Reconsidered By Juan Valdez The science of our modern age is able to neither address nor solve our current global problems Author Juan Valdez believes we should study humanity s ancient wisdom and philosophy texts to develop a new intellectual paradigm that can respond and support our current needs Eurasian Philosophy and Quantum Metaphysics Theology Reconsidered is an in depth study of the origins and meanings of ancient philosophies before they were fractured into mythology and religions and attacked by modern science Beginning with creation mythology in Eurasia through the development of philosophical thought to the Scientific Revolution to our own modern Quantum Era the progression and abandonment of ancient wisdom is carefully studied Valdez reviews and analyzes the ancient texts themselves to understand what they truly say and not what later historians have said about them The Indo Aryan Vedas the Torah Rene Descartes Discourse on the Method and Principles of Philosophy Neils Bohr s Atomic Theory and more are all respectfully and critically assessed As enlightened as we may consider ourselves Valdez calls attention to how limited modern thought has become By reviewing past wisdom we can not only rediscover the roots of modern thought but place Wisdom itself at the top of intellectual pursuits Eurasian Philosophy and Quantum Metaphysics Theology Reconsidered is a rich and nuanced study on how humanity has thought of itself Cowboy Politics John S. Nelson, 2017-11-01 The politics of popular westerns are surprising in substance and significance especially of late Cowboy Politics shows how westerns in literature cinema and television face the challenges of Western Civilization even more than the perils of American frontiers Its strategy is to compare key westerns with major theories of modern and postmodern politics So it analyzes novels from Owen Wister to Zane Grey and Larry McMurtry It focuses on films from the western revival beginning in the 1990s and featuring Clint Eastwood s Unforgiven while its interest in TV stretches from singing cowboys and Gunsmoke to David Milch s Deadwood Critics are apt to find in westerns the modern politics of Thomas Hobbes and John Locke They tap devices of individuality rationality contract sovereign enforcement and representation to overcome the chaotic violence of a wild zone Cowboy Politics examines how westerns often find such measures insufficient to tame the West as a culture of honor and anger that deteriorates into feudal vengeance Instead westerns see the West as the sunset land that is already growing old and moving on So westerns seek fresh starts informed by comparing civilizations more than demonizing savages Westerns worry that modern politics devolve into exploitation oppression spectacle and terror So they pursue supplements in such postmodern politics as republicanism perfectionism populism feminism and environmentalism Especially westerns explore politics of persuasive speech in action in public doing beauty and self reliance in the modes of Hannah Arendt and Ralph Waldo Emerson The first two chapters of Cowboy Politics explain how westerns do political theory for popular audiences by making many of our myths the symbolic stories of individuals and communities which we live daily The next three chapters trace the initially modern theories of government in many westerns Then western turns to republican honor rhetoric response ability and character tracking occupy the following four chapters And these set the stage for another four chapters on western attention to postmodern terror mythmaking celebrity spectacle and forgiveness The final two chapters analyze how late satirical and transformative westerns develop realist defenses for their surprisingly postmodern politics

Summa Kitharologica, Vol. 2 Ricardo Iznaola, 2024-10-17 This second volume of Ricardo Iznaola's monumental Summa Kitharologica trilogy is according to its author a playbook for self-guided discovery in matters related to the expressive interpretation of music Its 26 short pieces in all keys in versions for solo guitar and guitar duo present the reader with an ample array of musical styles and technical procedures that serve as so many opportunities for exploration of the fascinating and complex growth process that brings the player from basic acquaintance with a score to masterful assimilation of its contents As the distinguished British guitarist and pedagogue Jonathan Leathwood remarks in his Foreword to the book at this point the player is so at one with the score that they can stretch it and occasionally contradict it without ever betraying its essential meaning attaining that desirable imprecision proposed as a marker of ultimate mastery by cellist and pedagogue Pedro de Alcantara as Leathwood reminds us

The musical contents are complemented by brief epigraphs preceding each solo miniature ranging from the factual to the poetic whose purpose is to anchor the music in an evocative affect charged context that may hopefully stir the player's imagination as will the excellent recordings by Laura Husbands and the Arabesque Duo. Additional commentaries in the Working Notes section in the appendix and in the afterword deal with topics as diverse as mental practice synesthesia musical peak experiences prosody and rhythm theory the hazards of a performing career and the performer's need for and the challenges of introspective self assessment. Throughout the book advocates as its core thesis the importance of a questioning stance what if as the path to discovery through changes in points of view a consistently variable perspectivist approach in which comparison and evaluation of multiple alternatives rather than prescriptive pre-ordained solutions is taken as the foundation for true understanding. Volume 3 of Summa Kitharologica Handbook of Comparative Fingering Analysis completes the set with a comprehensive analytical overview of guitar fingering strategies since the early 19th century.

100 Must-read Life-Changing Books
100 Must-read Life-Changing Books Nick Rennison, 2008-09-25 Novels which transform our ideas about human possibilities biographies which celebrate the achievements of extraordinary individuals polemical works of non-fiction which oblige us to alter our views of the world or of human society all of us can remember reading at least one book which made us think about the world anew. Here the author of the popular Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide selects the very best books which may or may not have changed the world but which have certainly changed the lives of thousands of people who have read them. Some examples of titles included Maya Angelou I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings a poignant recording of the author's triumph over the obstacles of being black and poor in a racist society Paulo Coelho The Alchemist Santiago's meeting with the alchemist opens his eyes to the true values of life love and suffering The Diary of Anne Frank Half a century later the story of a teenager coming to maturity in the most terrible of circumstances remains profoundly moving Kahlil Gibran The Prophet Gibran's poetic essays reveal his thoughts on everything in life from love and marriage to the enigmas of birth and death Robert M Pirsig Zen and the Art of

Motorcycle Maintenance Pirsig's narrator creates a philosophical masterpiece that has the power to change lives Stalled Michael Hlinka, 2015-03-28 For the fifty years following the Second World War Canada enjoyed a period of spectacular economic growth the economy quadruple in size and the living standard of most Canadians steadily improved However in the years since Canada has suffered from economic stagnation Businesses keep closing and Canadians find it harder to get and keep a good job Increasingly Canadians have relied on consumer debt to help mask the underlying problems but for many even that temporary form of relief is no longer an option In Stalled Michael Hlinka explains what drove Canada's five decade expansion and what has put us in the rut we're currently in He also shows that there are solutions for Canada as a country and for individual Canadians and that we can get out of the rut we're in if we start doing the things that once made us great Stalled shows how The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley, Olof Johansson, 2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower's long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume 50 Spiritual Classics Second Edition Tom Butler-Bowdon, 2016-12-14 If you only ever read one spiritual book let it be this one Susan Jeffers author of Feel the Fear and Do It Anyway 50 Spiritual Classics captures the diversity of life journeys that span centuries continents spiritual traditions and secular beliefs from the historical The Book of Chuang Tzu to modern insight from the Kabbalah from Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet to Eckhart Tolle's The Power of Now The first and only bite sized guide to the very best in spiritual writing this one of a kind collection includes personal memoirs and compelling biographies of such diverse figures as Gandhi Malcolm X and Black Elk Eastern philosophers and gurus including Krishnamurti Yogananda Chogyam Trungpa and Shunryu Suzuki and Western saints and mystics such as St Frances of Assisi Hermann Hesse and Simone Weil The last fifteen years have been a golden age in the genre of personal spiritual awakening with names such as Eckhart Tolle Neale Donald Walsch and James Redfield breathing new life into the literature 50 Spiritual Classics showcases these newer works alongside traditional classics such as St Augustine's Confessions and Teresa of Avila's Interior Castle and conveys the great variety of spiritual experience. In its commentaries of both the conventional classics as well as new writings destined to endure 50 Spiritual Classics makes universal the human spiritual experience and will inspire spiritual seekers everywhere to begin their own adventure.
