that provide detailed analyses of curriculum innovation at the school or country level 2 conceptual analyses that deepen our understanding of curriculum issues using a new lens and 3 literature reviews that provide an overview of research in particular topics The volume will be of great interest to researchers and educators interested in the role of curriculum innovation in times of change In particular it focuses on the ways innovative curriculum provides opportunities for individual students to maximize their potential while also acknowledging the constraints of local education systems

Reading References for English History Henry Lewin Cannon,1910 Hong Kong's Chinese History Curriculum from 1945 Flora L.F. Kan,2007-01-01 Hong Kong s Chinese History Curriculum from 1945 Politics and Identity investigates the ways in which Chinese history has evolved as a subject in Hong Kong secondary schools since 1945 and the various social political and economic factors that have shaped the curriculum through an examination of a wide range of primary and secondary source materials and interviews This book examines how the aims content teaching learning and assessment of the Chinese history curriculum have evolved since 1945 It describes how Chinese history became an independent subject in secondary schools in Hong Kong despite the political sensitivity of the subject how it consolidated its status during the colonial period and how it has faced threats to its independence since the return of Hong Kong to China in 1997 An important element of the book is its in depth analysis of the major socio political and socio economic forces that have been involved in the development of Chinese history This book will be of interest to all who are interested in history education and curriculum development and readers who are concerned with history education
