Genesis 1-11 Thomas A. Keiser, 2013-08-21 Although the object of centuries of study only relatively recently has Genesis 1-11 been analyzed with attention to its literary unity and theological purpose With the latter twentieth century's increased attention to synchronic approaches many scholars began to consider Genesis 1-11 from the perspective of a literary unity in its final form and therefore to consider matters of intent and theological content Yet in spite of these treatments there have been virtually no attempts to view the entire section of Genesis 1-11 as a literary and theological unity presenting a coherent message This book begins to fill this void by seeking to identify the message of these chapters through utilization of a literary theological approach The study focuses on literary features including the broader issues of surface and deep structure while other topics of special concern include rhetoric as the art of composition for the purpose of communication and persuasion and the use of speech as an important indicator of key issues in Hebrew narrative

Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest, 1897 Schleiermacher on Christian Consciousness of God's Work in History Abraham Varghese Kunnuthara, 2008-01-01 This work is a fresh unusually lucid approach to Christian theology and interfaith dialogue from India Its basic aim is to examine the Christian consciousness of God's work in history redemption history within the entire history of the world It uses Christian Faith by Friedrich Schleiermacher 1768-1834 as its main text so as to view this theme in a reversed order from the way it is presented there This approach which centers on God's new creation in Christ leads to an incisive understanding of Christianity's relation to other modes of faith Throughout Dr Kunnuthara compares the thought of another Indian Christian leader steeped in Hindu thought Pandipedi Chenchiah 1886-1959 to enable renewed interfaith dialogue across a wide spectrum
