more Metafictional Characters in Modern Drama June Schlueter, 1979 Private Readings/public Texts Kenneth Krauss, 1993 In this volume Kenneth Krauss maintains that if readers are to comprehend playscripts as plays they must imagine the theatre audience so vital to the staging of any script but conspicuously absent from the text itself Krauss examines what has been written about reading playscripts or playreading and proposes four possible ways founded on a reception oriented approach to theatre communication and spectator response that playreaders may construct a sense of theatre audiences The politics of Jean Genet's late theatre Carl Lavery, 2017-10-03 Jean Genet and the politics of theatre is the first publication to situate the politics of Genet's theatre within the social spatial and political contexts of France in the 1950s and 1960s The book's innovative approach departs significantly from existing scholarship on Genet Where scholars have tended to bracket Genet as either an absurdist ritualistic or more recently a resistant playwright this study argues that his theory and practice of political theatre have more in common with the affirmative ideas of thinkers such as Henri Lefebvre Jacques Rancière and Alain Badiou By doing so the monograph positions Genet as a revolutionary playwright interested in producing progressive forms of democracy This original and interdisciplinary reading of Genet's late work will be of interest to students and practitioners of Theatre as well as those interested in French and History International Dictionary of Theatre: Playwrights Mark Hawkins-Dady, Leanda Shrimpton, David Pickering, 1992 A dictionary of playwrights which contains 485 entries each of which includes biographical information on the playwright complete lists of published works with dates of performance and a bibliography of critical studies on the playwright Time's Fool A. Architecture in the Age of Pornography Nadir Lahiji, 2021-09-30 Architecture and its pedagogy in the academy is dominated by the technology of image production that veils the naked power behind its operation. It conforms to the principles of cultural logic of the society of the spectacle consistent with neoliberal capitalism. The problem with this dominant pedagogy is that it violates the fundamental ethical imperative putting architecture in direct contradiction with the common good. In addition, it has let architecture enter the brothel of pornographic capitalism which turns every object into an object of obscene gratification of the senses. In this book, Nadir Lahiji adopts Alain Badiou's thesis from The Pornographic Age to demonstrate that contemporary architecture is in absolute complicity with the pornographic present. The traits that Badiou identifies in this age are manifestly visible in architectural surfaces which are subordinated to the same regime of images. Similarly to Badiou's political indictments of the society which has given rise to the pornographic present, the book condemns the architecture that has lent its service to the same society with a license to consummate its transgression to better cater to the imperative of the regime of images. Transposing the conceptual categories in Badiou's analysis to the critique of architecture's pornographic turn in contemporary society, the book constructs a conceptual framework by which to demonstrate the specific manifestations of pornography in building. The book is aimed at architecture students at higher graduate and post graduate levels.

Routledge Revivals: Homosexuality: A Research Guide (1987) Wayne R. Dynes, 2017-02-17 First published in 1987, this book encompasses a broad range of interdisciplinary research into homosexuality, displaying a full spectrum of points of view. Given that the major traditions of modern homosexual research began in Europe, it is not restricted to works in English. In general, topics that are densely covered in the literature are presented in this guide selectively, with some less studied topics such as Economics and Music fleshed out with signposts to more comprehensive research. It seeks to not only mirror existing publications but also to stimulate new work by pinpointing neglected themes and methods. This book will be of interest to students of sociology.

Phantom Communities Scott Durham, 1998 Phantom Communities reconsiders the status of the simulacrum, sometimes defined as a copy of a copy but more rigorously defined as a copy that subverts the legitimacy and authority of its model. In light of recent debates in literature, art, philosophy, and cultural studies, the author pursues two interwoven levels of analysis. On one level, he explores the poetics of the simulacrum, considered as a form that internalizes repetition through close readings of a number of exemplary literary texts, paintings, and films from both the Anglo-American and French traditions, including works by Jean Genet, Pierre Klossowski, René Magritte, Andy Warhol, J. G. Ballard, Balthus, and Raúl Ruiz. Through his readings of these works, the author follows the transformations of the simulacrum, showing how its vicissitudes provide an optic for remapping the postmodern canon. On another level, the author offers an account of the role played by the simulacrum as a theoretical concept that assumes varying analytical and ideological valences in the writings of such theorists as Jean Baudrillard, Fredric Jameson, Michel Foucault, and Gilles Deleuze. In so doing, Phantom Communities intervenes in ongoing interdisciplinary debates concerning the historical and ideological limits of postmodernism as well as the utopian possibilities of art literature and philosophy in a postmodern context Moving between these debates and the interpretation of individual works the author shows how they converge on the fundamental aesthetic and ideological problem raised by the postmodern culture of the simulacrum imagining the virtual communities that at the margins of postmodern culture are at once figured and eclipsed by its proliferating images WLA ,2008 Excursion for Miracles Mark Franko,2005-04-27 How extraordinary everyday relationships shape dance Comic Agony Albert Bermel,1996-05 A companion volume to Contradictory characters this book analyzes the juxtaposition of the tragic and the comic in modern drama A New History of French Literature Denis Hollier,1998-08-19 This splendid introduction to French literature from 842 A D to the present decade is the most imaginative single volume guide to the French literary tradition available in English The 20th Century A-GI Frank N. Magill,2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography
