The Handbook of Social Work Research Methods Bruce Thyer,2010 This updated Handbook addresses the changes in the field of social work as qualitative research gains more prominence as well as mixed methods and various issues regarding race ethnicity and gender Edited by a leading scholar in the field this text covers meta analysis designs to evaluate treatment and key Internet resources Issues Around Aligning Theory, Research and Practice in Social Work Education Allucia L. Shokane,Jabulani C. Makhubele,Lisa V.

Blitz,2018-12-01 Issues Around Aligning Theory Research and Practice in Social Work Education provides a reflection on social work education with a slant towards an Afrocentric approach aiming to facilitate strong reflective thinking and to address local realities about social work education on the African continent as well as in broader global contexts This volume focuses on issues around aligning theory research and practice in social work education A significant contribution is made here to the scholarly understanding of opportunities to sustain the academic discourse on social work education Social work as a profession and a social science discipline is dynamic and it ought to meet the challenges of the realities of the societies in which it serves given the history of the changing society of South Africa from apartheid to democracy Over the years social work education and training has undergone tremendous curricular changes with the enactment of the White Paper for Social Welfare and the national review respectively by the South African Council for Social Services Professions SACSSP and the Council on Higher Education CHE for the re accreditation of all Bachelor of Social Work BSW programmes in South Africa fulfilling the prescripts of the Higher Education Act No 101 of 1997 as amended and Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 It is worth mentioning that the curricular changes will also continue with the current reviewing of Social Service

Professions Act No 110 of 1978 as amended which is underway in South Africa This book is really ground breaking The Afrocentric perspective on social work practice contributes to the current discourse on decolonisation of social work teaching and practice From a methodological perspective the book is premised on multi inter and trans disciplining in social sciences It covers aspects of social work education and practice through research narrative qualitative African methodology secondary data analysis etc engendering values and ethics report writing supervision in fieldwork as well as exchange programmes and international service learning addressing a number of concepts such as cultural competency cultural awareness and sensitivity are addressed

Historical Research Elizabeth Ann Danto, 2008-09-16 Historiography is the method of doing historical research a potentially powerful tool in a social work historian or qualitative researcher's arsenal As with other research methods a historical study in social work must include a problem definition a hypothesis definition of the variables gathering and analyzing historical evidence and interpretation of the findings with reliability and validity factored in throughout This addition to the Pocket Guides to Social Work Research Methods guides doctoral students and researchers in the construction of a historical study from problem formulation to instrument construction to data collection and analysis

Methodological Innovations in Research and Academic Writing Zimmerman, Aaron Samuel, 2021-10-08 Innovative methodological approaches are vital for experienced researchers and early career researchers alike to conduct research In order to provide them with the best possible resources the methodologies must be comprehensive and describe the data sources approaches to data collection and approaches to data analysis that are typically employed within the given methodological approach Methodological Innovations in Research and Academic Writing serves as a resource for graduate students and higher education faculty and presents a number of methodological innovations in research as well as applied examples of these methodologies in practice The chapters focus on the application of methodological approaches through the presentation of real world examples and descriptions of the epistemological foundations of the given methodologies so that researchers can fully articulate and justify their methodological choices in the context of their research design It is a crucial guide for graduate students who are designing and writing their doctoral dissertations as it introduces them to the best practices related to rigorous research design and academic writing This book is ideal for graduate students higher education faculty researchers and academicians
