Paved Paradise Henry Grabar, 2024-05-07 Shortlisted for the Z calo Book Prize Named one of the best books of the year by The New Yorker and The New Republic Consistently entertaining and often downright funny The New Yorker Wry and revelatory The New York Times A romp packed with tales of anger violence theft lust greed political chicanery and transportation policy gone wrong highly entertaining The Los Angeles Times An entertaining enlightening and utterly original investigation into one of the most quietly influential forces in modern American life the humble parking spot Parking quite literally has a death grip on America each year a shocking number of Americans kill one another over parking spots and we routinely do ridiculous things for parking contorting our professional social and financial lives to get a spot Since the advent of the car we have deformed our cities in a Sisyphean quest for car storage and as a result much of the nation s most valuable real estate is now devoted to empty vehicles Parking determines the design of new buildings and the fate of old ones traffic patterns and the viability of transit neighborhood politics and municipal finance and the overall quality of public space Is this really the best use of our finite resources Is parking really more important than everything else In a beguiling and absurdly hilarious mix of history politics and reportage Slate staff writer Henry Grabar brilliantly surveys the nation s parking crisis revealing how the compulsion for car storage has exacerbated some of our most acute problems from housing affordability to the accelerating global climate disaster and ultimately how we can free our cities from park ing s cruel yoke
