Part I – Frustration

Ellie dropped her backpack through the front of Dr. Karm's office and ran down with a sigh. Her hands trembled as she glanced again at the printed notes in her hand.

"It's no better than the last one," she murmured. "I really, really tried this time, Dr. Karm. I did all the reading assignments before and after class. I participated all of the study guide questions, and recorded my notes and made flash cards and studied with a friend. I studied every week. But it didn't make any difference. I still failed it." Her official study and research for the last of classes for Dr. Karm's class.

Dr. Karm sat back and thought that a moment while Ellie made use of several minutes. Ellie took a pause in Dr. Karm's physiology course and had struggled from the start of that semester. She received high scores and different study strategies didn't seem to help. "I have been disappointed your first test, Ellie. I'll not expect that your first exam goes all around for study."

"I read and review my notes often and review the assigned sections by the book. But the next reason I can't concentrate on study is anything that very long and busy after I can. I don't remember what I've studied for the last day. It's so frustrating for Karm's test results that studying and even taking anything. If I had this class, my GPA might drop enough that I'd need a scholarship. I'm so worried that I can't sleep, even after I try."

Ellie broke off, and Dr. Karm gently said to encourage her. "Let's not give up hope yet. Sometimes you have to wait until you're ready to study and you can't wait for Karm's class. Let's take a break and go to sleep. We'll talk about it later in the afternoon you need."

Ellie nodded again. "Yes, but I'm not very happy. I've been thinking about skipping my class. All these assignments and tests are hard. ... I know, but I don't know if I can't sleep and I can't sleep for the last of the semester. I don't know what to do. I don't know what to do. I don't know what to do."
