God And The Victim Theological Reflections On Evil Victimization Justice And Forgiveness:

God and the Victim Lisa Barnes Lampman, Michelle D. Shattuck, 1999 Written by teachers theologians and practitioners well known for their expertise in the field God and the Victim probes and examines issues of evil justice victimization and forgiveness Working from the view that crime is primarily a spiritual issue the authors look at examples of victimization in the Bible for guidance about how we can better minister to victims today from publisher description Religion and

Peacebuilding Harold Coward, Gordon S. Smith, 2012-02-01 In the wake of September 11 2001 religion is often seen as the motivating force behind terrorism and other acts of violence Religion and Peacebuilding looks beyond headlines concerning violence perpetrated in the name of religion to examine how world religions have also inspired social welfare and peacemaking activism Leading scholars from the Aboriginal Hindu Buddhist Confucian Jewish Muslim and Christian traditions provide detailed analyses of the spiritual resources for fostering peace within their respective religions The contributors discuss the formidable obstacles to nonviolent conflict transformation found within sacred texts and living traditions Case studies of Northern Ireland Bosnia Cambodia and South Africa are also examined as practical applications of spiritual resources for peace

The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo, 2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely

Sticky Faith, Youth Worker Edition Kara Powell, Brad M. Griffin, Cheryl A. Crawford, 2011-10-04 Many of the statistics you read about teenagers and faith can be alarming Recent studies show that 40 50 percent of kids who are connected to a youth group throughout their senior year will fail to stick with their faith in college As youth workers are pouring their time and energy into the students in their ministries they are often left wondering if they've done enough to equip their students to carry their faith into adulthood Fuller Youth Institute has done extensive research in the area of youth ministry and teenage development In Sticky Faith the team at FYI presents youth workers with both a theological philosophical framework and practical programming ideas that develop long term faith in teenagers Each chapter presents a summary of FYI's quantitative and qualitative research along with the implications of this research including program ideas suggested and tested by youth ministries nationwide This resource will give youth pastors what they need to help foster a faith that sticks with all the teenagers in their group long after they've left the youth room Living in the Lamplight Hans

Boersma, 2001-01-08 In recent decades many fundamental Christian assumptions about the nature of God and the world have come under attack No longer can one assume even in many church circles that historic Christian beliefs about the Trinity and providence are generally accepted or understood Scientific knowledge and new technologies have also presented challenges for the church How for example should Christians understand the ecological crisis And how should the opening chapters of Genesis be understood in an age of genetic research and evolutionary science This collection of essays attempts to chart a faithful path for postmodern Christians exploring the foundational ideas and concepts of a Christian worldview and suggesting their implications for Christian living today Contributors Hans Boersma John Cooper Marva J Dawn Michael W Goheen Christopher D Marshall Arnold E Sikkema John G Stackhouse Jr Rikki E Watts John R Wood Relationships and Emotions After Christendom Jeremy Thomson, 2016-06-01 This accessible and practical book is a mixture of selected theological and psychological insights into key human emotions and relationships Its aim is to help Christian people and churches to behave in relationships and handle emotions in constructive and liberating ways It argues that after Christendom particular attention should be given to how Christians conduct day to day relationships and that developing emotional literacy should be high on churches agendas

Competing Memories Rebekka Friedman, 2017-08-24 The aftermath of modern conflicts deeply rooted in political economic and social structures leaves pervasive and often recurring legacies of violence Addressing past injustice is therefore fundamental not only for societal well being and peace but also for future conflict prevention In recent years truth and reconciliation commissions have become important but contentious mechanisms for conflict resolution and reconciliation This book fills a significant gap examining the importance of context within transitional justice and peace building It lays out long term and often unexpected indirect effects of formal and informal justice processes Offering a novel conceptual understanding of procedural reconciliation on the societal level it features an in depth study of commissions in Peru and Sierra Leone providing a critical analysis of the contribution and challenges facing transitional justice in post conflict societies It will be of interest to scholars and students of comparative politics international relations human rights and conflict studies

Sticky Faith Service Guide Kara Powell, Brad M. Griffin, 2016-02-02 Anyone who serves teenagers today knows that more and more young people are eager to make a difference in the world When students participate in short term missions service and justice causes parents and youth leaders hope these experiences will lead to real transformation But research shows that our efforts don't always stick If we truly want short term work to translate into long term change leaders and students must spend more time before during and after service projects preparing for and processing their experiences The sessions in this leader's guide will help you create experiences that stick both for the students you take and the communities you serve This guidebook offers a host of practical and field tested exercises for each phase of your experience whether it's a half day local service project or a two week trip overseas Participants will engage in hands on experiences to gain new insights about themselves their relationship with God their teammates and the world we're called to love and serve Each of these steps is a catalyst in helping students apply what they have learned in the field to their own lives back at home Also included are ideas to help get parents and the whole church engaged in service together A companion student journal is also available to boost the potential for personal application throughout the journey

Handbook of Forgiveness Everett L. Worthington, Jr., 2007-12-11 There is a need in both public and professional sectors for a deeper and more complete understanding of forgiveness as we are in the author's own words on the threshold of an age of forgiveness and reconciliation And yet despite continued interest and development in the field researchers clinicians practitioners and academics have long been without a comprehensive resource on which to base their work The Handbook of Forgiveness summarizes the state of the science in the research practice and teaching of forgiveness Chapters approach forgiveness and reconciliation from a variety of perspectives drawing on related work in fields such as biology personality social psychology clinical psychology developmental psychology philosophy neuroscience and international political implications The Handbook provides comprehensive treatments of the topic integrating theoretical considerations methodological discussions and practical interventions strategies in order to appeal to researchers clinicians and practitioners This volume is the most up to date and authoritative resource on the understanding of the science of forgiveness The Handbook of Forgiveness has been chosen as a Book of Distinction by Templeton Press

The Long Journey Home Andrew J. Schmutzer, 2011-10-01 Maybe the only thing new about sexual abuse is quality discussion from several professions psychology theology and pastoral care Here are the insights of over two dozen psychologists theologians and those in pastoral care all targeting the issue of sexual abuse Designed as a resource for Christian educators therapists pastors social workers group leaders and survivors The Long Journey Home combines current research in mental health with rich theological reflection global concern with fervent pastoral wisdom for the local faith community Whether you are a counselor professor pastor or spouse of a survivor you hold in your hand a fresh resource of information and advocacy for those suffering from the devastating effects of sexual abuse and rape The breadth of material biblical insight discussion questions and helpful resources gathered here just may be the tool of a generation

Breaking the Silence Dr. Kim Yancey James, 2010-03-11 This writing spiritually passionately and intellectually addresses the issues surrounding the silence of both church and secular community concerning violence against women The author shares a model of ministry that engaged women who courageously describe their victimization bringing the reader into the heart of their woundedness This ministry model has proven effective in breaking the silence of abuse while providing a safe nurturing environment in which victims of abuse may begin the lengthy process of healing This book is a must read for women and men alike as we are all somehow associated with a female victim survivor of violence and abuse

The Colors of Hope Richard Dahlstrom, 2011-05-01 The Christian life says Richard Dahlstrom should be guided by the intentional goal of blessing the lives of the friends loved ones and strangers in our midst We are called to impact a culture that for all the rhetoric about hope is overwhelmingly preoccupied with personal peace prosperity protection and survival Christians should be artists who paint with the colors of hope in a broken world embodying Christ's redemptive presence in our personal lives our work and our relationships This inspiring and practical book offers tools for living out this vision in daily life with special attention given to the challenges we face in staying focused on the mission of imparting hope to others even while dealing with our own personal issues Anyone who wishes they could have an impact on the world will cherish this unique book

Ministry Team Meetings That Work Kara Powell, Fuller Youth Institute, 2009 You know that the key to a strong youth group is your volunteer team And the key to a strong team of volunteers is a common vision and passion for both teenagers and the ministry Unfortunately you probably also know what a struggle it can be to get that vision out of your own head and into the hearts of your volunteer team Too often we youth pastors schedule regular meetings with our adult volunteers and small group leaders with good intentions but these meetings often degenerate into a string of announcements about upcoming events and leave out the things that lead to deeper ministry This unique research based training resource addresses the needs of you and your volunteer leaders and includes the voices of influential youth ministry veterans Designed to focus on a key monthly issue over nine months Essential Leadership provides you with insight and tools to make ministry team meetings work and to engage all your leaders in discussion that will take both the ministry and the students deeper by exploring Your ministry's strengths weaknesses opportunities and threats Integrating students into the life of the church Effective family ministry Holistic ministry Giving and receiving mentoring Getting the rest you need Deep justice Helping kids who are hurting Giving your kids a faith that lasts Using this leader's guide along with the companion participant's guide will strengthen your youth ministry leadership team so that together you can make a deeper impact on the lives of teenagers

Sticky Faith Kara Powell, Chap Clark, 2011-10-04 Sticky Faith delivers positive and practical ideas to nurture within your kids a living loving faith that lasts a lifetime Research indicates that almost half of high school seniors drift from their faith after graduation Struck by this staggering statistic and recognizing its ramifications the Fuller Youth Institute FYI conducted the College Transition Project in an effort to identify the relationships and best practices that can set young people on a trajectory of lifelong faith and service This easy to read guide presents both a compelling rationale and a powerful strategy to show parents how to actively encourage their children's spiritual growth so that it will stick with them into adulthood and empower them to develop a living lasting faith Written by Fuller Youth Institute Executive Director Dr Kara E Powell and youth expert Chap Clark authors known for the integrity of their research and the intensity of their passion for young people Sticky Faith is geared to spark a movement that empowers adults to develop robust and long term faith in kids of all ages Further engage your family and church with the Sticky Faith Guide for Your Family Sticky Faith curriculum and Sticky Faith youth worker edition Sticky Faith is also available in Spanish C mo criar j venes de fe s lida

Overcoming Toxic Emotions Raymond Olusesan Aina,2022-07-06 Overcoming Toxic Emotions is a compelling theme to enrich the restorative justice literature on the complex tasks of relational repair in a transitional society With its emphasis on the centrality of rebuilding trust and renewing the mode of being together this book is an innovative addition to the literature on justice in transitional societies It offers an original assessment of the Nigerian experience of restorative justice in peacebuilding This genuinely theological work opens new perspectives for a more adequate understanding of the Christian contribution to peacebuilding and the secular debate on restorative justice Yet the author expresses himself as an African theologian paying attention to the specific context of the problems about transitional justice and integrating spontaneously the wisdom of his dual cultures Yoruba and Christianity With its attentiveness to victim perspectives the book engages the traditional notion of divine omnipotence and vulnerability The book rejects the notion of the fetish omnipotent God It opts instead for an image of God as vulnerable yet powerful in love compelling inspiring and rallying us Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 5, Number 2 David M. Holcomb,Lindsey A. Holcomb,2011-01-05 The statistics are jarring One in four women and one in six men have been sexually assaulted But as sobering as these statistics are they can t begin to speak to the darkness and grief experienced by the victims The church needs compassionate and wise resources to care for those living in the wake of this evil Other books attempt to address the journey from shame to healing for victims of sexual abuse but few are from a Christian perspective and written for both child and adult victims In Rid of My Disgrace a couple experienced in counseling and care for victims of sexual assault present the gospel in its power to heal the broken and restore the disgraced Justin and Lindsey Holcomb present a clear definition of sexual assault and outline a biblical approach for moving from destruction to redemption Rid of My Disgrace applies a theology of redemption to the grief shame and sense of defilement victims experience This book is primarily written for them but can also equip pastors ministry staff and others to respond compassionately to those who have been assaulted Part of the Re Lit series
