The Finger and the Moon Alejandro Jodorowsky, 2016-10-10 Jodo's interpretations of the stories and koans of Zen master Ejo Takata Offers more than 60 Zen teaching tales initiatory stories koans and haikus for self realization and spiritual awakening Each story or koan is accompanied by the author's lucid and penetrating commentary blending the same burlesque slapstick and sublime insight that characterize his films Explains how one must see beyond the words of the story to grasp the spiritual insights they contain Before he became the film maker and graphic novel author known throughout the world today Alejandro Jodorowsky studied with Zen master Ejo Takata in Mexico City In The Finger and the Moon Jodorowsky recounts how he became Takata's student and offers his interpretations of the teaching tales initiatory stories koans and enigmatic haikus he learned at the feet of his great and humble teacher Blending the same burlesque slapstick and sublime insight that characterize his films such as El Topo and The Holy Mountain each story is accompanied by the author's lucid and penetrating commentary as well as insights from ancient Zen teachers Yet their most significant gift to the reader is the sudden shock of realization they impart that can lead to spiritual awakening Jodorowsky notes that most people are incapable of self realization because of their fear of the void within an emptiness they seek to fill with noise and chatter He shows that Zen teachings can be compared to a finger pointing at the moon directing you to awaken to your true nature the Buddha within The danger lies in mistaking the pointing finger for the moon mistaking the words for the essential enlightenment which can only be grasped once words have been surpassed Unlike most tales these stories are intended to evoke silent illumination as true awakening and self realization cannot occur until the mind has been stilled
