NAME: ELIZABETH

Naoto FUKAWA
 When Kyoto Shoin opened its first book emporium in 1868, it was representing some sort of movement. The spirit of the nation actually was tangible here. His main mission was to translate the feelings commonly to all human beings (i.e., those at work in the collections). His search in translating is an early model applicable toward the pursuit of creating things all about us.
 He is extremely skilled at taking and comparing numerous situations — such as what places individuals — into a single glowing state of light, from their own conditions.
