Manual Of Malaysian Halal Certification Procedure:

Islamic Finance Nadia Mansour, Lorenzo Bujosa, 2024-04-09 This volume discusses the new trends in law and regulation in Islamic finance Islamic finance is a particular component of the global financial system and is very different from secular finance To understand the development of Islamic finance it is important to place it in the context of financial globalization Islamic finance is a new force in the contemporary world financial system and is present in more than a hundred countries The current generation of Muslim economic power is crowding into the world's financial currents with trillions in liquidity and is growing at a high rate of 10-15% per year Islamic finance is coming into focus and is not confined to Islamic countries but is present in every larger Muslim community which means that it cannot be isolated from the effects of financial globalization This edited volume discusses the effects of global financial transactions in Islamic finance and how it impacts its law and regulation Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia Chiara Formichi, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia offers both new and established scholarship on Muslim societies and religious practices across Asia from a variety of interdisciplinary angles with chapters covering South Central East and Southeast Asia as well as Africa Asia connections Presenting work grounded in archival literary and ethnographic inquiry contributors to this handbook lend their expertise to paint a picture of Islam as deeply connected to and influenced by Asia often by passing or reversing relationships of power and authority that have placed Arab Islam in a hierarchically superior position vis-à-vis Asia This handbook is structured in four parts each representing an emergent area of inquiry Frames Authority and authorizing practices Muslim spatialities Imaginations of piety Dislodging ingrained assumptions that Asia is at the periphery of Islam and that Islam is at the periphery of Asia's cultural matrix this handbook sets an agenda against the center periphery dichotomy as well as the syncretism paradigm that has dominated conversations on Islam in Asia It thus demonstrates possibilities for new scholarly approaches to the study of Islam within the Asian context This ground breaking handbook is a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies more broadly The Halal Industry in Asia Rozaidah Idris, Mohammad Ali Tareq, Siti Fatimahwati Pehin Dato Musa, Wardah Hakimah Sumardi, 2025-03-19 This innovative open access volume explores the core characteristics of the halal industry through case studies of five East and Southeast Asian countries Brunei Darussalam Malaysia Japan Indonesia and China representing both Muslim majority and Muslim minority societies The contributors focus on some of the leading sectors of the Islamic economy comprising food finance pharmaceuticals and travel and tourism in order to diagnose the challenges they face and the opportunities that present themselves Particular attention is given to issues of certification and compliance quality assurance human resource development education legal frameworks logistics and supply chains innovation sustainability and growth potential beyond the core Muslim consumers in order to offer a critical assessment of the state of the halal industry in comparative perspective The book shows that one of the most remarkable features of the world economy over the last two decades has been the emergence and sustained growth of the global halal industry This has been underpinned by several key factors including a young and expanding Muslim population Islamic faith inspired consumption and a number of public and private strategies dedicated to halal product and service development This is a significant achievement especially given major disruptions and risks such as geopolitical instability the worsening climate crisis the impact of the Covid 19 pandemic and the uncertainties associated with AI and automation Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of the current state of the halal industry in Asia and broader questions of the global Islamic economy will find this volume an invaluable resource to enable them to understand these pressing challenges and navigate this opportunity landscape
