

COMPLETION OF CONTRACT DOCUMENTS AND APPENDICES*GENERALLY:

The forms of contract to be used on the Council's schemes will be those issued by the Joint Contracts Tribunal Limited 2005 and will normally incorporate the latest published amendments current at the date the tender documents are issued.

Within every contract the following clauses must be inserted within the preambles or preliminaries section.

- i) Before commencing any works on site the contractor must familiarise themselves with any guidance documents, files or procedures relating to health and safety which have issued by, and, or apply specifically to the particular Council Service or premises where the works are to be carried out.
- ii) The employer, West Sussex County Council, reserves the right under any contract for its qualified Health and Safety staff, to access the site for the purposes of monitoring and recording the contractors health and safety provisions, and the interaction with existing WSCC occupants of adjacent premises.

COMPLETION OF DOCUMENTS:

By way of example, set out below are typical examples of forms of contract. However, other forms of contract may be introduced as appropriate and guidance should be sought from the County Council.

The JCT Minor Works Building Contracts 2016 David Chappell, 2017-11-06 The revised and updated edition of this classic book on the JCT Minor Works Building Contracts. The JCT Minor Works Building Contracts 2016 offers a concise overview of this agreement, which continues to be the most popular JCT contract as it is used on the sorts of small works that most architects and builders encounter routinely. Written in straightforward terms, the book is formatted in short chapters with accessible sub-headings, and the author avoids legal and pseudo-legal wording where possible. Some explanations from first principles are included where it is thought they would be helpful, and occasionally where the precise legal position is unclear, the author uses his significant experience to offer a view. Overall, the information is presented in a manner that is easy to understand, use and reference. The 2016 edition of the contract contains a great many changes from previous editions, and these are all covered. For example, the book includes information about the substantially revised payment provisions, changes to those parts dealing with insurance, variation instructions, the CDM Regulations, Supplemental Provisions, definitions and the Contractor's Designed Portion. In summary, this fifth edition has been comprehensively revised and updated to ensure the discussion is easy to comprehend and use by busy architects and contractors. Includes a number of tables and flowcharts to assist in understanding the way the contract operates. Includes several letter templates that can be used in common situations. Provides answers to the sorts of problems that commonly arise in the course of a building project. The new edition of this classic book on The JCT Minor Works Building Contracts will be an ideal tool for busy architects and contractors who need to find what to do when problems arise on projects using this contract.

Standard Letters in Architectural Practice David Chappell, 2009-03-16 This book provides over 300 standard letters for architects and contract administrators to use at all stages of contract administration. The letters are grouped into sections which correspond with the RIBA Plan of Work; the aim is to cover all the common situations encountered in practice. This Fourth Edition has been revised to take account of the extensive changes to virtually the whole of the JCT suite of building contracts. Unless otherwise stated, all letters are suitable for use with JCT Standard Building Contract SBC, JCT Intermediate Building Contract IC, JCT Intermediate Building Contract with contractor's design ICD, JCT Minor Works Building Contract MW, JCT Minor Works Building Contract with contractor's design MWD, JCT Design and Build Contract DB, GC Works 1, 1998 With Quantities Contract. The latest edition also takes account of the CDM Regulations 2007, the revised RIBA Code of Conduct and its associated guidance notes and the RIBA standard agreements for the appointment of an architect issued in 2007. Architects and contract administrators spend a great deal of time writing letters of various types. Many of them are routine and repetitive in character, but they require proper consideration if potentially dangerous liability situations are to be avoided. The book will be of use not only to architects and contract administrators but also to project managers and employers' agents.
