The Transparency of Time Leonardo Padura,2021-06-15 From Leonardo Padura whose crime novels featuring Detective Mario Conde form the basis of Netflix s Four Seasons in Havana The Transparency of Time sees the Cuban investigator pursuing a mystery spanning centuries of occult history Mario Conde is facing down his sixtieth birthday What does he have to show for his decades on the planet A failing body a slower mind and a decrepit country in which both the ideals and failures of the Cuban Revolution are being swept away in favor of a new and newly cosmopolitan worship of money Rescue comes in the form of a new case an old Marxist turned flamboyant practitioner of Santería appears on the scene to engage Conde to track down a stolen statue of the Virgen de Regla a black Madonna This sets Conde on a quest that spans twenty first century Havana as well as the distant past as he delves as far back as the Crusades in an attempt to uncover the true provenance of the statue Through vignettes from the life of a Catalan peasant named Antoni Barral who appears throughout history in different guises as a shepherd during the Spanish Civil War as vassal to a feudal lord we trace the Madonna to present day Cuba With Barral serving as Conde s alter ego unstuck in time and Conde serving as the author s we are treated to a panorama of history and reminded of the impossibility of ever remaining on its sidelines no matter how obscure we may think our places in the action Equal parts The Name of the Rose and The Maltese Falcon The Transparency of Time cements Leonardo Padura s position as the preeminent literary crime writer of our time Publishers' narrative making the book an innovative contribution to religious visual ethnography      Against All Odds Paul Porwoll, 2014 This history of the oldest surviving church south of Virginia and the only remaining colonial cruciform church in South Carolina is one of wealth and poverty acclaim and anonymity slavery and freedom war and peace quarreling and cooperation failure and achievement Jacket      Lamplighter Kerry Brown, 2014-07-01 Old World lamplighters once lit the streets of cities like Constantinople Alexandria and Rome In the countryside in the new colonies the lamplighter doesn't light passages through the dark he lights perimeters against it and the wildernesses beyond In the tiny South Island beach settlement of Porbeagle Candle is apprentice to his grandfather Ignis But as the community prepares to celebrate the lamplighter's retirement old stories take on darker hues If the origins of folklore are in a sunken history of violence and prejudice what is the price of Candle's freedom Inhabiting a luminous space between realism and parable between an all too familiar contemporary New Zealand and a magical otherworld Lamplighter is as captivating as it is unsettling      Dead Fear John Kuykendall, 2014-06-16 In this ensemble psychological horror novel four survivors come together to fend themselves from the restless undead But after months of living in an uninhabited California fear and isolation leaves scars in the sanity of every survivor As a character study Dead Fear examines the personal stories of four people in a world where death is everywhere and hope however dire may be all that keeps them alive      Understanding Theories of Religion Ivan Strenski, 2015-03-30 Featuring comprehensive updates and additions the second edition of Understanding Theories of Religion explores the development of major theories of religion through the works of classic and contemporary figures A new edition of this introductory text exploring the core methods and theorists in religion spanning the sixteenth century through to the latest theoretical trends Features an entirely new section covering religion and postmodernism race sex and gender and religion and postcolonialism Examines the development of religious theories through the work of classic and contemporary figures from the history of anthropology sociology psychology philosophy and theology Reveals how the study of religion evolved in response to great cultural conflicts and major historical events Student friendly features include chapter introductions and summaries biographical vignettes a timeline a glossary and many other learning aids      Building up the Waste Places Peter Anson, 2014-12-01 The title of this book gives a general idea of its subject matter a sideline of the nineteenth century Gothic Revival in art and literature This took the form among High Church Anglicans not only of restoring parish churches and cathedrals but also founding brotherhoods on supposedly medieval lines Olde Worlde externals such as flowing black robes shaven heads sandals and rosary beads helped to make young men forget that they were living in the midst of an industrial revolution To a large extent the whole business of building up monastic waste places was a form of escapism As the reader will discover the result was often as unreal as the twilight world pictured by Alfred Tennyson in his series of connected poems entitled Idylls of the King which appeared at intervals between 1842 and 1885 The earlier monkeries with their dim religious light and Gothic gloom described in these pages were contemporary with Anthony

Trollope's Barsetshire series of novels Anson has dealt already with the revival of the religious life for men and women within the Anglican Communion in The Benedictines of Caldey 1940 The Call of the Cloister 1955 and Abbot Extraordinary 1958 In his latest book he concentrates on Father Ignatius of Jesus Abbot Aelred Carlyle and Father Hopkins each of whom tried to restore Benedictine monastic life in the post Reformation Church of England Much new material has been discovered in recent years that debunks more than one lovely legend The octogenarian author has not been afraid to disclose many facts which some readers may feel ought to have been kept hidden for they are not exactly edifying The entire book might be summed up in Lord Byron's words 'Tis strange but true for truth is always stranger than fiction' Gardeners' Chronicle and Agricultural Gazette, 1843

Borrowed Time Paul Monette, 2014-03-25 An eloquent testimonial to the power of love and the devastation of loss from the National Book Award winning author of Becoming a Man Publishers Weekly In 1974 Paul Monette met Roger Horwitz the man with whom he would share more than a decade of his life In 1986 Roger died of complications from AIDS Borrowed Time traces this love story from start to tragic finish At a time when the medical community was just beginning to understand this mysterious and virulent disease Monette and others like him were coming to terms with unfathomable loss This personal account of the early days of the AIDS crisis tells the story of love in the face of death A finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award Borrowed Time was one of the first memoirs to deal candidly with AIDS and is as moving and relevant now as it was more than twenty five years ago Written with fierce honesty and heartwarming tenderness this book is part love story part testimony and part requiem This ebook features an illustrated biography of Paul Monette including rare images and never before seen documents from the Paul Monette papers of the UCLA Library Special Collections

Blackout Antonia Caroline Lant, 2014-07-14 The most universal civilian privation in World War II Britain the blackout possessed many symbolic meanings Among its complicated implications for filmmakers was a stigmatization of film spectacle including the display of Hollywood women whose extravagant appearance connoted at best unpatriotic wastefulness and at worst collaboration with the enemy Exploring the wartime breakdown of conventional gender roles on the screen and in the audience Antonia Lant demonstrates that many British films of the period signaled their national cinematic identity by diverging from the notion of the Hollywood star the mainstay of commercial American motion pictures replacing her with a deglamourized mobilized heroine Nevertheless the war machine demanded that British films continue to celebrate stable and reassuring gender roles Contradictions abounded both within film narratives and between narrative and real life Analyzing films of all the major wartime studios the author scrutinizes the efforts of realist and melodramatic texts to confront women s wartime experiences including conscription By combining study of contemporary posters advertisements propaganda notices and cartoons with consideration of recent feminist theoretical work on the cinema spectatorship and history she has produced the first book to examine the relationships among gender cinema and nationality as they are affected by the stresses of war Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Encyclopedia of New Year's Holidays Worldwide William D. Crump, 2014-05-09 Among the world s myriad cultures and their associated calendars the idea of a New Year is relative and hardly specifies a universal celebration or even a universal point in time Ways of celebrating the New Year range from the observances of religious rituals and superstitions to social gatherings featuring particular foods music dancing noisemaking fireworks and drinking This first encyclopedia devoted exclusively to the New Year includes 320 entries that give a global perspective on the New Year beyond its traditional Western associations with Christmas National or regional entries detail the principal traditions and customs of 130 countries while 27 entries discuss major calendar systems in current use or of significant historical interest The remaining entries cover a wide variety of subjects including literary works movies and television specials the customs of specific ethnic groups universal customs such as toasting and drinking football bowl games and parades and the New Year celebrations at the White House and the Vatican
