God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston, 2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset the birth of a child or a work of art music or literature While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation conscience and culture The book offers a robust constructive biblical theology of general revelation rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of The Father and the Feminine Spencer Miles Boersma, 2024-09-12 How should Christians speak of the other faiths transcendent yet personal God when our language for persons is almost always gendered Is male imagery such as Father Son or King the only appropriate way Are there ways to talk of God using female gendered metaphors and pronouns And how does the use of such language impact humans as gendered people Moving beyond the extremes in this debate The Father and the Feminine seeks to clarify the ways Christians speak about God whether this is by recognizing revelation and Christian tradition upholding God's ineffability using analogies metaphors and narratives referring to God as Father Son and Spirit or by seeking a liberating way of life in community Spencer Miles Boersma argues that male language for God need not be problematic if used and understood correctly but at the same time that it cannot be the exclusive way Christians speak of the Divine The grammar of Christian Scripture and tradition both authorize the use of female language which Christians ought to use in pursuing a deeper relationship with God and others as well as a more authentic view of self Knowing God as an Evangelical Dan-Adrian Petre, 2023-04-26 In the present polyphony of evangelical theological epistemology there are several authoritative approaches Yet the evangelical emphasis on sola scriptura demands that theological epistemology be subjected to the biblical canon In this book Dan Adrian Petre argues for a canonically derived theological epistemological framework that may foster a fuller understanding of theological knowledge formation within evangelicalism Specifically he explores some representative evangelical voices to identify the reasons for the contemporary epistemological variance Petre then uses a canonical epistemological methodology to outline a biblically based framework In exploring how the Scripture conceptualizes the formation of theological knowledge the book uses cognitive linguistics to grasp the conceptual meaning of the theological knowledge formation in the Bible using prototypical case studies. The resulting epistemological implications outline a minimal epistemological model derived from the biblical canon Using this vantage point the author assesses the contemporary evangelical epistemological dissonance as a means of indicating a way forward for a canonical epistemological Redeeming Transcendence in the Arts Jeremy Begbie, 2018-02-14 How can the arts witness to the attunement transcendence of the Christian God Many people believe that there is something transcendent about the arts that they can awaken a profound sense of awe wonder and mystery of something beyond this world even for those who may have no use for conventional forms of Christianity In this book Jeremy Begbie a leading voice on theology and the arts employs a biblical Trinitarian imagination to show how Christian involvement in the arts can be shaped by the distinctive vision of God s transcendence opened up in and through Jesus Christ Gospel as Work of Art David Brown, 2024-03-07 A lushly illustrated magisterial exploration of the imaginative truth of the gospel In the modern academy truth and imagination are thought to be mutually exclusive But what if truth can spring from other fonts like art literature and invention The legacy of the Enlightenment favors historical and empirical inquiry above all other methods for searching for truth But this assumption constrains our theological explorations Though the historicity of Jesus s life death and resurrection is important it is not the only thing that matters For instance is John's Gospel any less true than the Synoptics just because it's less historically accurate David Brown challenges us to expand our understanding of the gospel past source criticism and historical Jesus studies to include works of imagination Reading Scripture in tandem with works of art throughout the centuries Brown reenvisions the gospel as an open text Scholars of theology and biblical studies freed from literalism will find new avenues of revelation in Gospel as Work of Art This volume includes over one hundred color illustrations The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Popular Music Christopher Partridge, Marcus Moberg, 2023-06-15 The second edition of The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Popular Music provides an updated state of the art analysis of the most important themes and concepts in the field combining research in religious studies theology critical musicology cultural analysis and sociology It comprises 30 updated essays and six new chapters covering the following areas Popular Music Religion and Performance Musicological Perspectives Popular Music and Religious Syncretism Atheism and Popular Music Industrial Music and Noise K pop The Handbook continues to provide a guide to methodology key genres and popular music subcultures as well as an extensive updated bibliography It remains the essential tool for anyone with an interest in popular culture generally and religion and popular music in particular The Art of New Creation Jeremy Begbie, Daniel Train, W. David O. Taylor, 2022-03-29 Creation and the new creation are inextricably bound for the God who created the world is the same God who promises a new heaven and a new earth Bringing together theologians biblical scholars and artists this volume based on the DITA10 conference at Duke Divinity School explores how the relation between creation and the new creation is informed by and reflected in the arts A Teachable Spirit A. J. Swoboda, 2025-04-29 Being a know it all isn t a fruit of the Spirit But the ancient call of Jesus beckons us to love the Lord your God with all your heart mind soul and strength Matt 22 37 How do we love God with our mind In A Teachable Spirit A J Swoboda helps followers of Jesus develop the discipline of teachability In a world marked by distraction mind numbing entertainment endless content polarization and a decreasing desire to humbly learn from those we dislike the way we engage sources of information like news media science and social media content could not be more important Thankfully the Christian faith provides sharp tools and rich traditions for learning how to be the best learners By drawing on his experiences as a professor theologian and lay pastor Swoboda explores the potency of seeing learning as a part of one's spiritual formation to Jesus With the right posture Christians can learn from even the most Transcendence and Spirituality in Chinese Cinema Kris H.K Chong, 2020-05-27 This book unexpected places provides a framework by which a global audience might think theologically about contemporary films produced in mainland China by Chinese directors Up to this point the academic discipline of Christian theology and film has focussed predominantly on Western cinema and as a result has missed out the potential insights offered by Chinese spirituality on film Mainland Chinese films produced within the nation's social structure offer an excellent lingua franca of China Illuminating the spiritual imagination of Chinese filmmakers and their yearning for transcendence the book uses Richard A Blake's concept of afterimage to analyse the potential theological implications of their films It then brings J rgen Moltmann s immanent transcendence and Robert K Johnston's God's wider Presence into conversation with Confucianist and Daoist ideas of there being spirituality speaking More in Life than Meets the Eye than simply material existence This all combines to move beyond film and allow for a Western audience to gain a new perspective on Chinese culture and traditions One that uses familiar Western terms while avoiding the imposition of a Western mindset This is a new perspective on cinema religion and Chinese culture that will be of keen interest to scholars of Religion and Film Religious Studies Theology Sociology of Religion and Chinese Studies Theology for Psychology and Counseling Kutter Callaway, William B. Whitney, 2022-02-08 This book winsomely explores the significance of theology and the Christian faith for the practice of psychology The authors demonstrate how psychology and the Christian faith can be brought together in a mutually enriching lived practice helping students engage in psychology in a theologically informed way Each chapter includes introductory takeaways questions for reflection and discussion and resources for further study and reading Changing your Mind Victor A. Copan, 2016-04-11 This book takes you on a journey that unpacks and demystifies what spiritual growth is and how it unfolds The aim is to set you on your own path toward genuine personal spiritual transformation The book provides all the tools you need biblical scientific and practical so that you can develop your own pathway for spiritual growth What is unique about Victor Copan's approach to spiritual growth is that he explores recent findings of brain research as well as scientific research on habit formation and brings them into conversation with the process of spiritual formation Research on the brain and on habit formation has uncovered significant insights about the process and dynamics of human transformation that can be fruitfully incorporated into our own pursuit of spiritual transformation Tapping into this research allows us to work in concert with how God designed humans to function body soul and spirit Christian Theology Adam Harwood, 2022-10-19 The church has been entrusted with God s revelation and to steward the word of truth we must confess the Bible s teaching with clarity and conviction Adam Harwood s Christian Theology is both biblically faithful and historically informed providing a fresh synthesis of the essential doctrines of the faith Writing from a Baptist perspective Harwood brings fresh insights that many systematic theologies lack With readable prose suggestions for further study and discussion questions Christian Theology will equip students and pastors to clarify and articulate what they believe and why Seeing Is Believing Richard Vance Goodwin,2022-07-19 In this study in IVP Academic s STA series theologian Richard Goodwin considers how the images that constitute film might be a conduit of God s revelation By considering works by Stanley Kubrik Martin Scorsese Terrence Malick and more Goodwin argues that by inviting emotional responses film images can be a medium of divine revelation

The Flourishing Family Dr. David Erickson, Amanda Erickson, 2024-09-17 When it comes to Christian parenting we crave confidence wisdom and most of all peace We pray for peace when our little ones are tossed about by waves of emotions for connection and confidence when navigating stressful mornings and exhausting nights and for wisdom in knowing how best to discipline our kids As Christian parents we re desperate to get it right to raise our children to be strong courageous followers of Jesus and yet despite the overload of endless advice at our fingertips we often feel completely and utterly lost You can become the parent Christ has called you to be and change your home and family from the inside out In The Flourishing Family Dr David and Amanda Erickson offer a new parenting perspective one that cultivates peace gentleness and confidence Deeply rooted in Scripture and backed by modern neuroscience as well as insight into child development their book will equip you to rethink common assumptions about what the Bible says about parenting and align your parenting approach with the teachings of Jesus and your identity in Him cultivate the inner peace needed to lead and guide your family with Christ and His grace at the center critically assess various gentle parenting principles through a Gospel lens so that you can respond to your child with understanding and patience honoring the divine image and unique personality God created them to have and use compassionate discipline as discipleship to focus on the heart behind your child's actions addressing the developmental or neurological roots of their behavior rather than merely correcting or punishing their actions or choices Your legacy is not defined by your parenting perfection but by your commitment to follow in the way of Jesus and to trust His Spirit to cultivate the seeds you re diligently planting throughout your children's lives Trust that He will meet you in these pages and that He will transform your hearts and home Sport and Christianity Matt Hoven, Andrew Parker, Nick J. Watson, 2019-10-31 Many people are passionate about sport yet few give thought to its role and importance in their lives let alone its relationship to Christian faith This book examines the potential of sports and challenges readers to consider how it relates to their deepest passions behaviours and actions while providing newcomers to the field with a framework to help consider the connection between sports participation and faith based values Featuring academic writers from a range of disciplinary fields including philosophy theology sports studies and education Sport and Christianity Practices for the Twenty

First Century sheds insight into the meaning of sports for Christians as participants and as practitioners Divided into practises for the mind for the heart and for moral life the numerous topics include the value of play in sports as a means for dialogue between faith traditions sports as a place to cultivate virtue and the Christian spiritual life and prayer and religious experiences in sports The result is a text that promotes new ways of thinking about the sports Christianity relationship while at the same time developing a deeper understanding of the place of sports in our everyday lives Lars von Trier's Cinema Rebecca Ver Straten-McSparran, 2021-11-11 This book offers a bold and dynamic examination of Lars von Trier's cinema by interweaving philosophy and theology with close attention to aesthetics through style and narrative It explores the prophetic voice of von Trier's films juxtaposing them with Ezekiel's prophecy and Ricoeur's symbols of evil myth and hermeneutics of revelation The films of Lars von Trier are categorized as extreme cinema inducing trauma and emotional rupture rarely paralleled while challenging audiences to respond in new ways This volume argues that the spiritual biblical content of the films holds a key to understanding von Trier's oeuvre of excess Spiritual conflict is the mechanism that unpacks the films notorious excess with explosive centrifugal force By confronting the spectator with spiritual conflict through evil von Trier's films truthfully and prophetically expose the spectator's complicity in personal and structural evil forcing self examination through theological themes analogous to the prophetic voice of the transgressive Hebrew prophet Ezekiel his prophecy and its form of delivery Placed in context with the prophetic voices of Dante Milton Dostoyevsky O Connor and Tarkovsky this volume offers a theoretical framework beyond von Trier It will be of great interest to scholars in film studies film and philosophy film and theology Hope for the Oppressor Patrick Oden, 2019-07-26 The liberating work of God calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing The challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts Patrick Oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression Part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others Part two examines the biblical and early Christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of God about being co opted by society Part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg J rgen Moltmann Sarah Coakley and Jean Vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community Pro Ecclesia Vol 23-N4 Pro Ecclesia, 2014-12-05 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for of Advanced Degree Studies, Wycliffe College, Toronto, Pro Ecclesia, 2015-03-09 Pro Ecclesia is a guarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Theologies of Land K. K. Yeo, Gene L. Green, 2020-12-24 The Crosscurrents series highlights emerging theologies and biblical interpretations from Majority World and minoritized communities The first volume in the series elaborates theologies of land a theme often missing or ignored by churches and theologians especially in the Global North In this volume four authors who represent Palestinian First Nations Latinx and South African communities examine the intricate relationship among land scape migration and identity Together with a Malaysian Chinese the authors deliberate on the complex issues arising out of political domination as well as humanity s conquest and abuse of land that create unjust space landless people and the broken landscape of God s creation
