forward which brings you to a better place from the Introduction Divorce is never easy and almost always includes profound experiences of pain isolation anger despair and confusion Here is a spiritual map for regaining your bearings helping you move through the twists and turns of divorce in a spiritually healthy way Drawing on her work as a pastor and counselor and her personal experience with divorce Carolyn Call proposes a three prong approach to help you reset your compass on a new destination wholeness Supported by first person accounts from men and women from a variety of faith traditions who have found their way through divorce she helps you identify Where you want to go I want to be true to who I am Where you don't want to go the cul de sacs of bitterness resentment victimization and guilt What you can do to get there Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney-Brown, 2019-10-16 Jean Vanier's spiritual vision and sense of humour shaped L Arche but the organization was also informed by its surprising history with the United Church of Canada In Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney Brown explores the connections between the two organizations through diverse critical insights from Julia Kristeva Doreen Massey and Mikhail Bakhtin as well as Vanier's controversial articulation of the gift of weakness Tracing the five decade relationship between L Arche and the United Church alongside evolving disability theories Whitney Brown examines both the fundamental importance of stories and the agency of people with intellectual disabilities Inversion a transformative overturning of expectations in social interactions can be upsetting or exciting challenging or inspiring she argues This book offers a fresh look at how L Arche and the United Church have worked to break down walls of difference illuminating how each tenders something unexpected to the other and to the world At a time when many are seeking new visions for society the long and complex relationship between Canada's largest Protestant denomination and L Arche offers both encouragement and a deeper way to approach questions of living in diverse communities Friends Journal, 2007 I See That You Are Down, but When Are You Going to Get Up? Shawn McDowell, 2007-10-31 I See That You Are Down But When Are You Going To Get Up chronicles the trials and tribulations I encountered during transition for boyhood to manhood through the transformative powers of Christ and the Holy Spirit within us all We are far more than our parental DNA and far greater than the product of our environment We have far more in common within the human experience than we are willing to accept The three primary causes of conflict chronicles throughout history have been based upon racial division religious intolerance and those who seek to control the resources of this planet God created for us all to share Unless we all strive to live a balanced life whereby our mind body and spirit work in unison to bring forth inner peace inner turmoil will bring for external conflict into our environment Grief and the Expressive Arts Barbara E. Thompson, Robert A. Neimeyer, 2014-01-10 The use of the arts in psychotherapy is a burgeoning area of interest particularly in the field of bereavement where it is a staple intervention in hospice programs children's grief camps specialized programs for trauma or combat exposure work with bereaved parents widowed elders or suicide survivors and in many other contexts But how should clinicians differentiate between the many different approaches and techniques and what criteria should they use to decide which technique to use and when Grief and the Expressive Arts provides the answers using a crisp coherent structure that creates a conceptual and relational scaffold for an artistically inclined grief therapy Each of the book's brief chapters is accessible and clearly focused conveying concrete methods and anchoring them in brief case studies across a range of approaches featuring music creative writing visual arts dance and movement theatre and performance and multi modal practices Any clinician expressive arts therapist grief counselor or something in between looking for a professionally oriented but scientifically informed book for guidance and inspiration need look no further than Grief and the Expressive Arts
