Engaging College and University Students Ken Badley, 2022-09-02 Engaging College and University Students outlines creative and effective course organization and teaching learning strategies for higher education courses By describing specific instructional best practices rather than addressing general questions about teaching in higher education the author presents a valuable resource for educators to consult in the moment The author explores the challenges of engaging students in online settings and draws comparisons with face to face strategies of engagement By organizing the strategies according to course progress and offering corresponding rubrics for assessment this guide for instructors offers a solid foundation for an ever changing teaching and learning landscape How to Meet Standards, Motivate Students, and Still Enjoy Teaching! Barbara P.

Benson,2008-08-15 Barbara P Benson introduces a system of teaching and learning that both teacher and students can benefit from The system is based on four practices and these are integrated with tests Theatre in a Media Culture Amy Petersen Jensen,2014-11-04 As the media have increasingly become the lens through which we see the world media styles have shaped even the fine arts and contemporary theatre is particularly indebted to mass media s dramatic influence In order to stay culturally and financially viable theatre producers have associated theatrical productions and their promotion with film television and the Internet by adopting new theatrical practices that mirror the form and content of mass communication This work demonstrates how mediatization or the adoption of the semantics and the contexts of mass media has changed the way American theatre is produced performed and perceived Early chapters use works like Robert Wilson s 3D digital opera Monsters of Grace and Thecla Schophorst s digitally animated Bodymaps to demonstrate the shifting nature of live performance Critical analysis of the interaction between the live performer and digital technology demonstrates that the use of media technology has challenged and changed traditional notions of dramatic performance Subsequent discussion sustains the argument that theatre has reconfigured itself to access the economic and cultural power of the media Final chapters consider the extent to which mediatization undermines theatrical authorship and creativity Effective Grading Barbara E. Walvoord, Virginia Johnson Anderson,2011-01-13 The second edition of Effective Grading the book that has become a classic in the field provides a proven hands on guide for evaluating student work and offers an in depth examination of the link between teaching and grading Authors Barbara E Walvoord and Virginia Johnson Anderson explain that grades are not isolated artifacts but part of a process that when integrated with course objectives provides rich information about student learning as well as being a tool for learning itself The authors show how the grading process can be used for broader assessment objectives such as curriculum and institutional assessment This thoroughly revised and updated edition includes a wealth of new material including Expanded integration of the use of technology and online teaching A sample syllabus with goals outcomes and criteria for student work New developments in assessment for grant funded projects Additional information on grading group work portfolios and service learning experiences New strategies for aligning tests and assignments with learning goals Current thought on assessment in departments and general education using classroom work for program assessments and using assessment data systematically to close the loop Material on using the best of classroom assessment to foster institutional assessment New case examples from colleges and universities including community colleges When the first edition of Effective Grading came out it quickly became the go to book on evaluating student learning

This second edition especially with its extension into evaluating the learning goals of departments and general education programs will make it even more valuable for everyone working to improve teaching and learning in higher education L Dee Fink author Creating Significant Learning Experiences Informed by encounters with hundreds of faculty in their workshops these two accomplished teachers assessors and faculty developers have created another essential text Current faculty as well as graduate students who aspire to teach in college will carry this edition in a briefcase for quick reference to scores of examples of classroom teaching and assessment techniques and ways to use students classroom work in demonstrating departmental and institutional effectiveness Trudy W Banta author Designing Effective Assessment Today's Sounds for Yesterday's Films K.J. Donnelly, Ann-Kristin Wallengren, 2016-04-08 In recent years there has been something of an explosion in the performance of live music to silent films There is a wide range of films with live and new scores that run from the historically accurate orchestral scores to contemporary sounds by groups such as Pet Shop Boys or by experimental composers and gothic heavy metal bands It is no exaggeration to claim that music constitutes a bridge between the old silent film and the modern audience music is also a channel for non scholarly audiences to gain an appreciation of silent films Music has become a means both for musicians and audiences to understand this bygone film art anew This book is the first of its kind in that it aims to bring together writings and interviews to delineate the culture of providing music for silent films The Griffith Project, Volume 11 Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-07-25 No other silent film director has been as extensively studied as D W Griffith However only a small group of his more than five hundred films has been the subject of a systematic analysis and the vast majority of his other works still await proper examination For the first time in film studies the complete creative output of Griffith from Professional Jealousy 1907 to The Struggle 1931 will be explored in this multivolume collection of contributions from an international team of leading scholars in the field Created as a companion to the ongoing retrospective held by the Pordenone Silent Film Festival the Griffith Project is an indispensable guide to the work of a crucial figure in the arts of the nineteenth century Parallel Curriculum Units for Social Studies, Grades 6-12 Jeanne H. The Films of Steven Spielberg Charles L. P. Silet, 2002-10-02 Steven Spielberg has fashioned an enviable career as a writer producer and director of American motion pictures winning Academy Awards for Best Direction Saving Private Ryan Schindler s List and for Best Film Schindler s List With David Geffen and Jeffrey Katzenberg he founded Dreamworks SKG already one of the most productive and respected studios in Hollywood Despite Spielberg s notable successes however his films have not avoided controversy The Films of Steven Spielberg provides for the first time a collection of critical writings by professional film critics about the director and his films bringing together many articles and reviews scattered in often inaccessible specialist publications and professional journals The opinions vary from complimentary to critical but they definitely provide a well rounded view of the films and the director Twelve of Spielberg s

major box office hits including Jaws Raiders of the Lost Ark E T The Extra Terrestrial The Color Purple Empire of the Sun Jurassic Park Schindler's List Amistad Saving Private Ryan and Close Encounters of the Third Kind are discussed in essays that vary in complexity ranging from the heavily theoretical to the more general This collection of essays compiled for both film students and professionals in the film industry attests to the influence of Spielberg and the films that have earned him a significant place in the history of cinema as one of America's most innovative and culturally important filmmakers The Visual Culture Reader Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2002 This thoroughly revised and updated second edition of The Visual Culture Reader brings together key writings as well as specially commissioned articles covering a wealth of visual forms including photography painting sculpture fashion advertising television cinema and digital culture The Reader features an introductory section tracing the development of visual culture studies in response to globalization and digital culture and articles grouped into thematic sections each prefaced by an introduction by the editor and conclude with suggestions for further reading

Adaptation and the New Art Film William H. Mooney, 2021-04-21 Since the 1990s the expropriation of canonical works of cinema has been a fundamental dimension of art film exploration Rainer Werner Fassbinder provides an early model of open adaptation of film classics followed ever more boldly by the Coen Brothers Chantal Akerman Alex Carax Todd Haynes Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck Baz Luhrmann and Olivier Assayas This book devotes chapters to each of these directors to examine how their films redeploy landmark precursors such as City Lights 1931 Citizen Kane 1941 Rome Open City 1945 All About Eve 1950 and Vertigo 1958 in order to probe our psychological philosophical and historical situations in a postmodern social spectacle In broadly diverse ways each of these directors complicates received notions of the past and its representation while probing the transformative media evolution and dislocation of the present in film art and in society

Film Studies Glyn Davis, Kay Dickinson, Lisa Patti, Amy Villarejo, 2015-02-20 Film Studies A Global Introduction reroutes film studies from its Euro American focus and canon in order to introduce students to a medium that has always been global but has become differently and insistently so in the digital age Glyn Davis Kay Dickinson Lisa Patti and Amy Villarejo's approach encourages readers to think about film holistically by looking beyond the textual analysis of key films In contrast it engages with other vital areas such as financing labour marketing distribution exhibition preservation and politics reflecting contemporary aspects of cinema production and consumption worldwide Key features of the book include clear definitions of the key terms at the foundation of film studies coverage of the work of key thinkers explained in their social and historical context a broad range of relevant case studies that reflect the book's approach to global cinema from Italian white telephone films to Mexican wrestling films innovative and flexible exercises to help readers enhance their understanding of the histories theories and examples introduced in each chapter an extensive Interlude introducing readers to formal analysis through the careful explication and application of key terms a detailed discussion of strategies for writing about cinema Films Studies A Global Introduction will appeal to students studying film today and aspiring to work in the industry as well as those

The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald, Michael Renov, 2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field's dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments

Activism and Post-Activism Jihoon Kim, 2024 Activism and Post activism Korean Documentary Cinema 1981-2022 is a new book about South Korean cinema in the private and independent sectors from the early 1980s to the present day Drawing on the methodologies of documentary studies Korean studies and local documentary discourse author Jihoon Kim argues that what is unique about this forty year history of South Korean documentary cinema is the intensive and compressed coevolution of activism aspiring to advocate democracy progressiveness and equality through alternative media and post activist experiments in documentary forms and aesthetics in the service of renewing the activist tradition

Dalit Representation in Popular Hindi Cinema Vishal Chauhan, 2025-03-31 This book explores the dynamics of caste in Bollywood and popular Hindi cinema through an examination of the representation of Dalits since the 1930s Drawing on critical textual analysis and historical analyses of a number of key films the author argues that popular Hindi cinema corroborates in the construction naturalisation and dissemination of Dalit stereotypes in line with the dominant culture on the one hand and ignores the Dalit history of struggle against caste discrimination on the other hand The book maps the evolution of Dalit representation from the 1930s to the 2000s In doing so it addresses the continuity and shifts in their portrayals and explores the linkages between the cinematic representation of Dalits and real world power structures This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in film studies film history cultural politics sociology and cultural studies

Enhancing Teaching and Learning through Assessment Steve Frankland, 2007-10-17 Assessment is the daily life of a teacher designing plans setting questions giving feedback and grading are all activities that teachers undertake on a regular basis Yet the close examination of such activities can be hindered by constraints caused by the context in which different teaching and learning activities occur and an unawareness of the effect that assessment has on the students themselves This book provides a practical guide on the effective use of assessment It includes the use of assessment tools and pedagogical design that help students deepen their learning Major issues on assessment and some excellent examples are presented as a useful resource to university teachers in enhancing teaching and students learning It will also be found useful by teachers when implementing various assessment methods School administrators and teaching development professionals will find the book useful when making decisions related to learning and teaching issues in their institutions
