Jean Renoir Projections Of Paradise:

Jean Renoir Ronald Bergan, 2016-01-05 Now back in print the definitive biography of a seminal figure in film history whom Orson Welles called the greatest of all directors Jean Renoir's career almost spans the history years of cinema from the early silent movies to the naturalism of the talkies committed cinema film noir Hollywood studio productions the Technicolor period comedies and fast television techniques His film The Grand Illusion remains one of the greatest movies about the effects of war Decades after its release Renoir's The Rules of the Game 1939 is the only film to have been included on every top ten list in the Sight Sound's respected decennial poll since 1952 cementing Renoir's influence Andr Bazin and Fran ois Truffaut praised Renoir as the patron saint of the French New Wave Jean Renoir Projections of Paradise gives detailed accounts of Renoir's working methods and captivating appraisals of his films and his long and fascinating life from his blissful childhood as the son of the great Impressionist painter August Renoir This is a must read for students of film and all fans of entertaining timeless movies

Jean Renoir Ronald Bergan, 1992 A Companion to Jean Renoir Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2013-04-11 A Companion to Jean Renoir An extraordinary collection of essays that more than fulfills the aims of its editors Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau The essays offer exciting original work from younger scholars as well as long established authorities all of which offer invaluable insights into the films writings and life of Jean Renoir Receiving particular attention are questions about the singularity or multiplicity of what the editors call the many Renoirs French American Indian even transnational especially from the early 1930s through the early 1960s Whether mining relatively unexplored archive materials deploying newly current methodological approaches interrogating one of a wide range of topics and issues or engaging in close textual analysis the contributors construct a tantalizing series of innovative road maps for future researchers to pursue Richard Abel University of Michigan Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau have brought together essays that bring new perspectives to both the best known and the lesser known of Renoir's films Both French cinema specialists and viewers new to Renoir's work will find much of interest in this outstanding collection Judith Mayne Ohio State University Dubbed simply the best director by Fran ois Truffaut Jean Renoir is a towering figure in world film history This exhaustive survey of his work and life features a comprehensive analysis of his films from the multiple critical perspectives of the world's leading Renoir scholars Renoir's career spanned four decades and four countries and included an extraordinary body of films some of which La Grande illusion 1937 and La R gle du jeu 1939 are universally recognized masterpieces Fathered by the celebrated painter Pierre Auguste Renoir the filmmaker lived through much of the twentieth century beginning his career in the silent era and ending it in full Technicolor His films are notable for their paradoxical combination of strong internal coherence and thematic breadth and diversity and they provide a rich source for today's scholars of film history and French culture This handbook the largest volume on Renoir ever produced in the English language ranges in scope from extreme close up analysis of individual films to long shot explorations of his aesthetics and the social and cultural contexts in which he worked The most ambitious critical study of Renoir to date this book will appeal to film enthusiasts as much as scholars and specialists Postwar Renoir Colin Davis,2012-07-26 This book reassesses director Jean Renoir's work between his departure from France in 1940 and his death in 1979 and contributes to the debate over how the medium of film registers the impact of trauma The 1930s ended in catastrophe for both for Renoir and for France La Règle du jeu was a critical and commercial disaster on its release in July 1939 and in 1940 France was occupied by Germany Even so Renoir continued to innovate and experiment with his post war work yet the thirteen films he made between 1941 and 1969 constituting nearly half of his work in sound cinema have been sorely neglected in the study of his work With detailed readings of these films and four novels produced by Renoir in his last four decades Davis explores the direct and indirect ways in which film and Renoir's films in particular depict the aftermath of violence European Directors and Their Films Bert Cardullo,2012-08-09 In European Directors and Their Films Essays on Cinema Bert Cardullo offers readable analyses of some of the most important film artists and individual films of the last several decades Beyond simple biographical capsules and plot summaries these readings demonstrate with elegance and clarity what cinema means as well as shows explaining how international moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex significant human goals Roots of Film Noir Kevin Grant,2022-12-07 Individual reviews of 90 films created and released before 1941 are included here in the first title by title reference guide to the forerunners of film noir Silent Hitchcock thrillers and German expressionist masterpieces French poetic realist dramas and forgotten Hollywood B movies pseudo Freudian gangster films and costume melodramas are among the works covered The collection spans subgenres and cultures of filmmaking aiming to demonstrate that the roots of noir were sown far and wide long before the lasting and mysterious genre flowered in America during the war years Zachary Scott Ronald L. Davis,2009-09-28 Throughout the 1940s Zachary Scott 1914-1965 was the model for sophisticated debonair villains in American film His best known roles include a mysterious criminal in The Mask of Dimitrios and the indolent husband in Mildred Pierce He garnered further acclaim for his portrayal of villains in Her Kind of Man Danger Signal and South of St Louis Although he earned critical praise for his performance as a heroic tenant farmer in Jean Renoir's The Southerner Scott never quite escaped typecasting In Zachary Scott Hollywood's Sophisticated Cad Ronald L. Davis writes an appealing biography of the film star Scott grew up in privileged circumstances his father was a distinguished physician his grandfather was a pioneer cattle baron and was expected to follow his father into medical practice Instead Scott began to pursue a career in theater while studying at the University of Texas and subsequently worked his way on a ship to England to pursue acting Upon his return to America he began to look for work in New York Excelling on stage and screen throughout the 1940s Scott seemed destined for stardom By the end of 1950 however he had suffered through a turbulent divorce A rafting accident left him badly shaken and clinically depressed His frustration over his roles mounted and he began to drink heavily He remarried and spent the rest of his career concentrating on stage and television work Although Scott continued to perform occasionally in films he never reclaimed the level of stardom that he had in the mid 1940s To reconstruct Scott s life Davis uses interviews with Scott and colleagues and reviews articles and archival correspondence from the Scott papers at the University of Texas and from the Warner Brothers Archives The result is a portrait of a talented actor who was rarely allowed to show his versatility on the screen

The Social Architecture of French Cinema Margaret C. Flinn, 2014-07-22 This book provides a vital new reading of documentary and realist fiction film of the French 1930s that focuses on how these genres interlock their representations of urban spaces and places

Jean Gabin Joseph Harriss, 2023-01-24 When one thinks of the quintessential Frenchman one likely pictures Jean Gabin 1904 1976 The son of music hall performers the Paris born actor grew up in the entertainment business His onscreen debut in the 1930 s marked the beginning of many memorable roles in films such as La Grande Illusion 1937 and mile Zola s La B te Humaine 1938 His performances would earn him international recognition and establish his reputation as one of the greatest stars of film noir Pausing his performances on screen Gabin joined the Allied struggle of WWII Serving under General Charles De Gaulle in the Free French Forces as a tank commander Gabin was awarded several medals for his service Upon his return to acting after the war he became the embodiment of the uniquely French spirit a persona that would define his future roles In Jean Gabin The Actor Who Was France Joseph Harriss tells the story of this French icon This well researched biography documents Gabin s life from his start as a reluctant singer and dancer in Parisian music halls to his rise to film superstardom Harriss recounts the actor s multi faceted persona including his famously fiery temper his tumultuous love affairs including a six year relationship with the German star Marlene Dietrich and his military valor With this enthralling work film enthusiasts can gain an appreciation of France s quintessential movie star and his lasting impact on world cinema during its Golden Age

Images of Idiocy Martin Halliwell, 2017-03-02 This book traces the concept of idiocy as it has developed in fiction and film in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It focuses particularly on visual images of idiocy and argues that writers as diverse as Gustave Flaubert Fyodor Dostoevsky Joseph Conrad John Steinbeck Flannery O'Connor and Rohinton Mistry and filmmakers such as Jean Renoir Akira Kurosawa Alfred Hitchcock Werner Herzog and John Huston have all been attracted to idiot figures as a way of thinking through issues of language acquisition intelligence creativity disability religion and social identity Martin Halliwell provides a lively and detailed discussion of the most significant literary and cinematic uses of idiocy arguing that scientific conceptions of the term as a classifiable medical condition are much too narrow With the explosion of interest in idiocy among American and European filmmakers in the 1990s and the growing interest in its often overlooked history this book offers a timely reassessment of idiocy and its distinctive place at the intersection of science and culture

French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era Surrealist influences the Nazi Occupation the glories of the New Wave the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle and the present R mi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films Building upon his 2004 best selling edition the second edition of French Cinema maintains the chronological analysis factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose while at once concentrating more on the current generation of female directors mainstream productions such as The Artist and The Intouchables and the emergence of minority filmmakers Beur cinema

A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century

A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2013-02-15 A Short History of Film Second Edition provides a concise and accurate overview of the history of world cinema detailing the major movements directors studios and genres from 1896 through 2012 Accompanied by more than 250 rare color and black and white stills including many from recent films the new edition is unmatched in its panoramic view conveying a sense of cinema's sweep in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries as it is practiced in the United States and around the world Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster present new and amended coverage of the industry in addition to updating the birth and death dates and final works of notable directors Their expanded focus on key films brings the book firmly into the digital era and chronicles the death of film as a production medium The book takes readers through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day It details significant periods in world cinema including the early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s Attention is given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States the significant filmmakers of all nations and the effects of censorship and regulation on production everywhere In addition the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Engaging and accessible this is the best one stop source for the history of world film available for students teachers and general audiences alike A Short History of Film, Fourth Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2025-10-14 This updated and expanded edition of A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements directors studios and genres from the 1880s to the present Succinct yet comprehensive with more than 250 rare stills and illustrations it brings readers face to face with many of the key players and films that have shaped the industry Beginning with the precursors of moving pictures Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day They detail significant periods in world cinema including the creation of early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s They also highlight independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States Along the way the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Compact and easily readable this is a vital history of international cinema is a one stop resource for students teachers and general readers alike La Grande Illusion Martin O'Shaughnessy, 2009-11-30 Directed by the great Jean Renoir La Grande Illusion 1937 is the finest of all anti war films and a cinematic masterwork Other films oppose war by showing its horror Renoir's film holds the horror at arm's length to give us a clearer view of it A prisoner of war drama with brilliant performances from leading stars of its period including Erich von Stroheim and Jean Gabin the film combines popular appeal with a formal brilliance that allows a complex examination of how classes nations and genders relate to one another In this comprehensive and readable companion to the film Martin O'Shaughnessy underlines its sharp intelligence He shows how not content to register the world as it is the film plays off competing historical possibilities against each other facing the public with their responsibility to shape the future Locating the film in the context of Renoir's career O'Shaughnessy discusses its use of stars production history set design and reception He compares known drafts of the film with a previously undiscovered story outline casting important new light on its genesis Stressing how it spoke to its times he also demonstrates how it speaks to us now Class, Crime and International Film Noir D. Broe, 2014-04-08 Class Crime and International Film Noir argues that in its postwar classical phase this dark variant of the crime film was not just an American phenomenon Rather these seedy tales with their doomed heroes and heroines were popular all over the world including France Britain Italy and Japan Dead Ringers Jennifer Forrest, Leonard R. Koos, 2012-02-01 While the popular press has criticized movie remakes as signs of Hollywood's collective lack of imagination the essays in Dead Ringers reveal the centrality and staying power of remakes as a formative genre in filmmaking The contributors show that the practice of remaking films dates back to the origins of cinema and the evolution of film markets In fact remakes were never so prevalent as during the Classic Hollywood period when filmmaking had achieved its greatest degree of industrialization and they continue to play a crucial role in the development of film genres generally Offering a variety of historical commercial theoretical and cultural perspectives on the remake Dead Ringers is a valuable resource for students of film history and theory as well as those interested in the cultural politics of the late twentieth century Dana Andrews James McKay,2014-01-10 Dana Andrews arguably the finest minimalist actor of his generation as one critic commented could convey more with one look than many actors could with a soliloquy In a film career spanning nearly five decades Andrews appeared in some of Hollywood s most prestigious productions including The Ox Bow Incident 1943 and The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 His unique screen presence was shown at its best in such film noir classics as Laura 1944 and Where the Sidewalk Ends 1950 Beginning with an absorbing biographical chapter this critical survey of Dana Andrews screen career features a complete filmography with synopses reviews behind the scenes anecdotes and insightful comments from Andrews and his coworkers A chronological list of television radio and theater credits is included The Invention of Europe in French Literature and Film E. Ousselin,2009-02-16 Ousselin sets out to show that Europe is essentially a literary fiction and that the ongoing movement towards European unity cannot be understood without reference to the literary works that helped bring it about
