With her long-awaited wedding to police sergeant John Lyons only weeks away, bestselling author and Vineyard Inn proprietor Annie Sutton is faced with more drama than usual. Between the hideous heirloom gown her new family expects her to wear and the challenges of bonding with John's contentious daughter Abigail, Annie's having serious doubts. But when the baby she once found on her doorstep goes missing, Annie has bigger concerns including that the little girl's pregnant older half sister is in no condition to hear bad news. Desperate for answers, Annie combs the island questioning friends and even her family to be. Because suddenly it seems as if Abigail will do just about anything to stop her father from marrying Annie even if it means putting a child at risk. But if scaring Annie half to death is the plan it's working. Nothing else matters now except finding the little girl. And if postponing her future with John indefinitely is the only way to make that happen it's a sacrifice Annie may have to make. Praise for Jean Stone's Previous Novels: Filled with heart. FLYING START : - Jilid 1A , The Painting Charis Cotter, 2019-09-03 A haunting beautiful middle grade novel about fractured relationships, loss, ghosts, friendship and art. Annie and her mother don't see eye to eye. When Annie finds a painting of a lonely lighthouse in their home, she is immediately drawn to it and her mother wishes it would stay banished in the attic. To her, art has no interest but Annie loves drawing and painting. When Annie's mother slips into a coma following a car accident, strange things begin to happen to Annie. She finds herself falling into the painting and meeting Claire, a girl her own age living at the lighthouse. Claire's mother, Maisie, is the artist behind the painting and like Annie, Claire's relationship with her mother is fraught. Annie thinks she can help them find their way back to each other and in so doing help mend her relationship with her own mother. But who IS Claire? Why can Annie travel through the painting? And can Annie help her mother wake up from her coma? The Painting is a touching evocative story with a hint of mystery and suspense to keep readers hooked. Team Canteen 1: Rocky Road Amalie
