Nederlands kunsthistorisch jaarboek ,1998 Kroniek ,1998 At Home on the World Markets Joost Jonker,Keetie Sluyterman,2001-03-01 The Dutch economy has relied on trade for centuries During the seventeenth century the Netherlands experienced a Golden Age built largely on commercial enterprise and trade continues to be the golden link in the supply chain from producers to consumers Yet we know very little about the business of trade and the people involved in it What was the nature of their work and how did it evolve through the ages In the lavishly illustrated At Home on the World Markets Joost Jonker and Keetie Sluyterman look at mercantile dynasties such as the Trips and the Van Eeghens and companies such as the famous Dutch East Indian Company VOC and the modern trading company Hagemeyer that have been largely unstudied They describe the evolution of a unique economic sector that occupies a key position in the supply chain from producers to consumers

Childhood, Memory and Autobiography in Holland R. Dekker,2019-06-12 Between the 17th and 19th centuries auto biographers and diarists invented new ways to write about childhood and children At the same time pedagogical ideas about child rearing changed This book looks at the connection between these developments Egodocuments can bring the past alive and allow us to sketch six intimate portraits The second part of the book concentrates on the changes Childhood became more highly valued as a phase of life Children were taken more seriously This is shown in chapters on child's play punishment wet nursing and independence Around 1800 in diaries parents more openly grieved about the loss of a child which indicates both a change of literary conventions and changes in the way emotions were felt and expressed Finally autobiographers wrote more and differently about their early years and developed new memory strategies Autobiographical texts are discussed within a wider cultural setting using paintings poetry pedagogical tracts and novels This book makes clear how changes in autobiographical style the concept of childhood and the working of human memory are connected
