mini lessons on a variety of thematic stylistic and grammatical topics Going West Laura Ingalls Wilder,1997-09-06 The Little House books tell the story of a little pioneer girl and her family as they traveled by covered wagon across the Midwest Laura Ingalls Wilder's classic books illustrated with Garth Williams' timeless artwork have been cherished by millions of readers ever since they were first published over sixty years ago It's a fond good bye to the Big Woods as Laura and her family pack up the covered wagon and begin their journey westward to the prairie in this latest addition to the best selling My First Little House Books series Ren e Graef's enchanting full color illustrations inspired by Garth Williams's classic artwork bring Laura and her family lovingly to life in this seventh title in the My First Little House Books series picture books adapted from Laura Ingalls Wilder's beloved storybooks Textual Transformations in Children's Literature Benjamin Lefebvre,2013 This book offers new critical approaches for the study of adaptations abridgments translations parodies and mash ups that occur internationally in contemporary children's culture It follows recent shifts in adaptation studies that call for a move beyond fidelity criticism a paradigm that measures the success of an adaptation by the level of fidelity to the original text toward a methodology that considers the adaptation to be always already in conversation with the adapted text This book visits children's literature and culture in order to consider the generic pedagogical and ideological underpinnings that drive both the process and the product Focusing on novels as well as folktales films graphic novels and anime the authors consider the challenges inherent in transforming the work of authors such as William Shakespeare Charles Perrault L M Montgomery Laura Ingalls Wilder and A A Milne into new forms that are palatable for later audiences particularly when for perceived ideological or political reasons the textual transformation is not only unavoidable but entirely necessary Contributors consider the challenges inherent in transforming stories and characters from one type of text to another across genres languages and time offering a range of new models that will inform future scholarship CUES: Choose, Use, Enjoy, Share Phyllis B. Leonard,1998-08-15 Calling for structured interaction between students and books Leonard specifies how teachers and media specialists can collaborate to create a library media centered program that develops the talents of all K 6 students The ultimate goal is to encourage reading and build reading comprehension questioning and thinking skills Models groupings strategies and materials are suggested in a grade appropriate scope and sequence The latest theories about the process of education thinking multiple intelligences how children learn individually and cooperatively as well as effective grouping and teaching strategies for differentiation are discussed The book also has sample lessons and scenarios drawn from the author's experience Grades K 6 The Road Less Traveled Kyle Marie Townes,2025-07-29 The Christian church is dwindling in many parts of the United States and countless children are growing up only to abandon their faith A well trodden secular path in child rearing has proven to lead to disaster and yet many Christian families continue on it unsure of what to do differently or how to change course Is there a better way By intertwining Scripture with studies statistics and research Townes outlines crucial priorities for early childhood and helps parents build the all important foundation and framework of Christian faith and virtue in their children's lives Summertime in the Big Woods Laura Ingalls Wilder, 1996-05-10 Summer is here The warm days of summer have arrived and that means Laura gets to spend fun filled days outdoors The winter is finally over and now it is summertime Laura and Mary are busy all day helping Ma in the garden and playing outside Ren e Graef's enchanting full color illustrations inspired by Garth Williams classic artwork bring Laura and her family lovingly to life in this sixth title in the My First Little House book series picture books adapted from Laura Ingalls Wilder's beloved storybooks Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re-circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies The Last Chapter Tony Whelan, 2010 As a Catholic growing up in County Down in the 1930s and 40s Tony Whelan encountered the problems arising in a community divided along sectarian lines But his life was enriched by youthful friendships and a love of literature and the cinema This is an autobiography of his life Life as an Awesome Doormat Dorothy A. MacIntosh, 2021-05-26 Sometimes even when you try to do what's right things don't always work out and you're left feeling like a doormat In Life as an Awesome Doormat author Dorothy MacIntosh shares a delightful array of anecdotes about just that From growing up with her four siblings on a farm near Pictou Nova Scotia to her days as a math teacher at West Pictou District High School and raising a family of her own Dorothy often ends up with the short end of the stick But that doesn't stop her from trusting in herself or regretting her choices She firmly believes if you have never made a mistake then you have never done anything Now seeing the bright side of things Dorothy has plenty of funny stories to tell and thoughtful lessons to share After all if you can't laugh at yourself you might be missing the lessons you could be learning Life as an awesome doormat it can happen to anyone Be on the lookout To Wear the Dust of War S. Iwry, 2004-08-20 Like many European Jews Sam Iwry began his life in Poland but at the age of ten fled with his family to Russia before World War I At age 29 Iwry was forced to flee again this time from the Soviets and ended up in Shanghai China joining 20 000 Jewish refugees who were there The story of the Diaspora caused by the Holocaust is well known but the Far Eastern dimension has come to light only very recently Iwry is a magnificent storyteller who not only brings the harrowing details of flight and survival into vivid detail but he is also an historian who deliberately places his own experiences into much wider context This oral history sheds light on Jewish life in Eastern Europe during the inter war period the search for a safe haven from Nazis and Soviets daily life in the Shanghai ghetto and emigration to America Iwry s story is both representative of the Jewish experience and also completely unique

Two Serious Ladies Jane Bowles,2025-08-26 Jane Bowles s avant garde study of women breaking free from the bonds of convention is itself a master class in liberation from the constraints of everyday thinking form and feeling Two Serious Ladies is the only novel ever written by the legendary and underappreciated Jane Bowles Long held as a visionary cult classic this subversive anarchic and riotous novel follows two upper class women as they strip themselves of propriety and descend into debauchery and it now appears with a new introduction by Sheila Heti Christina Goering and Frieda Copperfield each embark on their own voyage of discovery and emancipation Mrs Copperfield visits Panama with her husband but finds herself descending into a shadowy and seedy demimonde of brothels and bars while Miss Goering engages in increasingly sordid encounters with strange men At the end the two women meet again each transformed by her experience and the reader transformed by the devastating wit and strange clarity with which Bowles writes of society and women s place in it

The Flavour of Home Earleen Rather O'Dell,2000 Revealing the lives of ordinary Southern Appalachian people and the special places they call home this book has much to offer a glimpse into the Appalachian lifestyle hilarious stories of growing up local genealogy and good Southern comfort food
